PORTLAND TRAINING CAMP, Santa Maria, Cal., March 5 .- (Special.)-With the arrival in camp of First Baseman Derrick and bride, and recruits, Pitcher Brown and Outfielder Milligan.

of Cedar Rapids, Ia., only three ath-letes are missing from the Portland Coast League champs' rollcall. The absentees are Catcher Berry and Pitchers Krapp and Pape. Berry has signed with the Pittsburg Federals, according to reports; Krapp is holding out and may not report, while Pape is involved in a legal fuss with the Buffalo team and is not expected for Hence, it would seem as though Santa Maria is as heavily populated with stiff-limbed athletes now as it is to be in March of 1914.

Donne and "Hig" "Beaued." All hands and the cook were out un-der a broiling sun today both morning and afternoon, unlimbering. Training camps usually are dull affairs.

Fifteen kids on a corner lot can fur-nish more real live excitement than $75,000 worth of ball talent going through training vaudevilles, although it seems a shame to puncture this bubble.

However, two accidents cut through the prosaic gloss this afternoon and, for a time, it looked as though Mac might have to endow a hospital. Walter Doane and Irve Higgin-botham were the victims, both inter-centing through halls with that you botham were the victims, both intercepting thrown balls with that portion of the anatomy usually reserved for haircuts. Hig's injury appeared serious for a few minutes, for he sfuck his head in the way of one of Gus Fisher's rifle throws to second, but except for a little dizziness he pronounced himself all right tonight. Doane's injury was more trivial.

Milligan Not Youngster. Dave Milligan, the new outfielder drafted from Cedar Rapids, is not so much of a youngster as some had figured. He is 26 years old and was up in the American Association with In-in the American Association with In-dianapolis in 1911, going back to the Central Association after suffering a fracture of the leg.

Milligan soaked the pellet for .320 last year and stole 53 bases, so his lamps and legs appear to be in tip-top condition pow eondition now.

His side-kicker, Roy Brown, took his turn feeding up halls to the batters this afternoon and showed a nice easy swing to his delivery. Brown won 13 and lost 10 games in 1313 with a club that was in last place all but the last three weeks, so must have something to recommend him.

Other than that Commuters show signs of real civilization under the tutoring of Arthur Devlin and while it's early in the game to predict that the aggregation from Pleasanton will win any pennants, it can be said for them that worse teams have seen the light of day in Coast League circuits.

Whatever else may be the matter with them—and it is not fair to assume, perhaps, that they are troubled at all—the Oaks have added a world of speed to the club as compared to 1913. Not only on the bases, but in the field it is quite evident that the trans-bay team can race on the high for some team can race on the high for some distance. At any rate, the Oaks trimmed the Chicago White Sox today by a score of 7 to 5, in a game that wavered first one way and then an-
