The line furnishes transportation to a large district in the heights back of Washington Park.

NEW ALASKA DIRECTORY.—R. L. Polk & Co., directory publishers, Beck bldg., are now engaged in gathering information for the 1914-15 edition of the Alaska-Yukon Gazetteer and directory. This well-known firm has been publishing the Alaska-Yukon directory every two years since 1890, and their vast experience of over 40 years in directory publishing guarantees to the citizens of Alaska and the Yukon the putting out of a work complete in detail in every respect. The directory contains an alphabetical list of every town, village and hamlet of the North; an exhaustive history of each camp, its population, resources, accessibility, industries and general information regarding mining, fisheries, agriculture, and a complete list of all residents arranged alphabetically; also a classified list of every business arranged by headings so anyone engaged in any calling whatever can readily be located. The directory, in fact, is the only source of information as to the north and is used largely by business men all over the Northwest and the larger Eastern cities as well, as copies are placed in directory libraries throughout the United States and Canada and in many of the large hotels in New York, Chicago and other cities. A corps of careful and experienced men in directory work are now making personal canvass of the various towns, compiling information and statistics, and by September 1 the directory will be out and ready for delivery before the close of navigation even to the remotest sections of Alaska and the Yukon.—Adv.

SPECIAL SUNDAY EXCURSION.—A special train will leave First and Stark sts., at 1:30 P. M. Sunday, April 12, for the Powell Valley, a four-hour trip to the new district on the Mount Hood Electric, where people are beginning to go, where a living can be made from a little land, while it is advancing in value; where the growth of the city adds to the profit of the crop, where soil, location and low prices offer great opportunities for the payroll dollar. Small farms, all in cultivation, that will support an average family can be bought on easy monthly payments, and each tract given special attention by expert gardeners without cost to the buyer. Get round-trip tickets, 25c, from Umbenstock & Larson Co., 288 Oak st.—Adv.

PLANS TO DECORATE BOOTH.—American flags will decorate every voting place at the primaries next month, if the women of the George Wright Post, Women's Relief Corps, carry out their promise made yesterday to the County Commissioners. Three members of the post appeared before the Commissioners yesterday to ask permission to place small flags at every voting place. The Commissioners made no objection and orders will be made directing the election officials to allow the women to place the flags.

SACRED RITE TO BE PERFORMED.—By the use of tables, couches and articles similar to those used in the Passover Feast, the scenes in the upper room will be represented at a service at the First Presbyterian Church tonight. This is the culmination of the nightly meetings of this week, entitled "Last Week of Christ's Earthly Life." The theme for the evening's discussion is "The Sacrament of Memory." The public is invited.

CONCESSION CANTATA PROMISED.—The cantata of Theodore Du Bois, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," will be sung in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church Friday at 7:45 P. M., by the quartet and a chorus of 50 voices, under the direction of Owen J. Beal. The public is cordially invited to hear this work, which sets forth the scenes of the crucifixion.

FORESTRY BUILDING INSPECTED.—To determine the stability of the Forestry building on the Lewis & Clark Park grounds the City Public Works Department has begun an inspection of the foundation and other parts of the building. It has been reported by some that there have been signs of deterioration, which might weaken parts of the building.

BROTHER SUKES TRUSTEE ESTATE.—Michael E. Tierney has petitioned for his appointment as administrator of the estate of his brother, Joseph J. Tierney, who died in Portland November 20, 1904, leaving an estate valued at approximately $5000. The petition states that Tierney left no will and that the brother is the only known heir.

It was to have been considered yesterday, but failed to get on the calendar.

INSPECTOR'S CHECK DEVIATED.—As the first step in the general plans made by members of the City Commission to stop city inspectors from loafing, a system of hourly reports has been put into effect. Various means have been suggested to curb loafing, among others being the wearing of a large badge on the outside of the clothing.
