"A Little Land and a Living"

The man or woman who is looking for a small piece of land, doesn't want theories or statistics, but does want to know what show there is for them to help support themselves and be comfortably housed away from the rented house on a small city lot.

The usual inquiry is where shall I go and what am I to do after I get there?

We have given this question careful study, and, through a practical plan, are now locating families on small farms in the Powell Valley, within one hour's ride from Portland, on a good electric line.

These small farms are complete with dwellings and all conveniences. Every foot of land is good and we will show you how to make a living from it and seil any produce that you don't need, and apply the returns on your payments, which run about $15 per month.

and apply the returns on your payments, which run about $15 per month. COME WITH US NEXT SUNDAY, March 15th, on our special car leaving First and Stark at 1:30 P. M.; arrive at Portland on return 5 P. M. You will see one of the prettiest garden spots in the Fertile Powell Valley.

Get tickets, 25 cents round trip, at 286 Oak street, or telephone Main 7750 and we will send you one.
