UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Holding the patched-up University of Washington team to a single field goal, the University of Oregon basket-shooters avenged their five straight defeats at the hands of the Northerners with a 24-9 victory tonight. The expert shooting from the foul line of Captain Savage, of Washington, saved his followers from an utter rout.

Captain Fenton, Oregon's center, played one of the greatest games in his career, contributing 18 points to the total of his team. The big center was wild in his firing from the foul line, converting only four out of 11 chances, but he bagged seven field goals, spearing the hoop from all angles. Savage is the only Washington player credited with a point, for he shot the lone field basket scored by his team, in addition to delivering the seven throws from the foul line.

Oregon came to life early and obtained a lead of six points before the visitors broke onto the score board. Two points on fouls made up Washington's aggregate in the first half, which ended with the score 8 to 2. In the second half Bezdek's men established terms of greater intimacy with the basket and the game became a walkover.

The Seattle players fought gamely, but they could not stem Oregon's resistless attack. During the first half they were not allowed a single open shot at the basket, and throughout the game they were baffled by Oregon's defense. Early in the second half Savage slipped in his lonesome field goal. Just as the final whistle blew Fenton exected his last successful shot.

Aside from the opposing captains, Wolcott featured for Oregon by his showing against Savage, and Deutche played a clever guarding game for Washington.

Oregon will close the season with a series of six games with Oregon Agricultural College, four of which will be played next week.

Tonight's summary:

Washington.	Position.	Oregon.
Schroeder	F	Wolcott (2)
Duniway	F	Rice
Shively	C	Fenton (18)
Savage (9)	G	Bradshaw (2)
Deutche	G	Sims (2)

Substitutes—Koch for Wolcott, Bigbee for Rice. Goals from foul line—Savage, 7 out of 8 chances; Fenton, 4 out of 11 chances; Sims, 0 out of 1 chance. Referee—Jamison.

PULLMAN DEFEATS WHITMAN

Fast Team Work Wins for Washington State, 33 to 14.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Feb. 20.—Fast team work and clever goal throwing on the part of Washington State College's center and forwards, Crane, Boehler and Anderson, again defeated Whitman College here tonight in the second game of the series of three, the score ending 33 to 14.

Whitman was outclassed in every department of the game and was never in the lead.

TENNIS SEMI-FINALS REACHED

McCormick, Davis, Waterbury and Osborne Are Survivors.

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—Play today in the National racquet championship at the Tennis and Racquet Club brought the tournament down to the semi-finals, with H. F. McCormick, Chicago; Dwight F. Davis, St. Louis; Lawrence Waterbury, New York, and C. G. Osborne, Chicago, as survivors. The best match of the day was that between Scott and Osborne, the latter winning out through his brilliant service and better condition.

Waterbury disposed of C. Hutchins, of Boston, 15-12, 15-6, 15-2, and McCormick defeated Barrett Wendell, Jr., of Boston, 15-4, 15-3, 15-11.

The hardest match of the contest was between C. G. Osborne, of Chicago, and H. D. Scott, of Boston, which went five sets—15-2, 10-15, 15-12, 15-17, 15-10.

Dwight F. Davis, of St. Louis, defeated G. A. Thorne, of Chicago, 10-15, 15-7, 15-9, 18-15, 15-11.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—G. F. Touchard and W. B. Cragin, Jr., together with W. C. Grant and G. C. Shafer, the playing through champions, reached the final round of the National indoor lawn tennis championship doubles today. Touchard and Cragin won their semi-final match with little effort, defeating G. S. Groesbeck and J. C. McKay, 6-3, 7-5.

The match in the other semi-final proved decidedly interesting, as Grant and Shafer beat F. B. Alexander and T. B. Pell, the internationalists, at 7-5, 4-6, 6-3, in what was considered a reversal of form. W. B. Cragin, Jr., and King Smith gained places in the final round of the consolation singles, each winning easily.

The doubles' championship title will be decided tomorrow.

RITCHIE PAYS ON INCOME

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION OBEYS FEDERAL TAX LAWS.

As Gerhardt A. Steffen, Ring Titleholder, Signs Check After Declaring Earnings for Last Year.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion of the world, is probably the first boxer in the United States to pay his income tax. Stepping into the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue yesterday as Gerhardt A. Steffen, the king of the lightweight brigade declared his income as under the law and, although there was no necessity of paying the tax immediately, he declared that he preferred to have the matter off his mind and signed a check that covered the amount.

Despite the fact that he has been laid up for the last four months, Ritchie declared to a considerable gross income for the year, this including the income he received for his work on the stage as well as the big guarantees that he has been paid by boxing promoters. Under the law he was able to deduct the money he paid his sparring partners and the like, but otherwise he had to dig down in his jeans just as any ordinary citizen would do.

Advice from his attorney informed Ritchie that he wasn't exempt and he made his declaration before the first of March in order to avoid trouble. Incidentally there are not a few boxers in the United States, including Packey McFarland, Mike Gibbons, Leach Cross and others, who will have to follow suit.

MURPHY STAYS AWAY

CUBS' LEADER NOT TO BE AT NATIONAL LEAGUE SESSION.

Attack of Lumbago to Keep Chicago Magnate From Meeting at Which He Was to Be Central Issue.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—A serious attack of lumbago will prevent the attendance of Charles W. Murphy, the Chicago Nationals' head, at the meeting of the National League at Cincinnati tomorrow.

The meeting at Cincinnati, it is thought here, will concern the Chicago Nationals vitally, the transfer of Sweeney and Perdue from Boston to the Cubs being on the programme for consideration.
