SCHOOL SITES MAY BE NAMED IN WEEK

Board Announces It Soon Will Name Couch and Shattuck Building Locations.

MANY OPTIONS ARE HELD

Advantages and Disadvantages of Various Parcels Considered, but Patrons Are Found to Be Divided on Choices.

It has been tentatively announce through the offices of the Portland School Board that sites will probably be selected during the present week for the location of the new Couch and Shattuck School buildings.

For several weeks the Board has been considering the merits and de-merits of the many property parcels offered and many public meetings have been held to discuss the proposed lo-cations. In each district the school patrons are divised in opinion as to which site would best serve the interests of the locality.

The School Board holds the following property options on sites in the Coun School district:

Mr. Kuehn. like Oscar W. Horne and
D. C. Lewis, was a candidate for the Legislature before the citizens' petition was issued, his announcement having been made about two weeks ago.
His platform is substantially the same as that which the nine invited men to be candidates have adopted; he stands for business principles in state government, reduction of taxes and greater efficiency generally."

Tax Rebate Is Favored.

Tax Rebate Is Favored. "I will work for payment of taxes semi-annually or quarterly, without penalty or interest until overdue; a reasonable rebate for full payment before April 1; collection of taxes by County Treasurer only," his declaration reads. "I will do away with all usereads. I will do away with all use-less and needless commissions and ex-penditures in the public service; full publicity of all appropriations and expublicity of all appropriations and expenditures; a businessilke administration, honestly and fairly conducted in all its departments, with equal rights to all; permanent registration of all voters to prevent needless expense of re-registration; improvement and permanent construction of roads; no selfish interests to foster; the people's interests are my interests."

Mr. Kuehn said last night: "I feel that as a good citizen I should comply with the requests of the other candidates and of many citizens to go on the ticket of 12 men pledged to tax reductions and public efficiency. I feel that the move to name this ticket is in the interests of good citizenship and that it is my duty to accept the invitation."

Support of Germans Pledged. Dr. Ferdinand H. Dammasch, president of the Federation of German-Speaking Societies of Oregon, said that Mr. Kuehn would have the warm support of German-speaking citizens of the county. "We know Mr. Kuehn and know him to be a man of the highest ability and personal character," said Mr. Dammasch. "We are much gratified that he has consented to be one of the 12 candidates on the citizens." of the 12 candidates on the citizens' ticket."

With only five days remaining, in-cluding today, in which to circulate nominating petitions, this work will be conducted vigorously. It is the inten-tion to have all the petitions filed with the Secretary of State before next Fri-day, the last day allowed by law.

COUNCIL DEFIES THREAT

SHERWOOD SALOON GETS LICENSE DESPITE RECALL BEING URGED.

Letter Purporting to Come From Salem Falls to Prevent Bar Reopening After Being Cloned 30 Days.

SHERWOOD, Or., April 5.—(Special.)
—Despite a letter produced by the "drys" and purporting to come from Salem, advising that the Mayor and certain of the Councilmen be recalled if they granted a permit to the purchaser of the Frank Cofeit saloon, the permit was granted by a majority vote of the Council and Carl Schuster has opened the doors of the piace of business, which has been closed for 36 days.

Sherwood is listed among the "wet" towns, but, under advice of Governor West, some weeks ago members of the Council intimated that they would be obliged to refuse to renew the licenses of the then proprietors, both of whom were out on parole, having been indicted for alleged violation of the liquor laws.

dicted for alleged violation of the liquor laws.

The owners therefore sought purchasers for their establishments and the buyers applied to the Council at its March meeting for licenses. One license was granted, but, owing to the failure of Schuster to post notice the required length of time, the Council laid the matter over.
