W many spectators at the social swim of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club on Tuesday evening realized the scurrying of fair maids to mend this rip or sew on that button because the men were to be in the swim too? Also the prinking that had to be done before the appearance of the sylphlike form in her natty bathing suit, or rather swimming suit?

The utmost care is used in placing the simple rubber caps on the heads of the fair sex, the hair must be arranged inst over the ears, the little coquettish wisp must appear in front from beneath the tight-fitting rubber adornment, and over all is another silk or rubberized cap to add piquancy to the rubberized cap to add piquancy to the wearer. One young girl asked for a hand-miror to get a view of her back; this fussing and primping may be all right for the fashlonable beach resorts where one does not intend to get wet above the knees, but in preparing for high diving and regular athletic swims it is rather amusing.

The bathing suits were a revelation; most of them were men's suits, and in order to give the feminine touch, allk ruffles were added, varying in depth according to the generosity of the manufacturer.

according to the generosity of the manufacturer.

One enterprising young swimmer, also one of the best divers, had the skirt of her suit split at the sides, and laced together leosely with black ribbon. As a trimming, a narrow pleating of black satin was used all round the edges, and the neck was made "V" and bound with black satin. It was a fetching and suitable attire for diving and real work in the water. She also wore a chic little hat with two silver tassels daugling over her ear.

The social swims have become very popular at the Multnomah Club and are monthly events. There were tub, candle, long distance races, and fancy and high diving.

Saturday evening, the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Milne, 672 Kearney street, was decorated tastefully for the wedding of Stewart Wilson and Miss Emily Palls. Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiated. Miss Jean B. Sim attended the bride and James Lewis acted as best man. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony and enjoyed the wedding supper which followed with song, story, and old-fashloned Irish and Scotch dancing reminiseent of the home land.

Carl Liedstrom and Miss Hulda Victoria Linn were married April 2 by Rev. James Dimond Corby, D. D., pastor of the First Universalist Church, in the presence of relatives and friends. They will make their home in Portland.

On Monday evening, the regular monthly workers' conference of the Millard-avenue Presbyterian Sunday School was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Zehrung, 7105 Forty-eighth

ATTRACTIVE COSTUME SKETCHED AT MONTE CARLO

An effective costume for the Spring season is shown today, sketched at a recent afternoon affair at Monte Carlo. The suit with its simple skirt and short, loose coat is carried out in changeable taffets of pale green and amber. The flaring collar and turnback cuffs are of delicately embroidered organdy, while color and smartness are given the costume by the striking vest of striped silk in black, dull gold and green. The hat is of dull gold straw with a feather fancy of black.

When strawberries come in select 1 pound of the cleanest and finest berries, bull them but do not wash, and put them into the crock_with one pint rum, brandy, whisky, or pure alcohol, as preferred, and 1 pound sugar. When cherries come add 1 pound sugar, and so on. Keep the crock covered tightly. No cooking is needed. One pint brandy or alcohol will keep at least 6 or 7 pounds fruit. When you reach this point, another cup of brandy may be added. Large fruits—apricots, peaches, pears, plums or apples, should be cut up, stones and cores and tough skins being removed.

Bananas should be avoided as they are likely to ferment. If liked they can be added a little at a time when the preserve is ready for use. A few raisins, sliced figs and dates may be added to soak up excess of juice. Candled and finely chopped orange peel is a good addition, at the end, together with one pound blanched almonds. HE NEW "CORSETLESS" FIGURE can never be yours without a corset - without the right corset.

That may sound paradoxical. But it is true. Because not one woman in a thousand has a figure which unsupported displays grace or smartness.

The right corset is one which trains the figure gently into the simple, natural, youthful lines, which years of compression in unnatural corsets have completely eliminated.

The C/Bala Spirite Corsetalways pre-eminent in smartness-meets this new demand of Fashion with the skill of 40 years of expert corset making. There is no type of figure it will not train into the new, smart, "uncorseted" lines.

Over 240 different C/B models, $1 to Sto. See what a transformation your own C/B model will show you-that model designated for your very figure.
