BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 3.—(Special.)—Roy Brown's superb pitching, co-ordinated with some tall hatwork by Kores and Lober, gave Portland its third victory of the week over Sacramento today. Score: Portland 6, Sacramento 6. The hits were 10 for Portland, four for the Senators.

For five innings Brown and Arellanes battled nip and tuck and then the Beavers fell upon the Spanlard for five hits and five runs in a lump.

Brown, Deane and Ryan filled the bases on singles. With two out, Kores laced a single into center, scoring Brown and Doane, and Elmer Lober thereupon dropped a home run over the right field fence, tallying two ahead of him, and clinching matters.

Later on, in the ninth inning! Kores

Later on, in the ninth inning, Kores doubled to deep center and Lober scored him with his third hit of the ladies day matinee, so, the Portland scoring was much a matter of Kores and Lober all through.

Brown Proves to Be Star. Today was Brown's first tryout in the Coast League and the little spit-baller showed himself a star in any department. Only four hits did the Wolves gather off his damp thrust de-livery, and, two of them were infield livery, and, two of them were infield scratches to shortstop.

The diminutive Cedar Rapids right-hander worked carefully on every batter, relying mainly upon his spitter. Except for the first inning, when he walked two men, his control was nigh perfect. That was the only inning in which the Wolves got more than one man on the bags, and Haworth minimized the danger by nabbing Moran at ized the danger by nabbing Moran at

Money on Players.

ABERDEEN, Wash, April 2.—(Special.)—Victoria is to retain its old ball team, according to reports received here from Victoria today. The telegram conveying the information read:

"A deal is now being completed for the sale of the Victoria baseball club to ex-Alderman Russ Humber.

"T. P. McConnell and L. A. Wattelet, conferences with Mr. Humber's representative and the terms have been practically agreed on.

"The buying of the club by Mr. Humber means that the team will remain here. The chances of the Bees for a pennant are of the brightest, as the new owner will not stop at money to strengthen the club. The club leaves for Spokane Sunday and will open the league season there Tuesday, April 12.

No word of the sale of the Victoria club has been received here by local baseball promoters, who have been backing the purchase of the Victoria franchise. Wattelet neither telegraphed nor wrote Aberdeen fans in.

backing the purchase of the Victoria franchise. Wattelet neither tele-graphed nor wrote Aberdeen fans information that he had extended the option and it is believed here his intentions in bringing Bellingham and later Aberdeen into the deal were more to use these cities as clubs to get victoria capitalists to purchase his and McConneil's interests in the Victoria team.
