The total loss is estimated at $27,500, only slightly covered by insurance. Spontaneous combustion is believed to have caused the fire.

There was no water pressure available and the fire was fought entirely with chemicals. The efforts of the firemen were hopeless from the start. The two buildings adjoin each other.

The Farmer's Union warehouse was valued at $1500 and its contents, which consisted of 200 tons of hay, a carload of salt and several thousand barbons to the site.

Progressives Will Meet.

ABERDEEN. Wash. April 1.—(Special.)—County officers of the BuilMoose party have called a meeting of Chehalis County Progressives for Friday night. Election of afficers to serve for the coming year and discussion of the advisability of entering the county ticket in the field will be the chief business.
