COLTS TOP-HEAVY: 2 TO BE DROPPED

Mahoney and Murray Slated for Shift-Former May Go to Victoria Club.

NICK STRONG FOR LEONARD

Benny Henderson Out With Knock Against McCredie-San Francisco Turns Down Chance to Take Evans From Nationals.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Finding himself overstocked with talent, Nick Williams has decided to unload some of his Portland Northwestern excess baggage before reporting time. The first veteran to go will be Chris Mahoney, and it is likely that Dan Murray, young catcher, will also be sold. Manager Williams admitted last night that he had a deal on with Victoria for Mahoney. Victoria seeks the ex-Coast outfielder and Nick believes he can spare him.

Dr. Mahoney Victoria seeks the ex-Coast outfielder and Nick believes he can spare him. lieves he can spare him.
"I want a little more speed," explained the popular local leader. "Chris is a mighty good man and has a pleasing personality, but I intend to develop some youngsters for my outfield."

nager Williams has practically decided to train again at Santa Rosa, and has tentatively closed with the Chicago White Sox for a game there March 24. Last Spring the Colts gave the Chi-cagoans a fierce trimming. Martinoni and Eastley making them appear like bushers. The Colts will play at Sacramento March 28 and 20, mento March 25 and 29.

"In the list of pitchers published yesterday, "Tiny" Leonard's name was inadvertantly omitted," remarked Manager Williams. "That big boy ought to prove a winner for me. I liked his work when he was with Spokane and I predict the major leagues for him within two years. When he was up at Philadelphia before he was only a mere kid in his 'teens and that was too big a jump for him from college to big league ball."

San Francisco had a chance to buy Outfielder Evans from the St. Louis Nationals the other day, but Del Howard turned down the chance, for Evans is a left-handed batter and the Seals already have Mundorff and Schaller as portside delegates. Evans appeared in Portland with the Sox-Glants last November and is now over in Italy.

Benny Henderson has taken a firm grip on himself and is training faithfully for his "come back" with the San Francisco Coasters. The expeaver star is up a Boyes Springs conditioning, and, to quote Francis Mannix in the Bulletin:

nix in the Bulletin:

"Henderson presents all the evidences of sincerity. He is a big, wholesouled fellow, who inspires confidence from the very first, and he seems to be the kind of man whose word, once given, will endure for good."

All of which is nice talk, but, here's some from Benny himself that isn't quite so ornate:
