BUYING STEADIES PRICES

ported During Day-Best Lots Offered Command Seventeen Cents-London Advices.

There has been a considerable increasof hearly 1500 bales were reported in the three states. The larger part of the buying is understood to have been for nt; this, in spite of the fact that the English market has lately declined. London prices, as cabled yesterday, however, were unchanged from Saturday at 50@115 shil-Hngs, equal to 15% 924% cents. Facona . Tacona .

It is plain that the buying has had the effect of steadying the home market, which still remains at 17 cents for the best goods

H. L. Hart made a number of purchases yesterday, including the White & Davis crop of 37 bales at Sheridan at 17 cents. Klaber, Wolf & Netter bought 124 bales from Joe Cawrse, of Hillsboro, at 16 or 1615 cents. The Mertz lot of 85 bales at rvais was sold to Morley & Frye at about the same price. T. A. Livesley & Co. secured two lots, including the Ewert crop of 94 bales at Mount Angel, at 17 cents.

The California market was active. Two onema crops, those of J. E. Clarke, 225 bales, and Mrs. Woodward, 200 bales, were sold, the former at 1614 cents and the lat-ter at 1614 cents. About 250 bales of Sac-ramentos changed hands at 14 cents. London market conditions are shown by dealers' circulars, dated February 16 to 18. box.

The general wheat situation, according to Broomhall, in his interactional weekly review, figures out as follows:

America, the exportable surpluses are light. with the exception of Russia, but the movement from this center is considered rather disappointing; in view of the recent estimates of the Russian erop I expect a fair trade in foreign wheat for the remainder of the season, but without doubt buying first half of the season. I think there are fair rescives of native wheat, but hold-ers are not pressing it on the market at current values, and in the near future growers will be too busy seeding to deliver

July Option Is Weakened by Brilliant Prospects for New Crop-Oats

CHICAGO. March 9.—Wheat for May delivery hardened in price today on account of diminished farm reserves, but the July option proved relatively weak, owing to ideal conditions for the new crop. The close was steady at the same as Saturday night to 16 % is the higher. In corn, the outcome varied from % c decline to 16 c advance. Oats showed a net loss of % c to 13c.

Not even the brilliant crop prospects were sufficient to induce aggressive selling of May wheat in the face of the Government's builtsh report on reserves.

In corn, notwithstanding that reserves were shown to be the smallest since 1904, much selling was induiged in by both longs and shorts. Increasing stocks here and the slowness of shipping demand were held responsible.

sponsible.

A sharp break in oats came as the inevitable result of the Washington showing of unexpectedly large stocks on farms.

Provisions developed weakness after a firm start. Scarcity of hog arrivals was ignored when the price of feed began to
