

BEAVER YOUNGSTER TROUCES NEGROES

Recruit Hanson Pitches Nine Innings for Victory Over Black Giants.

TWIRLER STRONG IN PINCH

Perkins Also Shows Well Behind Bat—Ebony Players Twice Fill Bases in Last Two Innings, but Fail to Win.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., March 24.—(Special.)—Walt McCredie sent one of his young pitching prodigies over the full nine-inning route for the first time today. Elmer Hanson won for Portland over the Chicago Negro Giants, 6 to 2.

Fearing a riot among his unemployed, Manager Mac sent in Specs Milligan, Bancroft and Deak for the edification of 1900 Santa Cruz fans, but the afternoon was cool and the grounds rough and practically all the interest from a Portland standpoint was focused about Hanson.

The big San Bernardino boy pitched a regular Bill James game; that is, walks, errors and hits had him in trouble most of the going and he had to pitch the limit. Hanson steadied to the task in a way pleasing to the big Portland manager.

Hanson strong in pinches. Hanson was Bill James all over again on one of Bill's liberal afternoons. He gave nine safeties, walked four and hit two.

Twice the hard-hitting chocolate tourists had the bases full, in the eighth and ninth innings, only to have their fondest hopes foiled by a grim-faced youngster working like a well-oiled piece of human machinery.

The ninth inning detail will give a good line on the lad's timber. Williams opened with a double that Specs almost pulled down, filling the bases.

Rube Foster sent out a pinch batter and Hanson promptly struck him out on three hook balls.

Chadbourne's protegee really appears more of a veteran than many veterans themselves. That he will do seems to be the ruling sentiment about camp.

Young Pitcher Also Hits. Nor does Hanson do his thinking with his right wing. His wide awake all the time, takes cut-off plays, backs up the bases, moves about with speed and hits great.

The score today shows two errors chalked against him, but both were excusable. He wheeled a trifle too soon on a signal to second and the ball got by Davis by inches for error number one. Quick fielding of a difficult bunt and an attendant high throw to first cost him the other.

Perkins' second good showing behind the windup, together with Walter Doane's third field day that were other noteworthy developments of the afternoon.

Catcher Perkins looks better every time he is trotted out for scrutiny. He has a dandy arm, and had Kores covered third properly Floyd would have nipped every attempt at that.

The 29-year-old catcher banged out a two-base hit, too, in the pinch and drove in one of Portland's three runs in the seventh inning. Singles by Doane and Kores in the eighth, Perkins and Hanson clinched the game in that stanza.

Black Makes Eight Hits. A huge ape-like negro, at short for the Chicagoans, secured three more hits, making eight for the series. Hill made a wonderful catch and robbed Specs of an extra-base walk. The stunt stands two games up for Portland and one in the tie. Tomorrow these same barnstorming contrasts in color will battle at Watsonville in the final set-to. Today's scores:

SEAL LINEUP STILL IN DOUBT Howard Refuses to Say What Men Will Be Sent to Bush.

BOYES SPRINGS, Cal., March 24.—(Special.)—Not until Del Howard has had a conference with Cal Ewing will the official lineup of the San Francisco team for the Coast League season be announced. Which means that the naming of the men who are to draw down class AA salaries will doubtless be postponed until the first of the week instead of a decision being reached here at the training camp. Howard now has 24 men in camp, and he will likely have something like 30 players, including himself, but just which of the boys are slated for the toboggan he declines to say.

"I am the manager of the club," he explained today, "and have full power to act, but I would much prefer to discuss some of the issues with Ewing before we reach a decision as to what will be done. The entire squad will be taken back to San Francisco and some decision will be reached there as to the players to be retained. So far as I can see, there are none of the men who can be turned over to the California League, for they are too strong for the Modesto club. I want as much time as possible before reaching a final decision on players."

HOGAN'S SILENCE IS PUZZLE Manager of Venice Tigers May Be Saving Wind for Opening Game.

LOS ANGELES, March 24.—(Special.)—The Venice regulars and irregulars battled to a thrilling 1-to-1 draw practice game at Washington Park today.

After a session of batting and fielding had been indulged in, "Hap" Hogan divided his men off for a seven-inning game. On one side was the regular Tiger lineup, while on the other side was everybody else. During the entire wrap-up Hogan did not utter more than three whoops.

Hogan's calm demeanor of the last few days has caused grave fears that

THE MILLS ARE ACTIVE

LEWIS RIVER PLANTS HAVE BIG CONTRACTS FROM INDIA.

Prospects for Other Large Annual Orders From French Syndicate Are Considered Good.

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 24.—(Special.)—With a contract for 5,000,000 feet of No. 1 fir ties, to be used for railroad construction in India, the mills along Lewis River are in operation, and probabilities are that more big contracts will be obtained for ties annually by the Lewis River Mills Association from a French syndicate.

The Lewis River Boom & Logging Company two weeks ago started a drive on Lewis River, and logs are now being rafted at the mouth and towed to Ridgefield.

The mills of the Harvey Milling company are cutting 26,000 ties for the Southern Pacific. About 50,000 feet of logs are being cut daily. These logs are floated down the Lewis River and sold to various companies.

The logging camp of the Du Bois Lumber Company has resumed operations at Ariel, cutting from 50,000 to 60,000 feet daily.

The mills of Ryan & Allen, near Heissen, will soon be in operation again. The output is flumed three miles to Heissen and loaded on cars on the Northern Pacific branch at that point.

DEFEAT HELD POSSIBLE CHAMBERLAIN SAYS TIME IS ONLY NEED IN CANAL FIGHT.

Oregon Senator Says Public Sentiment Strongly Favoring Exemption, Will Be Felt.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, March 24.—"I feel confident that the bill to repeal the free tolls provision of the Panama Canal act can be defeated in the Senate if the vote on that measure is sufficiently delayed," said Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, today.

"There is no question but public sentiment is overwhelmingly in favor of permitting American coastwise vessels to pass through the canal without payment of tolls, and this sentiment is rapidly growing stronger. This change in public sentiment is being felt, and Senators of both parties have been hearing from home. I have no doubt that if the pressure of public sentiment continues several votes in the Senate will be changed, and there is a fair prospect of defeating the pending bill in the upper branch of Congress. This canal toll question has become a National issue which will figure prominently in the campaign this year, and that fact is realized by those who are today in doubt how to vote."

Senator Chamberlain said he expected the Republican Senators to vote almost solidly against the repeal of the free tolls clause, but was not able at this time to say how many Democrats would be in the group. He said he was supporting the President that Senator Chamberlain's resolution has greatly increased the number of those favoring repeal of the exemption clause.

PRICE IS ON BOOTLEGGERS Salem Councilmen Differ on Whether Any Are in City.

SALEM, Or., March 24.—(Special.)—The City Council of Salem has offered a reward of $25 for the arrest and conviction of "bootleggers," although there is a wide difference of opinion among the council members as to whether there is any "bootlegging" here.

Councilman Minton says that there is, and that he has no faith in the ability of the Salem police force to capture the lawbreakers. He says he could find the "bootleggers" if given an opportunity.

The council challenged by Councilman Cummings to find them, but did not volunteer.
