SMILE AND EYES ATTRACT

Youngster Wears Tag Telling Destination and Father is Confident She Will Reach Home Without Accident or Delay.

DENVER, March 20.—(Special).—The fact that she is traveling alone from Central Kansas to the Pacific Coast holds no fear for little Violet Wing, aged 6 years, who passed through Denver today en route from Formosa, Kan., to her home in Oregon City, Or. As Violet came through the Union Depot gates after alighting from a Rock Island train she immediately was taken in charge by Mrs. Emma Green, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., who took a lunch box from under the arm of the girl and led her into the women's waiting-room. In a few minutes a crowd of men and women travelers attracted by the big dark eyes and cheerful smile of the child gathered about her and asked question after question.

Was she afraid to travel a distance of several thousand miles alone, and wasn't she afraid that she might get on the wrong train and get lost? "No, I am not afraid," she said. "I am going back to my mamma and papa in Oregon City and papa is going to meet me at the depot," was the reply.

CITY MAKES TRUCE WITH IDLE FORGES

Los Angeles Furnishes Camp Site, Men Refrain From Summoning 20,000 More.

RECRUITS WILL GO NORTH

Authorities Pledge Non-Interference With Leaders' Efforts to Persuade Others to Leave Town With Them.

LOS ANGELES, March 20.—The City of Los Angeles and the unemployed declared peace today. Morris Rose, one of the leaders, and 27 privates of the disrupted band arrested today were released. The city furnished a site for a camp and in return for this the band will feed themselves while recruiting, instead of carrying out the threat to quarter 20,000 hungry men on public charity, and within 10 days they will march away from Los Angeles in peace to join the brethren of Kelley's army, quartered on their own acre in North Sacramento.

The camp site chosen was selected by Charles Sebastian, chief of police; Frank Kelley, a lieutenant of Rose; Claude Martin, Deputy City Prosecutor, and Rev. William Francis Ireland, a Socialist clergyman. It lies in the river bed with a mountain on one side and the East Side police station on the other.

Men Promise to Keep Peace. Rose and his men promise to keep the camp sanitary and peaceful and to move out within 10 days, meantime providing their own subsistence. In order to stop the police from imposing a policy of non-interference with the work of recruiting the "army" and will release Rose and the 27 privates who were arrested today. The police was charged with having solicited funds for the maintenance of the army. His men were taken into custody last night because they defied the police order to break camp last night. If the treaty of peace had not been negotiated today all of them would have had to remain in jail several weeks.

Threat of Invasion Made. They declared that after their march northward and their union with the unemployed in Sacramento, they would begin a cross-country tramp to Washington, D. C., under the leadership of "General" Coxy. Rose announced that he had called a mass meeting for tomorrow at the Plaza, where the riot of last Christmas occurred. He said that if there were any more to be arrested today, the unemployed would mass 20,000 men here to be fed at public expense. Chief Sebastian said he had not been officially informed of the proposed mass meeting, but indicated that a policy of non-molestation would be extended toward the gathering if it were conducted in an orderly manner.

FOR 25 YEARS NOTHING BUT GOOD COFFEE

We specialize in Coffee. Get the benefit of our 25 years' experience. MANNING'S COFFEE STORE JONES & FORTHE'S MARKET 4TH & ALDER

Lipman Wolfe's Good Morning!

—This is the first day of Spring. It is the hopeful, promising, budding, blossoming time of year—a season for making all things new—for refurbishing one's wardrobe and turning one's household topsyturvy. —We began months ago, by planning, ordering and reordering with all deliberation, to prepare for this day, and now that it has come, we are all ready in Spring attire. —Everything in the store is as fresh and delightfully new as is Spring itself. —A jaunt through the store today will be fraught with pleasant and interesting surprises. Each section has its hosts of new things to offer—strange but charming things, all aglow with the brightness of Spring. —As usual, Saturday is the day of days in the junior salons and the boys' shop—all on the fourth floor.

New Spring Wraps That Came by Express

—They were made for the junior girls, but junior styles are so charming and so becoming that a great many small and slender women have been buying them for their own wear. —The little coats that came in this express box are the chic, saucy little wraps that tout Paris is wearing with the separate skirt or the pretty one-piece dress. It is safe to predict that these sensible and dainty little coats (some of them very short, by the way, and others cut away to a back of medium length) will be quite the thing this Summer. —They will be useful with the light Summer frocks, and their possibilities are so varied that there is no danger of their becoming too popular. —In a wide range of styles and colors, from $15.00 to $23.50. —Fourth Floor

BOYS' BALMACAAN COATS

—Among other interesting items which the boys' shop has to show there is the new Balmacaan coat, as snappy in style and with every point of up-to-dateness that appears in the coats for men—the regulation raglan sleeves, turn-back cuffs and huge slashed side pockets, together with the wide-flaring skirts that go to make up the nobby Spring overcoat that everyone is wearing. —They come in sizes to fit boys of from 8 to 17 years. Made of brown and gray mixture material. Price $12.50. —Fourth Floor

COATS FOR LITTLE TOTS

—Splendid little coats of black and white check material, made in double-breasted box style with sailor collars and turn-back cuffs, lined with silk. For tots from 2 to 6 years. —Very specially priced at $1.69. —New coats of striped or checked material, with deep belts, fancy silk or ratine collars, cuffs and buttons. They are beautifully made. Coats that will delight every mother of a tot from 2 to 6 years old. —Priced at $3.49, instead of $4.50. —Fourth Floor

New Wash Frocks for the Little Girl Of 6 to 10 Years

—These are service frocks. They are made of the colored washable materials favored for school and general wear, and a most attractive lot they are, too. They have white poplin collars and cuffs with edges of scalloped embroidery. They have the extremely comfortable, washable, ironable and wearable kimono sleeve and straight cut lines at the sides. And they have the very fashionable and practical patent-leather belt. They are priced at $1.49. —Others priced at $2.23.

Lingerie Frocks for the Little Lass

—We have another shipment of boxes filled with dainty white dresses for the girl of from 2 to 6 years. The last time the boxes came, the mothers were ever so pleased with them. They told us that they had never seen such pretty frocks, all embroidered and lace trimmed, for less than $2.00 or $3.00. We hurried to order more of them so that more little maids might have lovely snow-white frocks. Every mother will want two or three or perhaps four of them—for these really seem even daintier and sweeter than the others. —Today they will be specially priced at $1.25 each.

A Hundred Lovely Hats, or More, Spec'l $4.95

—We say it advisedly. In all Portland there isn't so varied and charming a collection of new hats. And never before have hats been so saucily chic and so quaintly picturesque. —Today's display of inexpensive, ready-to-wear hats is wonderful—in variety, quality, style and price. All of the hats in this sale are copied from French models, and very Parisian they are in effect. We invite you to visit the millinery salons and see them. This special lot is priced at $4.95 each. They are easily worth $7.50.

A Dependable Glove for 95c

—A white glace lambskin glove—the kind that are so useful that one needs several pair of them—is to be sold at a special price—95c. —This is a splendidly made glove—pique sewn and embroidered back. It is a new glove at this price, for it is generally sold for $1.25.
