Men Who Select a New Suit or Overcoat Today at Meier & Frank's

"King Pharaoh" Reigns Supreme

at Meier & Frank's, and all who see him are filled with wonder that an animal can be so trained to almost "human" intelligence, through love, patience and kindness, never having been subjected to the use of whip nor harsh words.

Daily and at each performance of "King Pharaoh"—truly named "the Wonder of the Ages"—the crowds increase, many returning the second and third time to see this marvelous horse that can read, spell, do sums and many other wonderful things. See him today. Performances at 10 A. M., 11 A. M., 1:30 P. M., 2:30 P. M., 3:30 P. M. and 4:30 P. M., fifth floor, new building

Music which gentler on the spirit lies Than tired eyelids upon tired eyes.—Tennyson.

Assuredly those profound and tender musical thoughts of Tennyson would find sweet accord in today's interpretations of quaint old airs on the masterpiece Grafonola.

"Grafonola Leader" and 26 Selections $85.50

The distinctive music lovers of Portland will indeed appreciate the moderate price of this masterpiece—an instrument that truly expresses the charm of the medieval melodies as well as the modern compositions. The Grafonola is a consummate achievement, embodying mechanical perfection, thorough workmanship, beauty of design and completeness of detail. Comes in mahogany, dull oak and satin-walnut finish; features the new No. 6 Reproducer, practical speedometer which accurately registers the number of revolutions per minute. The Grafonola complete, including 26 selections and an automatic stopping device, for $85.50.

Just received another shipment of the popular dance record, "Too Much Mustard."

John McCormack sings at the Armory Sunday, February 8. Come in any time and hear the rich old Irish airs of John McCormack—the marvelous accuracy of the interpretations of his songs will be a revelation to you.

Grafonola Department, Basement Annex —Entrance Sixth and Alder-street Vestibule.
