

WILLIAMS SEEKING BEAVER CAST-OFFS

Manager of Colts Finds Little Encouragement in Call at McCredie's Camp.

DERRICK AND FISHER SORE

Two Portland Veterans Go Out of Practice - Davis and Rodgers Continue to Feature at Bating in Games With 'Yans.'

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. PORTLAND TRAINING-CAMP, Santa Maria, Cal., March 10.—(Special.)—Camp monotony was a broken today by the arrival of Nick Williams, manager of the Portland Northwestern League club, who is here in search of surplus talent to bolster his class.

On the journey the Colts and the negro Giants will hook up with no less than four exhibition contests and eight to know each other by first names ere they disband.

Nick Has Eye on Colgan. Manager Williams has lined out for a new first baseman. His name is Workman and he has been the star initial sacker of the Stanford University team for four years past.

In local Coast circles two regulars, Fred Derrick and Gus Fisher, went into temporary eclipse today nursing sore arms. Neither participated in the usual six-inning game between the regulars and yannigans, but notwithstanding, the regulars handed out their usual mauling to the Yans.

Recruit Frambach Wild. For the alleged yannigans Buddy Ryan featured in the batting. Frambach and Gilligan were in the box for the yannigans, Smith, of Colorado, and Hanson for the regulars.

It will take another week of this practice stuff to give the acid test to the flock of young Krupp artists.

Portland Coast Camp Notes

SANTA MARIA, Cal., (Portland Training Camp), March 10.—(Special.)—Walter McCredie's Coast champions ought to be adorned with a pseudonym "Benedicts" instead of "Beavers" and "Ducks."

Erve Higginbotham is not happy unless engaged in some devilish machination. Snakes are his hobby. Hig has driven a couple of colored porters out of town with a net, reptile, and a couple of others are gunning for him with a battery of sharp-edged razors.

Walter McCredie thinks Billy Allen, the new Los Angeles outfielder, is to prove one of the stars of the year, but he doesn't think his acquisition will strengthen the Angels any for the reason that Ivan Howard was a star before him.

Fred Frambach's physiognomy has not yet been nicked by the safety razor edge. The Idaho lad is only 15 years old.

Pitcher Ryens is a dead "rynger" for Fred Laming, ex-coit, twin Ryens lives at Decorah, Ia., and recommended to Manager McCredie an old friend.

Frank Schmieder reported the loss of a valuable diamond ring the day, but after Landford Moore had screwed all the catch basins, searched all the laundry bags busily, Bud Ryan coyly producing a ring from hiding, Buddy had the bauble as he was warning to be more careful with his valuables.

Hotel accommodations here are improved over Visalia and over standard of former years in the L. L. Moore, boniface of the Bradley, where the Beavers are tared, is popular with the boys, a good ball fan and accommodates the limit.

Floyd Perkins acted rather "shifty" in his debut with the regulars, a throwing a second was erratic ex-Columbia preparatory athlete strong whip, however, and looks promising from a superficial analysis.

SOX WAX PEEVISH WHEN ANGELS WIN

Los Angeles Batters Hammer Major Recruit Pitchers to 6-to-1 Defeat.

GOOFS OUT OF HARMONY

Collection of Dillon and Berry Look Good in Practice—Perritt's Squid Ball Working Nicely—Love's Arm Also in Condition.

REDLANDS, Cal., March 10.—(Special.)—The Chicago Goofs are not appreciated here. The Los Angeles club played right around the majors today in a 6-to-1 near-contest that by the third inning had many of the best people of Redlands upon their feet advising Billy Sullivan to go and get a ball team.

LAMBS GROW; SUIT RESULT

Plaintiffs in Action Say They Were "Fleeced."

LAD IS AFTER CUE HONORS

15-Year-Old Billiardist Would Enter National Tourney.

NEW YORK, March 5.—There is a 15-year-old boy out in Chicago who is after National billiard honors. His name is Walter Cochrane and he wants to take part in the National Class A 18.2 balkline championship tournament this year.

INCOME TAX IDEA JOLTED

French Senate Rejects Plan to Do Away With Direct System.

BARON WINS PRETTY GIRL

Romance Born of Winter Sport Comes to Issue.

WILEY BABE IS WEALTHY

Infant Has Bank Account Few Days After Birth.

COURT UPHOLDS BOYCOTT

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 3.—Division 1 of the State Supreme Court has held that the Co-operative Livestock Commission company of Kansas City was not entitled to damages of $57,000 from the members of the Traders' Livestock Exchange of Kansas City because they had refused to buy or sell livestock offered by the co-operative company.

WOMAN DIES IN PEW; PANIC

Hoboken Merchant's Wife Stricken and Others Faint.

EUROPE'S QUEENS CLEVER

Nearly All of Royalty Mothers Could Earn Livelihood if Necessary.

PUPIL CONFESSES THEFT

Court Releases Student Because He Clears Another.

Spring Time Is Clothes Time

Just a word to the wise men of Portland and vicinity is sufficient.

OL PANTRY IS LOOTED

Institution Is Minus Crocodile and Cakes.

LOUIS, March 2.—Six bars of chocolate, six packages of cheese and six boxes of cakes are

No matter where or what you buy, insist on seeing a product of the Pacific Coast—it is better for less

Advertisement for United Clothes Shop featuring 'MEN'S SUITS' for $15. Text includes 'Made on the Pacific Coast', 'mean the same in quality, fit, style, workmanship, that you ordinarily pay $20 to $25 for.', and 'J. L. BOWMAN & CO. Brownsville Woolen Mill Stores'. Includes an illustration of a man in a suit.

If our Oregon All-Wool Buckskin Pants at $4 are not in the hands of your dealer, write for samples and self-measuring instructions.

WASH. D.C., March 10.—(Special.)—The royal commission appointed in 1912 to consider reorganization of the Norwegian diplomatic and consular service, sends in its final report the essence of a competent business to assist the foreign office, especially in the negotiations of treaties.

ST. MARY'S, March 6.—The royal commission appointed in 1912 to consider reorganization of the Norwegian diplomatic and consular service, sends in its final report the essence of a competent business to assist the foreign office, especially in the negotiations of treaties.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

ST. MARY'S, March 6.—The royal commission appointed in 1912 to consider reorganization of the Norwegian diplomatic and consular service, sends in its final report the essence of a competent business to assist the foreign office, especially in the negotiations of treaties.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.

GENEVA, March 6.—Starving and exhausted chamois, stags and roe deer (chevroules) are descending from their mountain fastnesses in the Canton of Grisons and the Swiss Tyrolese frontier Alps into the villages, practically begging for food, and with all fear lost.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Lillian Russell, actress, singer and lecturer, who several years ago became the wife of A. P. Moore, owner of The Pittsburgh Leader, sailed recently with Mr. Moore by the United Fruit ship Calamare on a trip to the Caribbean.

NEW YORK, March 6.—When George Wehner, wife of a prominent Hoboken merchant, died suddenly, the church, the congregation became excited and ran for the doors.