

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGONIAN TELEPHONES.

Managing Editor.....Main 7070, A 6065
City Editor.....Main 7070, A 6065
Sunday Editor.....Main 7070, A 6065
City Circulation.....Main 7070, A 6065
Composing-room.....Main 7070, A 6065
Printing-room.....Main 7070, A 6065
Superintendent Building.....Main 7070, A 6065

AMUSEMENTS.

HEILIG THEATER (Eleventh and Morrison)—The Inside of the White Slave Traffic in motion pictures. Continuous from 1 o'clock.

LYRIC THEATER (Fourth and Stark)—Musical comedy, "The Merry Monarchs." This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 7:30 and 9 o'clock.

VAUDEVILLE THEATERS.

ORPHEUM (Broadway and Taylor)—This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15.

FANTASIES (Broadway and Alder)—This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 7:30 and 9 o'clock.

EMPEROR (Broadway and Yamhill)—This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 7:30 and 9 o'clock.

MOVING-PICTURE THEATERS.

PEOPLES—West Park and Alder.

MAJESTIC—Park and Washington.

COLUMBIA—Sixth and Washington.

GLOBE—Eleventh and Washington.

NEW STAIR—Park and Washington.

ARCADE—Washington, near Broadway.

WOODEN MAINS REPLACED.—

By tonight an eight-inch water main will have been completed from East Sixtieth street to Main street in Lents. This main replaces the wooden main that served the Mount Scott district several years ago, but never proved a success.

S. E. WRENN GETS DAMAGES.—

Damages to the amount of $7425 were awarded S. E. Wrenn against the Multnomah Trunk & Bag Company by a jury in Circuit Judge Harris' court. The verdict was returned yesterday afternoon. Wrenn brought suit for $10,625, of which he charged $2625 was due on a contract of employment which was breached by the defendant company, $1000 for stock and a $1000 note he alleged would have been due him if the employment contract had been completed.

SMOKING MAY BE BARRED.—

If a campaign to be waged by a number of women headed by Mrs. Stella Wilson is successful, smoking in such public buildings as the City Hall, the Court house, Postoffice and Custom-House will be prohibited. Mrs. Wilson appeared before Mayor Albee yesterday and asked him to take steps to put through the anti-smoking measure. Mrs. Wilson says there is much complaint about smoking at registration headquarters in the Courthouse and also in the corridors and offices of the City Hall and other public buildings.

MRS. CLANCIE G. HAFNEY'S FUNERAL HELD.—

The funeral of Mrs. Clancie G. Hafney, aged 41 years, who died Sunday at her home, 5725 East Seventy-second street in South East Side, was held yesterday from Dunning & McCutcheon's chapel and the Cathedral, Fifteenth and Davis streets. Interment was made in Mount Calvary cemetery. She is survived by a widow, Bernard A. Hafney, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cummins, and two children, Edward and Lester Hafney.

SEVEN HAVE SMALLPOX.—

Seven members of George Sifer's family at Beaverton, 20 miles from Portland, are recovering from smallpox, according to announcement yesterday by Dr. Calvin White, secretary of the Oregon State Board of Health. None of the cases were severe. Dr. White said. The disease was contracted when Mr. Sifer's son-in-law became ill in Portland and returned home. A physician told him that he was suffering from grip. The disease proved to be smallpox.

ADMIT TO SEE PAPER-MAKING.—

Paper-making in all its processes will be watched by the members of the Portland Ad Club at their luncheon at the Portland Hotel today. H. W. McLean, chairman of the day, has secured a special film showing the processes of paper making, and paper napkins, dishes, etc., will be featured in the luncheon. The City Hall and the Empress Theater will be features of the programme.

NEW MANAGER NAMED.—

A. E. Neate was yesterday elected manager of the Oregon Humane Society, by the board of trustees, to succeed J. L. Rudersdorf. Mr. Rudersdorf resigned to return to Spokane and take charge of the humane work there. He had been manager in Spokane for 11 years prior to his two years' service in the Humane Society of Oregon. Mr. Neate formerly was in the automobile business in Portland.

OLD FIREBOAT REPAIRS COSTLY.—

Repairs to cost a total of about $20,000 are to be started at once on the old tugboat Geo. H. Williams. The old boat will be taken to drydock, completely overhauled. New boilers will be installed, the hull will be repaired and the machinery will be placed in such condition that she will be an efficient for fire fighting as is the new boat, the David Campbell.

CASH REGISTERS MAY REPLACE CLERKS.—

An investigation now being made by City Treasurer Adams reveals the possibilities that are expected, cash registers will take the places in the near future of one or two of the clerks in the office of the City Treasurer. The plan, it is said, will eliminate the necessity of a great deal of bookkeeping.

SIX AUTO SPEEDERS FINED.—

Six auto speeders arrested Monday for violation of the road laws Sunday were fined $15 each by District Judge Bell yesterday. M. A. Stratton, Henry Erickson, F. Johnson, H. G. Rice and F. W. Graves pleaded guilty. C. L. Boss pleaded not guilty, but was found guilty after a trial lasting but a few minutes.

SPEAKING TO BE TAUGHT.—

In response to requests from nearly 30 persons, an extension course in public speaking and debate will be offered in Portland by the University of Oregon. The first meeting will be at the Public Library, room E, Saturday at 8 P. M. The class will be conducted by Professor A. E. Heddle.

TRACKS ON ALBINA AVENUE RELAYED.—

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company is relaying its tracks on Albina avenue from Kingsworth avenue to Lombard street in advance of the paving of the street. Albina avenue is the street bounding Peninsula Park on the west. The contract has been let for paving the street.

MAYOR INSPECTS INCINERATOR.—

Mayor Albee and City Commissioner Dieck made an official inspection yesterday of the incinerator plant on the edge of Guild's Lake. It was the first time Mayor Albee has been through the plant.

UNIVERSITY PARK W. C. T. U. MEETS.—

The W. C. T. U. of University park will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the University Park Methodist Church. "Literature" will be the subject for discussion.

HAVE A STORY TO TELL.—

Will give a new plan in exchange for the work R. O. Quesselle. Main 6641 or Home A 6641.—Adv.

PORTLAND MEN INVITED.—

Portland Chamber of Commerce is asked by the American Trade Tour Company to interest Portland manufacturers and salesmen in the cruise to the West Indies and Central and South America. The steamer "Kronland," which will sail from New York City on Friday, 14, eighty days out of the 120 days of the cruise will be spent in ports of the Indies and Central and South America. The upper deck of the steamer will be devoted to the exhibits of American products and manufactured articles. Only manufacturers and salesmen will be in the party and the cruise is expected to be of great advertising value in the South American markets.

LOUIS A. HARWAS TO BE BURIED TODAY.—

Louis A. Harwas, 63 years old, formerly a policeman and an employe of the City Water Department, died Sunday at his home, 4911 East Sixty-fifth street southeast, following a stroke of apoplexy. Funeral services will be held at St. Lawrence Church, Third and Sherman streets, at 9 A. M. today. Burial will be in Mount Calvary. Mr. Harwas had been in Portland about 25 years. He came here from Wisconsin. He is survived by his widow, Anna Harwas, four daughters, Mrs. G. E. Jackson, Mrs. F. B. Ruckert, Mrs. R. Sullivan, and Mrs. Harwas, and two sons, Leo and John Harwas.

ORAL CONTRACT MAY BE TESTED.—

That the validity of an alleged oral contract may be tested before a jury was a decision rendered yesterday by Judge Bean, of the United States District Court, in the case of John A. Parker against the C. A. Smith Lumber Company, of Sellwood. Parker lost his hand in the company's mill in 1908, and settled for $200, with, he alleges, an oral agreement that he should be given employment as long as he desired. He was discharged in January, 1913, and a suit filed by him in the Federal Court charges breach of contract. Judge Bean's decision was given on the demurrer of the company to Parker's complaint.

PLANS FOR SEWER COMPLETED.—

Plans and specifications have been completed for the last unit of the East Stark-street sewer system. The last unit will start at East Gilsan and East Seventy-fourth streets and run to the limits. Branches then may be built south to serve the territory north of the Base Line road and on the east side of Mount Tabor. Proceedings will be started so this unit may be built soon as the contract is let. The sewer will start at East Gilsan street as soon as the sewer has been laid. The present unit ends at East Seventy-fourth street. There are four sections of this sewer system.

COURT SCHEDULES REARRANGED.—

Beginning next week only one of the District Judges will conduct criminal cases each week, each of the Judges having set aside two days each week for criminal cases. Judge Bell in department No. 1 will hear criminal cases Monday and Thursday at 2 o'clock; Judge Jones in department No. 2 has set 8:30 Wednesdays and Saturdays for disposition of criminal matters assigned to his department and Judge Dayton in department No. 3 will hear criminal cases Tuesday and Friday.

CHURCH CENSUS TO BE TAKEN.—

M. A. Anderson, C. C. Maricle and A. C. Carr were appointed a committee Monday night by the Sellwood Methodist Brotherhood to co-operate with other Sellwood churches in taking a census of that suburb. E. C. Golden, H. L. German and William Jackson were appointed to arrange for meetings in Sellwood when the different candidates can be heard on public questions. The brotherhood voted to co-operate with the membership campaign for the Sellwood Y. M. C. A.

SEVERAL DIVORCES GRANTED.—

Judge McGinn yesterday granted a divorce to Mrs. Maria Petrarca from Criscinzo Petrarca on the grounds of cruelty. The custody of an 18-month-old son was awarded to Mrs. Petrarca. Mrs. Petrarca is a divorcee. Mrs. Martha West from John West on grounds of desertion; Judge Harris granted a divorce to Lenora Below from Anton Below for desertion and Judge Cleaton granted a decree to J. W. Curry from Mrs. Sadie U. Curry.

OSWEGO GRANGE TO ENTERTAIN.—

Oswego Grange has arranged to give an entertainment next Saturday night at its hall in Oswego. It will be musical and literary. W. J. Carlweke, a prominent pianist, will be the soloist on the piano. Mrs. E. S. Miller, a Portland singer, will give several solos. The regular session of the Grange will be held during the day. The Oswego Grange will celebrate its 40th anniversary in April.

BIRDS TO BE DISCUSSED.—

"How to Study and Breed Birds" will be the subject of a series of discussions at the Y. W. C. A. within the next few weeks under auspices of the Audubon Society. The talks will be informal and visitors will be permitted to ask questions. The first meeting will be held Friday evening of this week, beginning at 7:45 o'clock. Similar meetings will be held on the following Friday evenings.

TOLLS LUNCHEON SUBJECT.—

W. D. Wheelwright will be the speaker at the luncheon of the Progressive Business Men's Club at the Multnomah Hotel tomorrow and his talk will be on the subject of free tolls for the Panama Canal. T. H. Sherrard will be chairman of the day and the "Made-in-Oregon" committee will have an exhibit of Oregon goods for display at the luncheon.

DR. MARSHALL TO SPEAK.—

Dr. Marshall will be the subject of an address to be given tonight at 8:45 o'clock in the auditorium of the Young Woman's Christian Association by Rev. Henry Marotte. This will be the first of a series of interesting talks on the life of Christ. Tonight's address will deal with the baptism and temptation of the Lord.

A COMPLETELY EQUIPPED LABORATORY.—

The only one in this city installed by a bakery for testing flour and other ingredients, can be seen at the Log Cabin Baking Co.'s plant. There is no guessing or depending on good luck in making "Tip-Top" bread. Visitors' night each Wednesday evening from 8 to 9 o'clock. Log Cabin Baking Co.—Adv.

ROME WARREN BUILT IN A DAY.—

Neither was the sale of nearly 8,000,000 loaves of Royal "Table Queen" in Portland in 1913 accomplished without many days and nights of honest efforts along lines of strict business integrity. Years of study and hard work have made "Table Queen" the bread standard on the Pacific Coast.

C. P. WELLS IS DEAD.—

C. P. Wells is dead.—C. P. Wells, formerly a well-known Portland real estate man, died suddenly at his home in Centralia yesterday, where he had been in business for the last few years. His widow and son, Leroy, are reported to be visiting in Portland, but could not be found at Liberty tonight. The school building as a social welfare plant will be the subject of Professor W. M. Proctor's lecture in Library Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. The lecture will be illustrated, and will be preceded by a piano solo by Miss Helen Anderson.

BABAI CASE WORKER TO SPEAK.—

Mrs. Corinne True, of Chicago, one of the foremost workers in the Babai cause, will speak in Eilers building, room 419 this evening at 8 o'clock.

STOP SMOKING.—

Solution silver nitrate (nitrate) now on sale at the Leake, Davis Drug Co., 3d and Yamhill.—Adv.

PHYSICIANS, see male help wanted.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the kind and gentle friends who have kindly and sympathetically helped and loved our dear wife and mother, Mrs. M. A. Stratton, who passed away on March 10, 1914, we extend our ever-remembered thanks and appreciation. MRS. M. A. STRATTON AND FAMILY.—Adv.

EFFICIENT WOMEN

for positions of all kinds except domestic service can be engaged through Women's Exchange.—Adv.

LONGSHOREMAN FALLS INTO HOLE.

W. T. Baldwin, a longshoreman who works for the Pacific Steamship Company, fell from a runaway into the hold of the steamer "The River" while helping load the vessel at the Portland Flour Mills. The man was taken to St.

VETERAN OFFICER DEAD

PATROLMAN KING SUCCEUMS APPARENTLY IN SLEEP.

Policemen and Members of Grand Army Post Will Have Charge of Funeral, to Take Place Tomorrow.

Clifton H. King, a patrolman, who passed 20 years of service in the police bureau and a Grand Army Veteran, died early yesterday morning, apparently in his sleep, at his home, 48 Jefferson street. Death was due to heart disease. He worked Monday.

Mr. King began police work in 1894 as a substitute and was made a regular patrolman in 1898.

He was stationed at the west approach of the Burnside bridge, following the destruction of the old steel bridge, where he was stationed for years.

Mr. King was born in Illinois in 1849 and in 1861 enlisted for service in the Civil War, being honorably discharged in 1864. He was a member of George Wright Post of the Grand Army.

He is survived by a widow, two daughters, Mrs. T. E. Wilson, of Berkeley, Cal., and Mrs. Carrie Frey, of Quincy, Cal., and a son, Arthur W. King, of 1003 Vernon avenue.

The funeral will be Thursday at 2 o'clock from Finley's chapel. Services at the chapel will be conducted by George Wright Post and at the crematorium by the Eagles. Active pallbearers will be Patrons Patten, Hirsch, R. M. Stuart, Teevin, O. Nelson and Sloan; honorary pallbearers will be from the Grand Army. The police band and a squad of police will attend.

McCauley alleged that after he and Hahn finished their 30-day sentences, he went to Chehalis and earned $20, which, when he returned to Portland, he says Hahn stole.

McCauley, Hahn and George Barsanger, who were armed, were arrested by Detectives Craddock and J. Molony in December last. McCauley confessed that the two were part of a series of holdups. Bassett is still serving a 90-day and $100 fine sentence.

THEFT BY "PAL" CHARGED

Ex-Prisoner Says Companion Stole $20 From Him.

Arlee Hahn, alias Nald Hahn, was arrested by Detective Craddock yesterday for alleged larceny from William O. McCauley, with whom he was convicted of conspiring in a projected crime of three months ago for which both men served rockpile sentences.

McCauley alleged that after he and Hahn finished their 30-day sentences, he went to Chehalis and earned $20, which, when he returned to Portland, he says Hahn stole.

McCauley, Hahn and George Barsanger, who were armed, were arrested by Detectives Craddock and J. Molony in December last. McCauley confessed that the two were part of a series of holdups. Bassett is still serving a 90-day and $100 fine sentence.

BOULEVARD WAY SECURED

Last Terwilliger Tract Is Condemned in Circuit Court.

The last piece of property needed to complete the drive on Terwilliger boulevard was condemned yesterday in Circuit Judge Calkins' court, the jury allowing John Adair, half owner, $5000 for his share of the two acres taken by the city. Adair asked $7000 for the property, the city having offered him $1165, the amount paid to Dr. Owen Adair, her undivided half interest in the property.

The property involved is situated near the corner of Curry and Second streets. Other owners of property needed for the new boulevard, including the Terwilliger heirs and the O. W. R. & N. Company, have donated part of the land.

PETITION 18 YEARS LATE

Legatee Asks for Administrator After Long Delay.

Eighteen years after the death of her sister, petition was filed yesterday by Mrs. Jane Graves that her husband, L. M. Graves be appointed administrator of the estate of Ruth Moffitt, who died at Long Point, Ill., in 1896. She left an estate valued at approximately $3000, consisting of real and personal property, which is divided by a will made in 1894 to Mrs. Graves.

Mrs. Laura A. Austin was appointed administratrix of the estate of Frances D. Smith, who died in Portland last week, leaving an estate consisting of real and personal property, of a value not given. Mrs. Smith is survived by her mother, Mrs. J. Sterling, of Visalia, Cal., two brothers and a sister.

KREISLER—TOMORROW.

"In certain aspects of his unquestioned genius, Mr. Kreisler is the noblest violinist before the public today," says the New York Morning Telegraph after Fritz Kreisler's initial recital of the season at Carnegie Hall, New York. Seats are now selling for his Portland recital at the Halle Thursday night of this week, direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Conan. Prices 75c, $1, $1.50, $2 and $2.50. The programme will be of unusual interest, embracing many novelties that have the stamp of genius, quaint, enchanting dances, a picturesque chase, in which the hunting horns ring out in fairy-like echoes from the forest, melodies that bring out the wonderful beauty of tone-color that is today the marvel of the leading critics of the world.—Adv.

ONE DOLLAR.

Entrances on Alder and on Sixth.

SCHWAB PRINTING CO.

BEN F. GREENE, PRESIDENT 245 1/2 STARK STREET

Lennon's For Gloves

JUST received and being unpacked as this is written—Women's Smartest Spring Gloves. One-clasp pique kid gloves, heavy embroidery, black and white; exceptional values at $1.25

Special for Wednesday

$1.48

Lennon's

Morrison Street, Postoffice Opposite, C. F. BERG, Manager.

Noontime—Luncheon Time

It's pleasure time for you if you're one who has learned what a delicious luncheon the Portland serves every week-day.

The service is prompt and a bounding with courtesy. There's always time for the after-luncheon cigar and the chat with some friend or associate whom you're sure to meet here.

11:30 to 2 Main Dining Room 50c

The Portland Hotel

G. J. Kaufmann, Manager

Excitement

At Wright's shoe store, 244 Washington street, near Second, Men's shoes and oxfords, 50c a pair.—Adv.

British Benevolent Society.

Informal dinner tonight at 8:30. Commercial Club. All members and British friends for membership are invited. Tickets 75c each.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends for their kind acts and expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement. JOS. A. BALE, SR., AND FAMILY.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and beautiful floral offerings during our sad bereavement of our beloved daughter and my wife, EDWARD MANTHEI, MR. AND MRS. JOHFFITT AND FAMILY.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to express my heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends for their words of sympathy during my illness and death of my beloved husband, Emanuel Epton, and for the beautiful floral tributes sent.—Adv. NELLIE E. EPTON, WIFE.

In Melbourne no Sunday papers are permitted, no hotel bars are allowed to open.

You Don't Have to Wait for Certain Hours to Find Plenty of Life at "the Hofbrau."

Most any time of the afternoon or evening you'll find plenty of people dining, dining or spending a leisure hour at Portland's famous German Restaurant, the

Hofbrau-Quelle

There are good reasons for this popularity, and the best way to learn them is to visit "the Hofbrau"—especially on Sunday, between 5 and 8:30, when an extraordinary table d'hôte dinner is served for

ONE DOLLAR.

Entrances on Alder and on Sixth.

SCHWAB PRINTING CO.

BEN F. GREENE, PRESIDENT 245 1/2 STARK STREET

Portland's Best Clothes Shop

Here are some very smart new soft hats we've imported from London. $4.

Suppose you make a point of seeing TODAY the new Kuppenheimer Suits in the many smart English, Semi-English, Box Back and conservative models that are here for you. There's every new imported and domestic fabric for 1914, in the greatest range of handsome color tones that you'll see in any clothes; many you'll not see outside this store. Really, you'll find many interesting things about these;

Kuppenheimer Suits $20 to $35

Lion Clothing Co.

Succeeding Gus Kuhn, Pres. Morrison At Fourth

A. B. Steinbach & Co.

S. & H. Stamps Given

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer

Copyright 1914 Kuppenheimer