of Mr. Booth's popularity that other Salemites do. "It looks a whole lot to me like R. A. Booth in Salemi, he will carry Marion County by a heavy majority." Samuel Connell, of the Northwestern Door Company, of Portland, is an ardent supporter of R. A. Booth. "I have known him 20 years," he will relate, "I have known him only as a straight-forward, honorable business man, and what's more, I feel confident that he'll be elected." Judge Colviz Indorses.

Kay Takes Stand.

"R. A. Booth stands better in Salem and Marion County than in any other part of the state, unless it be in Eugene." declared Thomas Kay, State Treasurer. "He had a splendid record in the Legislature, and the people re-member, bim." inember him." "It makes no difference who come

"It makes no difference who comes out in opposition to Mr. Booth," asserted E. M. Beasan, editor of the Albany Herald. "Mr. Booth will get the full support of Linn County. The general opinion there is that he will make an excellent candidate." J. W. Ollver, president of the Rose-burg Commercial Club; Mayor Napoleon Rice, of the same city; Gene Pairott of the Roseburg First National, and J. S. Luce, of Sutherlin, gathered on a corner soon after arriving in Eugene for the convention, and began talking of the interest in Douglas County for Mr. Booth, who was formerly in busi-ness in Roseburg. ness in Roseburg.
