

METHODISTS GREET THEIR NEW PASTOR

Dr. F. L. Loveland Comes From Topeka, Kan., to Pulpit of First Church.

COMMITTEES AT STATION

Minister and Wife, Tired After Long Trip, Are Taken to Apartments in Alexandra Until Parsonage Is Ready.

Promptly on schedule time, 7:15 o'clock last night, the O. W. R. train brought Dr. Frank Lafayette Loveland, the new pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, and his wife into the Union Depot. As the Lovelands stepped off the train they were met by G. F. Johnson, chairman of the reception committee. The other members of the committee were waiting around one of the depot pillars, where the pastor and his wife were exposed to the flashlights and cameras of the waiting newspaper photographers.

Then Mr. Johnson introduced the rest of the reception committee and the Ladies Aid Society committee and a number of others who had come to greet the new pastor and his wife, and the two tired wayfarers, showing hands and said a few pleasant words of greeting to everyone.

Dr. Loveland is a large man of florid complexion with iron gray hair. He impresses one as being a strong man and has the appearance of a statesman. He has the reputation of being not only a successful pastor, but an orator of distinction.

Doctor Answers Questions.

Although both Dr. Loveland and Mrs. Loveland must have been tired after three days and nights traveling for they left Topeka, Kan., Monday night, the doctor was willing to answer all the questions put to him. "I want to say both morning and evening services. And the last day of my pastorate I received 15 new members into the First Church, ten of them prominent business men of Topeka.

"Before leaving we were tendered one of the most gracious receptions I have ever participated in, and I want to say even though it may sound a little bit conceited, that the people of Topeka have no great love for Portland for taking me away, except in so far as they will be compensated for my transfer by the acquisition of Dr. Young, who, from what I hear of him, will be well able to fill my shoes," said Dr. Loveland. "At any rate, there will be open arms and a cordial reception for my successor."

Dr. Loveland said that the official board of the First Church in Topeka was composed of the "finest men in the city of the State of Kansas."

Great Temple Told About.

"We have the greatest Sunday school temple in our social service building in the whole Methodist Episcopal Church," he added with some pride for Topeka's new pastor was the man who built this temple, which is the pioneer of its kind in the United States.

"The First Church of Topeka," said Dr. Loveland, "has a membership of between 1400 and 1500 and there are nearly 2000 students in the school. You can see that it was something of a wrench for me to give up an institution like that, which in the four years of my pastorate I had helped to build up."

The Lovelands have two children. The son is a practicing physician in Topeka. The daughter is a vocal teacher in New York City. She is now taking vocal instruction, said Mrs. Loveland, to fit herself for the concert stage.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Johnson took Dr. and Mrs. Loveland to apartments in Alexandra Court, where they will make their home until the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, at 221 Eleventh street is put in readiness to receive them.

The committee which met the new pastor and his wife was G. F. Johnson, chairman; Philip Buehner, J. L. Hartman, R. E. Patterson, E. M. Daniel, J. K. Gill, J. P. Finley, Blaine R. Smith, R. S. Farrell, John Corke, L. O. Ralston, T. Davis, E. A. Baker, H. C. Thorne, W. O. Jungblut, Dean Wells, A. King Wilson, Charles A. Rice, H. I. McInnis, C. D. Minton, M. A. Zollinger, R. H. Hughes, R. A. Wilkins, J. P. Rasmussen and Dr. Theodore Fessler.

The committee of the Ladies Aid Society headed by Mrs. Gertrude Holbrook, was Mrs. Mabel Hamilton, Mrs. A. E. Baker, Mrs. T. T. Davis, Mrs. A. King Wilson and Mrs. Kelly.

OHIO REPUBLICANS BEGIN WAR ON COX

Governor Declared at "Harmony Banquet" to Menace Free Government.

WILSON POLICY CRITICISED

Some Progressives Attend Columbus Meeting and Hear Senator Borah Denounce Their Attitude Toward Monopoly.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 26.—Asserting that Democratic rule in state and Nation is a failure and charging that the so-called political machine which has been established in Ohio by Governor Cox is a menace to free government, Ohio Republicans and some Progressives gathered today at a "harmony banquet."

Ex-United States Senator Foraker assailed President Wilson's Mexican policy, terming it a "pusillanimous policy," and criticized the President for urging that American ships pay tolls through the Panama canal.

United States Senator Borah, of Idaho, the principal speaker, in endorsing woman suffrage was greeted by cheers. "We have found every ten dollars of equal suffrage in Idaho for good," he said.

War on Cox Demanded. Mr. Foraker and United States Senator Burton, who also spoke, referred to woman suffrage as a "minor question."

Senator Borah scored the Progressives' principle of regulation of monopoly. "Destroy the monopoly," was the Senator's plea.

"Even if the Republican party were at an end," he said, "I could never join the third party so long as it stands as it does—if I correctly understand its leaders—on this question of monopoly."

"Monopoly," said Senator Borah, "is 10,000 times worse than black slavery. It is the father of class domination, compeller of chains both for the body and for the soul, and cannot exist in any form with safety to the people in a republic. Here, sir, is where I could hardly be presumed to refer to this issue I would have to disagree with that even if I agreed with them upon all others."

Mr. Beveridge, who has spoken to you eloquently and effectively, says that trusts and monopolies are the richest, ripest fruits of civilization. He says in print that the beef monopoly, the steel monopoly, the Standard Oil Company and other monopolies are the result of the combination of genius and energy and of great benefit to the country. These industrial combinations, he says (speaking particularly of the beef trust, the Standard Oil Company and the steel trust), have steadied the whole commercial world and have extended the period of prosperity by the steadiness they have given to the commercial and financial world. More than that, he says, they have actually caused, compeller the organization of labor on modern lines.

Tariff Revision Criticized.

Senator Borah denounced Democratic tariff revision. "I do not understand how our third party friends can endorse that policy," he added. "And yet it received the votes of all the declared members of the party in the Senate and the most of the members of the party in the House. I do not see why if a man believes in these policies he should not join the Democratic party outright."

SMITH'S CONDITION GRAVE

Man Shot Near Silverton Taken to Salem for Operation.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—With his chance for recovery poor, W. R. Smith, who was shot by Martin Johnson on a farm 12 miles from Silverton yesterday, was brought to this city this afternoon to be operated upon. One bullet passed through his body, piercing the right lung.

Johnson, locked up in the Marion County Jail, declares that he had no intention of shooting Smith, but fired to frighten him. Johnson said that his brother and Smith had quarreled over the ownership of pigs, and that, in the absence of his brother, Smith visited their farm and started knocking boards off the pen, saying he would take the pigs. Johnson, according to his story, fired to frighten the man, and the shot took effect.

Retired Naval Officer Ends Severe Rheumatic Attacks With Akox.

Rear-Admiral T. S. Phelps, Jr., U. S. Navy, retired, whose home is now in Oakland, Cal., has met with such success in treating himself from rheumatic pains with Akox, the new California radio-active medicinal mineral that he states it as his firm belief that this remedy will permanently cure any case of rheumatism.

"I was a sufferer from rheumatism for eight years with occasional severe attacks that would confine me to bed for a month or six weeks at a time," said Admiral Phelps. "My hands, knees and ankles would swell so that I had to have a nurse to care for me."

"I was under the care of physicians and tried numerous remedies but received nothing more than temporary relief until about two years ago, when I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. John D. Mackenzie, who advised me to try Akox."

"I tried this remedy both externally and internally for about two weeks and received marked beneficial effects. I persisted in the use of the remedy and have never since had a severe attack of rheumatism. I consider that this remedy has benefited me more and to a more lasting extent than all the drugs I had previously taken."

"I can cheerfully state it to be my firm belief that if this medicine is taken faithfully and conscientiously

NEWLANDS AMENDMENT FAVORED.

The rest of the discussion was on the trade commission bill with the amendments drawn by Chairman Newlands. Mr. Matthewson said the committee felt the Newlands amendments would make a great improvement in the bill and would meet most of the criticisms that might have been made. He doubted whether it would be advisable to require reports from industrial corporations, and said the agitation of this question was already causing alarm in business circles. He expressed the opinion that it would be unconstitutional to authorize the committee to have access to the private papers of a corporation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Efforts of Senate and House committees today were turned toward perfecting as soon as possible the Administration's anti-trust legislative programme.

The Senate committee on interstate commerce held its first hearing on the proposed bill to create an interstate trade commission and amendments to limit the scope of that commission and to make it a purely advisory and investigating body were submitted by Senator Newlands, chairman of the committee.

Members of a committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States discussed the proposed commission before the Senate committee, while hearings were in progress before House Judiciary and interstate commerce committees with relation to legislation to regulate holding companies, Federal control of railroad securities and shortening of judicial procedure under the Sherman anti-trust law.

Co-Operation Is Restricted.

In discussing the bill for a trade commission the committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States said it was not presenting the views of the Chamber, since one of the duties of the committee was to remedy the membership of the Chamber for referendum vote a list of

THE SUPREME COURT TO COMPEL STATE TREASURER, KAY TO TURN OVER TO THE COMMON SCHOOL SECURITIES OF ABOUT $6,000,000 TO HIM.

Charles K. Matthewson was spokesman and the members of the committee were in accord on every proposition except one advanced by Dr. C. R. Van Hise. This was an amendment under which bodies of such individuals as lumbermen and fruitgrowers desiring to form co-operative institutions might submit their plan of organization to the trade commission, which, if it approved the plan, would issue a permit. This plan, Dr. Van Hise thought, would be a help to men who desired to do a legitimate business, but did not know how far they could go under the law and perhaps could not afford to pay high-priced lawyers. Mr. Matthewson argued that this plan was unworkable, and unwise.
