

GILL'S COST OF NOT BEING LOW

But $525 Spent by 'Comeback' Champion in Seattle Primary Mayorality Race.

SOCIALIST MAY CONTEST

Winnor Managers Do Not Concede Defeat and Are to Investigate Charges of Incorrect Re- ports—Bull Moose Lost.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 18.—(Special.)—H. Gill, champion "comeback" in yesterday's mayorality primaries, today found he had romped home with the highest number of votes at the lowest cost of a vote. His ballots cost only 2 cents each. But for the others, the high cost of vote getting is a burning issue.

Gill paid all of his own bills, managing to squander a total of $525.76. He, however, ended the race with 23,412 votes of confidence, which cost about 2 cents each.

The Gill forces are preparing for the final contest on March 2. Gill has promised strict regulation of the saloons, enforcement of all the laws, and removal of Chief of Police Banlick. Gill declares that he received no support whatever from the saloons in yesterday's contest.

The only candidate who received a majority of all the votes cast yesterday was Robert B. Heskieth, President of the City Council, a prominent labor leader, who got 35,000 votes. He will be obliged to enter the final, however.

The Socialists placed their candidates for Corporation Counsel, Controller and Treasurer on the final ballot. The highest Socialist vote cast yesterday was 14,155 for Edwin J. Brown, candidate for Corporation Counsel.

Although Richard Winnor, nominee of the Socialist party for Mayor of Seattle, finished in third place, 384 votes behind James D. Trenchholm, the Winnor managers will not concede his defeat, and say that they will make a careful investigation of charges that the result was not reported correctly.

George E. Worley, "efficiency engineer," declared that he spent $2553.25, and his friends tendered him support in the sum of $71 votes.

H. C. Pigott, Bull Moose and Prohibitionist, who polled the lowest vote of all, spent $248.23 for 544 votes.

D. Trenchholm, business men's candidate, who will finish the race with Gill, disposed of $3300 in securing 11,852 tallies.

Austin E. Griffiths, who resigned a $3000-a-year job as Councilman to run for Mayor, declared that his expenses were $1700.85. He polled 507 votes.

"Jack" Slater, chairman of the progress and prosperity committee of the Chamber of Commerce, polled 2214 votes. He spent $182.93.

CO-OPERATION TO BE TOPIC

Unions of State of Washington to Meet in Seattle Soon.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Beginning February 26, the sixth annual meeting of the Washington State Co-Operative Union will continue two days at Labor Temple in this city. Delegates have been invited from all co-operative concerns which can qualify under the state laws and a large attendance is expected. Similar societies of Oregon, Idaho and Columbia have also been asked to send representatives.

At the meeting a move will be started to have the Legislature pass a measure providing for state farm credit banks. The establishment of a state co-operative paper also will be a matter for discussion. Plans for a wholesale agency for the societies of the state will be urged.

T. M. Wold, of Stanwood, is president, and A. Wardell, of Seattle, is secretary of the state union.

MILWAUKIE TALKS ROADS

Heated Discussion Held Over Plan to Build Permanent System.

MILWAUKIE, Or., Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Grant B. Dimick and T. W. Sullivan urged people to vote for the proposed $800,000 bond issue for permanent roads, and C. E. Spence and H. G. Starkweather opposed the issue at the meeting held in the Milwaukee City hall last night under the auspices of the Milwaukee Commercial Club. There was a large attendance. No vote was taken, as the meeting was called to adjourn to permit the people to vote.

Mrs. Knud Roald gave a solo, and instrumental music was rendered.

CHECK ON BANK UNDER WAY

Superintendent Sargent Takes Up North Powder Closing.

NORTH POWDER, Or., Feb. 18.—(Special.)—S. K. Sargent, superintendent of banks of Oregon, arrived Tuesday and began a check on the Powder Valley State Bank, which closed its doors yesterday pending an investigation. Mr. Sargent said today that the closing was entirely voluntary on the part of the bank's officers. Wishing to avoid difficulties they applied to the state for an examination.

Mr. Sargent said that in no way had the officials of the bank overstepped the law.

F. W. JENNINGS RELEASED

Portland Man Is Discharged From Custody by Roseburg Court.

ROSEBURG, Or., Feb. 18.—(Special.)—On motion of the District Attorney the case against F. W. Jennings, of Portland, charged with shooting and injuring Gerwald, of Sutherlin, was dismissed late today and W. E. Caldwell, on trial yesterday charged with larceny of $80, was acquitted by a jury.

S. E. Brown, a local druggist, recently convicted of violating the local opium laws in the Justice Court, today dismissed his appeal to the Circuit Court and paid a fine of $300.

OREGON "U" ATTRACTIVE

Canal Zone, Alaska and Four Foreign Countries on Enrollment.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Feb. 17.—Fifteen students from the Canal Zone and four foreign countries are represented in this year's enrollment at the University of Oregon; this applies only to the students upon the campus at Eugene, no account being taken of the law school at Portland, the medical school at Portland, last year's summer school or the school of music.

LEWISTON MAN ASPIRES

MILES S. JOHNSON WOULD BE MEMBER OF CONGRESS.

Native of Portland, Who Made Good in Idaho, Makes Announcement of His Candidacy.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Miles S. Johnson, of Lewiston, Prosecuting Attorney of Nez Perce County, yesterday announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for representative in Congress from Idaho.

Mr. Johnson has lived in Lewiston since 1898. He is 42 years old and a native of Portland, Or., being a son of Jasper W. Johnson and Mary E. Johnson, pioneers. His grandfather, William Johnson, arrived in Oregon with his family in 1846 and took up a donation land claim six miles east of the present City of Portland. John D. Post, his grandfather on his mother's side, moved to Oregon City in 1853 to become president of the Baptist College there.

Since coming to Idaho 18 years ago Mr. Johnson has taken an active part in the state's affairs. In 1891 he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Nez Perce County and served two terms, until 1905. Again, in 1912, as a candidate for the same office he was elected by an overwhelming majority.

In 1905 he was appointed Assistant United States Attorney. One of his achievements was the breaking up of an organization of cattle rustlers. He resigned in 1908, but was afterward named special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States in the prosecution of land fraud cases.

"I believe that the Representative of Idaho should do everything that it is possible for him to do toward protecting and aiding every industry west of the Rocky Mountains and he should work in harmony with the members from all states west of the Rocky Mountains who hold like views," he says.

EUGENE DRAWN

Delegates to Development Meet Expected to Be 150.

BIG GATHERING ON TODAY

Representatives From All Parts of State Likely to Be 1000, Among Whom Will Be Men of Affairs and Prominence.

With the list of reservations at a total of 131 last night and demands for more reservations coming in, the preparations for the excursion to the development meeting at Eugene, which will be held this afternoon, were brought to a conclusion. The Portland Commercial Club will probably be represented in Eugene today, with the list already reserved and with the "11th-hour" members which will join the party at the North Bank depot when the excursion leaves at 7:40 this morning, by nearly 150 persons.

William Woodhead, president of the Associated Ad Clubs of America, who is guest of the Portland Ad Club in Portland, will go with the party to Eugene and will be one of the speakers at the convention. G. M. Hyland has been delegated by the Pacific Exposition commission to speak in its behalf. The other details of the program will be handled chiefly by the Eugene Commercial Club, which is to be the host to the 1000 or more delegates from other parts of the state who will be at the convention.

Badges issued to the members of the excursion feature the slogan, "Buy Your Ticket via Oregon in 1915," which is to be one of the important points of discussion at the convention. Salem, Albany, Roseburg, Medford, Roseburg and many other large cities of the Willamette Valley are sending special trains bearing their delegations to the convention today.

The list of reservations in the Portland party last night was as follows: J. A. Carrey, E. R. Felton, John H. Burdard, T. Pearson, Judge C. W. Stantman, H. W. Schmeer, Willard P. Jones, H. C.
