

NEW ROAD'S BONDS MEET READY SALE

Old Part of Willamette Valley Southern Line to Be Put Into First-Class Shape.

RICH SECTION IS REACHED

Enterprise, Struggling for Years, Will Be Rushed to Completion Now That Portland Company Guarantees Its Securities.

Many local investors are subscribing for the bonds of the Willamette Valley Southern Railway, which is being built from Oregon City to Mount Angel via Beaver Creek, Mulino and Molalla. It is probable that the entire issue of $700,000 will be sold before April 1.

Confident that the bonds will find a ready market, officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, which guarantees the bonds, are preparing for actual construction of the road that is to open up development of a rich agricultural territory.

Surveys for the entire distance of 32 miles have been completed. All the right-of-way with the exception of a few short strips has been secured. The farmers in the affected territory are interested in the project and are co-operating with the rail line officials to effect early completion of the road. Most of the stock is held by the farmers. For the last few years, under leadership of Steven Carver, who originally conceived the project, the farmers have struggled to finance the enterprise. By sale of $57,000 worth of bonds, most of which were sold to Carver and his associates, seven miles of road have been built. These bonds were sold at a heavy discount and now will be redeemed by the proceeds of the new issue at par.

That part of the line already constructed is in need of improvement. It will be given immediate attention in this particular. A high-class roadbed will be laid over the entire distance and first-class train service will be made possible.

Completion of this new enterprise not only will tap parts of Clackamas and Marion counties, but without railroad connection, but will give growing communities like Molalla and Mount Angel, now served by steam roads, the added benefits of electric service.

Before the Portland railway officials became interested in the project the stock of the Willamette Valley Southern was heavily and some farmers, discouraged, sold at a sacrifice. It has been only within the last few weeks that the Portland officials thought seriously of assisting the infant road.

When C. M. Clark, chairman of the board, came here from Philadelphia last week the plans were presented to him. They appealed to him and he agreed to have the Portland railway guarantee the bonds, interest, principal and sinking fund. They bear 6 per cent interest, payable semi-annually and will mature in 25 years. They can be called at any interest period at 103 upon 60 days' advance notice. Morris Brothers, of Portland, are handling the issue. The Continental & Commercial Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago is trustee under the mortgage, which authorizes a total issue of $2,000,000 in the event further funds are required for extensions beyond Mount Angel.

NURSE EXAMINES PUPILS

Clatsop Schools Reported in Good Condition by Miss Vreeland.

Miss Rosine Vreeland, state school nurse, has sent the State Board of Health a favorable report on Clatsop County.

She says that the Astoria schools are commendable. She found one building in Skipanon to be in a bad location on low, muddy ground. It had one room with a parsonage and 22 children, and she did not consider the building fitted for a schoolhouse. The drinking water was in an old bucket with one dirty dipper.

Miss Vreeland's report of Clatsop County shows that 26 schools were inspected with a total of 2231 pupils. She found 11 defective eyes, 52 of inflamed eyelids, 15 of defective hearing, 3 mental defectives, 1 partially blind, 2 of possible tuberculosis, 1 of scabies and 1 of ringworm.

GAMBLING CASE DISMISSED

Lack of Specifications Frees Chinese Taken in Raid.

After a jury had been drawn in Municipal Court to try Lung Fong and nine others for gambling, Attorney Fague discovered yesterday that the complaint did not specify a particular form of gambling, which the ordinance calls for, and asked that the case be dismissed. Judge Stevenson granted the demurrer and the defendants were freed.

Panama beans and rakes and 50 cents were found on the gambling table by the police who raided the place, but they were unable to say just what game was being played. So the complaint was made by Attorney Fague, a certain game of chance. The ordinance says what games of chance are gambling under the city law, and this narrowing of the field gave the verdict to the defense.

NOW EVA HAS LITTLE LAMB

And City Health Officer Says She May Keep It, Too.

Sobs and tears punctuated an appeal made yesterday by City Health Officer Marcellus by little Eva Allen, of 314 Montana avenue, in behalf of her pet lamb, which she heard was to be removed from the city because it was provided with a certain cement floor, as required by the stable ordinance.

While no cement floor would be required for the lamb, the little girl, who is 13 years of age, got a notion that it would and she could not rest until she had written a letter to Dr. Marcellus urging him please to let her keep the lamb. An investigation was made at the premises later and the girl made a personal appeal. She is to keep her lamb.

METER PETITIONS TO BE IN TODAY

Tabulation of Protestants Is Next Move in Campaign to Invoke Referendum.

EVERY NAME IS DESIRED

Circulators Making Final Canvass But It Is Not Thought Possible to Have All Lists in Hands of Committee Tonight.

PLANS IN WATER METER REFERENDUM CAMPAIGN.

The committee will hold headquarters at 412 Railway Exchange building, open tonight until 9 o'clock, and urge that all petitions that are now out be brought in before that time for validation and filing.

Information can be obtained by calling at the headquarters or by telephoning Main 110, or those who desire to sign the petitions and who have not yet had opportunity may call at headquarters and sign.

Any citizen of Portland more than 21 years of age is entitled to sign the petition, and the name and home (not office) address should be given.

By 9 o'clock tonight the committee in charge of the campaign for a referendum against the circulation of water meters in Portland, hopes to have the principal work of the petition circulation finished. The early part of next week will be devoted to cleaning up outstanding petitions and preparing to file for the referendum.

Hundreds of the petitions, filled and partially filled, are still in the field and the committee is working to bring them in and validated for filing before the headquarters is closed at 9 o'clock tonight.

This morning the committee will go the rounds of many of the business houses where the petitions have been filled and gather them up. A notary will go with the committee to validate the petitions so that they may be returned to headquarters and filed.

Many of the large concerns which took petitions for circulation among their employes, returned them filled yesterday, but a large number of petitions are still outstanding. Several petitions were taken out by individuals who called at the headquarters yesterday, but they promised that they would have them filled in time to return them to headquarters tonight.

The impression became prevalent yesterday that the committee was not seeking any more names for the petitions and several people inquired at the headquarters to ascertain whether or not it was true. It is made clear that the committee desires all the names that can be procured before the headquarters close, since it is the aim, not only to have the required number of names on the petitions, but to have as many more as possible so as to indicate clearly to the voters the sentiment of the people against the expenditure of the public money for metering purposes.

Many petitions were filled at the headquarters yesterday by people who came in to inquire as to the progress of the campaign and petitions will be held open there today for such as care to come in and sign them.

Strong as the mass of petitions that will be rushed in today may be, the committee expects there will be many petitions out in the field that cannot be called in before the coming week and the first two or three days of next week will be required to complete the work.

EYE WITNESSES ON STAND

After he had surrendered himself at the police station on the evening of January 7 Luigi Farchi, on trial for the murder of Mike Zenzola, admitted to police officials that he had shot Zenzola, but said he had been shooting at a boy named Rocco, whom he wished he had killed, the police officers testified yesterday at the trial.

Two eye witnesses to the shooting, Salvatore Iazzioni, one of the proprietors of the saloon in which Zenzola was killed, and Tony Vitale, told of the play and quarrel which led up to the murder, and cover with a piece of dry flannel. This simple treatment usually gives relief. Trial bottle free.

Plant Juice Has Helped This Portland Lady After All Other Remedies Failed.

Mrs. Annie L. Hill, who is at present housekeeper for the Gilbert Hotel, corner of Third and Taylor streets, this city, has something to say that will interest her friends. Mrs. Hill graduated as a trained nurse at the age of 21, and served as student five years under Dr. J. M. Tolson, of San Francisco. She formerly lived in Spokane, Wash., for 15 years. She has many friends in Portland and elsewhere who will be interested in the following statement from her. She says:

"When I commenced to use Plant Juice I was pretty well discouraged. I had tried so many things without results that I did not expect much relief from this one. It was like catching at the proverbial straw. I was suffering from catarrh and it had become so bad that my whole system was affected. I was told that nothing would help me. My hearing was so bad that I could only hear by the greatest effort. My kidneys were in bad shape and I suffered from severe pains across my back and also in my forehead just above my eyes. There was also pain in the back of my neck. I am a graduate nurse and followed my profession until my hearing became so bad I had to give it up. The change that has been brought about in my condition by Plant Juice is simply wonderful. The terrible pain in the back of my neck and across my forehead is entirely gone, my hearing is much improved, so much so that I can hear what people say. Plant Juice has helped my entire system, my nerves are stronger, I sleep well and wake up rested and am feeling fine in every way."

Plant Juice has done for others what it will do for you. All that it needs is a trial. For sale at the Owl Drug Company's stores.—Adv.

FACE A SIGHT WITH ERUPTION RESINOL CURED

Irrited and Burned Until Resinol Brought Relief at Once.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 5, 1913: "I had a small pimple on the side of my face, and it kept getting larger and larger. It had spread over one cheek, and as it would spread water would come from it and every place the water would touch, another sore would form. It itched and burned and my face was a sight. I used several salves and ointments that were recommended, but none helped, until I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, which relieved me at once, and after using it about two weeks, my face was entirely clear. I cannot praise Resinol enough." (Signed) Mrs. Rose Muller, 1213 Snyder Ave.
