TAX RUSH CAUSES JAM

LONG LINE YESTERDAY PAID IN HALF MILLION.

Today Is Last Day Free of Penalty and Worse Crowds Are Predicted.

Approximately $500,000 in taxes was collected yesterday by Treasurer Lewis and double that amount is expected before the tax department closes at 9:30 o'clock tonight. Under the ruling by Circuit Judge Cleaton last week, no collections of penalty for unpaid taxes can be had if the taxes on the roll are paid before April 1.

When business closed last night Deputy Huckaby said he had collected approximately $475,000. With a large collection today the amount will go safely beyond the $500,000 mark.
However, all the taxpayers are not dependent on a penalty, even on their second half payment. Only about one-third of the payments made yesterday were for half the taxes assessed against those who paid. A majority paid all their taxes. Payments yesterday were made by the smaller property owners.

During the forenoon and early afternoon three long lines of taxpayers crowded the corridors of the tax department, awaiting their turn. Some of these already had their statements prepared, yet they waited, and others were nearly an hour before they could hand their checks to the cashier and receive a receipt.

SINGERS GO TO SEATTLE

OPERA COMPANY PASSES THROUGH CITY ON WAY.

Director and Manager Predict Portland Will Have Finest Selections Ever Produced in Northwest.

The Chicago Grand Opera Company members, numbering 254, passed through Portland Monday forenoon enroute to Seattle, where it opened a three-night season Monday. The company had two special trains, which halted in the city long enough for a change in engines.

In the first section was the orchestra, the stage staff, ballet and chorus, while the second section bore the principals and the officers, including Cleofonte Campanini, general director; Bernhard Ulrich, business manager; and Max Hirsch, the treasurer.

Miss Mary Garden will pass through Portland today for Seattle. She remained in San Francisco a day, Titia Ruffo, the celebrated baritone, had preceded the company to Seattle, and so was not aboard.

Both Director Campanini and Manager Ulrich predicted that Portland will have the finest season of opera ever produced in the Northwest.
"You have a splendid selection, which calls for the best in the artists and unwavering scenic effects," said Mr.
Campanini. "On your opening night, next Thursday, Titia Ruffo will sing. 'Parsifal' will be the greatest thing ever staged in your city."

"The cast for 'Aida' is very strong, and Portland people will have an opportunity to hear Miss Garden, Saturday night, in one of her strongest roles, 'Tosca.'"

The company will complete its engagement at Seattle Wednesday night, and will arrive in Portland by special trains Thursday forenoon in time for the opening performance, a double bill, of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pag-liacci."

2 IOWA MAYORS RENAMED

Sioux City Executive Has Hard Race; Des Moines Man Wins Easily.

SIoux CITY, Ia., March 31.—Mayor Smith was re-elected for a third term Monday over Jonathan W. Brown in one of the hottest municipal campaigns in the history of the commission plan of government in Sioux City. Smith polled 4534 votes; Brown 4125, Rudolph Beer-and E. O. Wesley were re-elected to the Council by the city margins. John Dineen, a former Chief of Police of Sioux City, and J. M. Lewis won the other places on the Aldermanic ticket.

By the use of voting machines the result was known an hour after the polls closed.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 31.—Unofficial returns from practically all the precincts of the city decided tonight that James R. Hanna had been elected Mayor for his third term by a vote of nearly 2 to 1 over his opponent, Zell G.
Roe, at present a member of the Commission. W. F. Mitchell, a contractor, led the ticket for Commissioner.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, March 31.—N. G.
Cross, non-partisan candidate for Mayor, was elected today by a majority of 224 over his Socialist opponent. Socialists elected two out of four Councilmembers.

WATERLOO, Iowa, March 31.—Mayor R. C. Thompson, running on a "non-partisan" ticket, and his entire ticket were elected today by an overwhelming majority over ex-Mayor J.
R. Rector and the Democratic candidate, Roy E. Smith. The principal issue was the "wet" and "dry" question, with Mr. Thompson declaring in favor of issuing licenses for saloons.

out being delayed, and they will mail their receipts in a few days. This will insure more prompt attention and reduce the congestion in the office. We strongly advise this for today, as we expect a rush right up to 9:30."

During the last few days the depart-those who are unable to mail promptly for taxes paid by mail.

The persons who have their statements just as fast as they can, but there may be a delay of several days," said Treasurer Lewis.

Patrolman Tennant.
According to the officer, chased several patrons into the street, returned to the hotel, threatened Jennie Cole, night clerk, had Mrs.
Jennie Cole beheaded in the third floor and rushed at the officer who knocked the razor from his hand with his club.

FIVE-YEAR SENTENCE
GEE, DAHLSTROM

Pleas for "Religious" Leader, Convicted Under Mann Act, Fall on Deaf Ears.

MAXIMUM FITS, SAYS JUDGE

Head of Heliga Sect Said, by Prosecutors, to Have Practiced Lures on Women in Several Cities Before Coming to Coast.

SEATTLE, March 31.—Although the Federal District Attorney recommended a shorter term, United States District Judge Neterer Monday imposed a sentence of five years in the McNeil Island Penitentiary upon Albert Dahlstrom, founder of a religious sect known as "Heliga," who was convicted two weeks ago of violating the Mann anti-white slave act by transporting Edna Englund, of Tacoma, from Fresno, Cal., to this state in October, 1913.

Judge Neterer declared Dahlstrom's offense was a flagrant one, that it was just such a case as the Mann act was intended to protect against, and that he could listen to neither plans for leniency nor the prosecutor's recommendation for a two-and-a-half-year term.

"The defendant left his own friends and under the cloak of religion imposed upon innocent young women," said the court. "I am convinced that only the maximum sentence will suffice as proper punishment for the defendant and as a warning to the community that such conduct must be severely dealt with."

During the trial Government agents alleged that Dahlstrom, who is out for religion to induce young women to live with him, his record including such escapes in Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and other Middle Western cities.

Most Successfully Treated by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Loss of appetite is accompanied by loss of vitality, which is serious.
It is common in the Spring because at this time the blood is impure and impoorished and fails to give the digestive organs what is absolutely necessary for the proper performance of their function.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable all-the-year-round medicine, is especially useful in the Spring. Get it from your druggist. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving vitality, and tone, it is wonderfully successful in the treatment of loss of appetite and the other ailments that are so prevalent at this time. It is not simply a Spring medicine—it is much more than that—but it is the best Spring medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the rich red blood that the stomach and other digestive organs need. Get it today.

Secretary of State. Only 226 signatures are required by law. Mr. McArthur's petition is said to have more names than any nominating petition of a candidate for Congress ever filed in Oregon.

In the course of a two-day campaign on which he has started, R. A.
Booth, Republican candidate for United States Senator, plans to visit a number of Willamette Valley townships. Among the towns on his itinerary are Willa-mina, Sheridan, Lafayette, Dayton and Thurston. He will return to Portland Thursday night.

Four completed nominating petitions were filed in the office of the County Clerk yesterday. The petitions were those of Frank Clark and J. E. Williams, Democratic and Republican candidates, respectively, for Justice of the Peace at John's, J. M. Swisher, Republican candidate for Constable of St.
Johns, and W. R. Lake, candidate for Republican precinct committeeman in Fresno. The petitions, which are out for been filed. Candidates for county offices have until April 15, or 16 days to file their names. Candidates for state offices have only 11 more days, or until April 10, to file their nominating petitions with the Secretary of State.

Two more candidates for Judge of the District Court have filed their declarations of candidacy. They are C. A.
Appelgren, Republican, who is out for judge of Department No. 2, and Shirley D. Parker, Democrat, who has filed for Department No. 3.

"I do not by technicalities," said Mr. Appelgren, "who is out for judge of Department No. 2, and Shirley
D. Parker, Democrat, who has filed for Department No. 3."

Mr. Parker's slogan is: "Fair and fearless administration, legal protection from unscrupulous sharks." In his platform he promises to uphold the law, and to handle technicalities and all matters before him on a common sense basis.

Eight candidates are now in the field for the three district court judgeships.
Judge J. W. Bell, seeking re-election in Department No. 1, is the only one of the three present judges not opposed as yet. Other candidates include: Judge Joseph Jones, incumbent; O. E. Stader and C. A. Appelgren, for Department No. 2; Judge Arthur C. Dayton, incumbent; and S. William S. W. L. O'Brien and Shirley D. Parker, for Department No. 3. Mr. Parker is the only democratic candidate. The salary of District Judge is $2400 a year.

In response to an invitation from citizens of Seaside, Mrs. Crawford, a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, is to speak at the Sellwood Commercial Club Wednesday night. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock.

One of the favorite salutations among Portland Democrats is the query:
"How many multigraphed circular letters have you received from Dr. Smith today?"

John Manning, Democratic candidate for Governor, will speak Thursday at Hood River and The Dalles; Friday at Hermiston, Stanfield and Echo; Saturday at Pendleton; Sunday at La Grande; Monday at Baker City; Tuesday at Ontario and Weston; and Wednesday at Huntington in the interest of his campaign.

Upon his return Mr. Manning will visit points in Western Oregon not hitherto visited during the campaign.

WRITER EARNS $102,257

Annual Income of George Broadhurst Revealed by Divorce Suit.

NEW YORK, March 26.—That certain American playwrights earn incomes that should command the respect of even the out-and-out business man was emphasized recently by a decision of Justice Cobahan, of the Supreme court, in awarding to Mrs.
Ida Raymond a better and more compensation for her services as a counsel fees and alimony at the rate of $10,000 a year pending the determination of her suit for a legal separation from her husband, George Broadhurst.
Broadhurst is the author of "Win in My Law," "Bought and Paid For," "The Man of the Hour" and other plays that have had successful runs in the last few years.

Mrs. Broadhurst's attorneys had asked for $7000 counsel fees on the principle of "easy come, easy go," but Justice Cobahan said, in his opinion, that in view of the fact that Mr. Broadhurst had announced his intention of allowing the suit to go against him by default he thought the counsel could not well earn more than $3000.

In awarding Mrs. Broadhurst alimony at the rate of $10,000 a year, Justice Cobahan reviewed the statement of her to take Fruitola, a California remedy recommended for these symptoms. She bought a bottle and took it at a dose, which is the way Fruitola is taken. Now Mrs. Broadhurst writes she is entirely well, and whether she had gall stones or not, as her doctors claimed, she is better and naturally attributes her recovery to Fruitola.
Thousands of others who took Fruitola under similar conditions share her opinion.

It is remarkable the relief Fruitola gives in symptoms of this kind. It has also been found very valuable in jaundice, which often follows attacks of chronic constipation, of the kind that defies the ordinary laxatives and purgatives. Fruitola has often proven effective because it gives a thorough cleaning out to the stomach, liver and intestines. It has an additional effect in that a bottle is taken at a single dose, so results are quick and decided. Fruitola is prepared only by the Pinus Medicine Co., Monticello, Ill., from whom this is published and can be obtained at any drug store. The directions are in detail just how to take the remedy and what its uses are.

When these stones pass from the gall ducts into the intestines they cause terrific pain. The pain will usually be at the margin of the ribs on the right side and extend to the shoulders and the entire abdomen.
This was the unfortunate condition of Mrs. Voda Bressale of 703 River St., Cannon City, Colo., and her doctors advised her she had gall stones.
