

LINCOLN CLUB MEN URGED FOR BOOTH

Thomas McCusker Appeals for Loyalty and Harmony at Republican Rally.

COALITION STORY DENIED

Good Citizens Are Blamed for Bad Laws, Because of Indifference in Selecting Good Men, and Are Warned Against Mistake Now.

Thomas McCusker, speaking at a meeting in the Central Library Wednesday night under the auspices of the Lincoln Republican Club, urged that all Republicans get behind the candidacy of R. A. Booth for United States Senator.

"We have but one candidate for United States Senator, and that is Senator Booth," said Mr. McCusker. "He is entitled to the support of every one of you. His nomination should be an enormous vote. Every one of you should make it a point to vote for him and to get other Republicans out to vote for him."

"You must get busy," he continued, "emphasizing the danger of an indifferent attitude in the coming elections. Indifference never won any election. I think that every man and every woman of you here should act as if you thought your own vote necessary for the success of the Republican ticket. Pick out your candidates carefully and, if they are nominated, then go down the line working for them the day after tomorrow, if necessary, if the day before the general election."

Mr. McCusker, a warm personal friend of ex-Chief Justice William B. Owen, discussed at length the urgency of harmony among Oregon Republicans this year. He told how at first he had declined to join the Lincoln Republican Club, but had done so after learning that its object is to bury all enemies in the party and to present a united Republican front in the campaign.

"I became a member of this club," he explained, "when I found that the purpose of the club was to unite the Republican party and go out and win; to inculcate in the minds of all the candidates they must get behind the men who are nominated whether they are elected or not."

"I want to impress upon you the necessity of not only voting your own vote, but absolute certainty that your neighbor votes. I charge all the bad laws and all the crime to the good indifference, because of his indifference and neglect."

"He doesn't go to the polls, he doesn't take part in the campaign, he doesn't assist himself for or against any candidate for business reasons. The result has been that candidates who have been elected have utilized it, and you have had bad laws, and crime has increased."

A story in an afternoon paper to the effect that Senator Chamberlain, Governor West and ex-Senator Bourne had formed a coalition to support each other, Mr. McCusker characterized as untrue, so far as at least, as it had to do with Mr. Bourne.

"Senator Bourne," he said, "is not supporting Senator Chamberlain. I have documentary evidence in my possession that proves it, if any proof were needed. And, if Senator Chamberlain is taking up state-wide and National exhibition as a campaign issue, well, if he is doing that, it is for votes and nothing else, let me tell you!"

Mr. McCusker declared that the people are becoming disgusted with the multiplicity of candidates, each running on his own personal platform, yet calling himself a Republican, in each election. He asserted that what is needed is a Republican platform on which all candidates calling themselves Republicans should stand.

"We would see a change in conditions then," said he, "for they would have to come out in the open and take a definite stand."

"Knifing Must Stop, He Says." "The time is ripe now for a Republican victory," Mr. McCusker continued, again emphasizing the urgency of harmony, "if you don't win now, you won't win in many long years. There must be no knifing."

Three candidates for the Republican nomination for Congress from the Third District, George S. Shepherd, C. N. McArthur and Nelson R. Jacobson, gave brief addresses. Mr. McArthur, in his speech also called on Republicans to get behind Mr. Booth's candidacy for Senator.

"It is time for Republican to get out and work," he declared, "particularly when they have a splendid man like 'Bob' Booth for Senator. I confidently predict that he will be elected as United States Senator by a big vote, and I intend to vote for him and to work for him myself."

"We have had enough of this non-partisan bunk, non-partisan in the title offices, and all the big offices for Democrats. The way to remedy it is to go down the line and elect a Republican ticket in Oregon from top to bottom."

2 GET "VETERAN JEWEL" Surprise Given Phil Metschan as He Presents Emblem to Henry Dosch.

Phil Metschan, president of the Imperial Hotel Company, was presented with a 50-year "veteran jewel" Wednesday night by the members of Samaritan Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., at their meeting in the I. O. O. F. Temple, First and Alder streets. R. Alexander made the presentation speech.

informally and just as effectively by the simple expedient of not filing his declaration of candidacy with the Secretary of State.

With only two days remaining in which to file his declaration, circulate his nominating petition, get it signed by 250 registered Republican voters and then file the completed petition with the Secretary of State, Mr. Sinnott had not even filed the declaration up to last night. As a candidate he is not permitted to circulate his nominating petition until his declaration has first been filed. Mr. Sinnott would be up against Hercules in fact to get his petition signed and filed, even if he should turn in the declaration this morning.

Ask last night if he intended to withdraw, Mr. Sinnott said he didn't have any inclination in that direction. He added, however, that he would decide this morning whether to file his declaration or withhold it. It is the general expectation that he will withhold it.

PETITIONS FILED TODAY EIGHT MORE PREPARED TO ENTER RACE FOR LEGISLATURE.

Careful Checking of Petitions Show All to Have in Excess of Required 225 Names.

With many more names than are needed, the nominating petitions of eight of the men urged by citizens of Multnomah County to become candidates for the lower house of the next Legislature on a platform of "tax reduction" and "greater public efficiency" were filed with the Secretary of State this morning.

Each of the petitions contains approximately 400 names. On some the number is a few more, and on some a few less. The count was made after very careful checking of each petition yesterday, in which all doubtful names, or those of signers who had inadvertently given wrong precinct numbers had been eliminated. Only 225 names are required by law.

So thorough was this checking that the name of every signer was looked up in the registration books at the Courthouse to make certain that it was that of a registered voter. If the name could not be found or if it was listed under a different precinct number, it was thrown out.

Though no effort was made yesterday to get additional signatures to any of the petitions, several persons hunted up the workers in the Yeon building, where the checking was in progress, and asked to be permitted to sign them.

One such instance was that of C. J. Voorhorst and Bertha T. Voorhorst. They had registered as Independents. But when they learned on Wednesday that the count would be made, unless they were registered as Republicans, they went to the Courthouse and changed their registration to read "Republican." They signed all the petitions yesterday.

The petitions to be taken to Salem this morning will be those of Ben Selling, Dr. Andrew C. Smith, S. B. Cobb, John Gill, Judge W. Littlefield, S. B. Huston, L. J. Wentworth and Plowden Stott. They have all adopted the same platform and the same slogan and signatures to their petitions were obtained at the same time.

Oscar W. Horne, Louis Kuehn and D. C. Lewis, of St. Johns, the other candidates, had already announced themselves before the citizens' call for signatures. Their petitions have been circulated separately and each one is complete and ready for filing.

At a meeting of the Union Avenue Development League, Wednesday night, at 808 Union avenue, a resolution was adopted declaring that any attempt to reopen the question of the approach of the interstate bridge was unwelcome and ought not to be considered for all time.

D. W. Ward, E. Versteeg and John Dick were appointed a committee to confer with other committees on the Union Avenue Development League, from Morris to East Morrison streets. It was the sense of the club that estimates of the damages should be obtained and submitted to the property owners.

On the committee on extension of Union avenue, from Bryant street to Columbia boulevard, E. Versteeg, J. D. Kennedy and E. Pink were appointed to co-operate with the City Commissioners. To look after the approach to the interstate bridge from Columbia boulevard E. Brown, M. N. Mayo and W. E. Peacher were appointed to co-operate with the Bridge Commissioners.

A dinner was served at the league meeting. C. B. Moores warned the club not to relax its vigilance and said that the statement made yesterday by George M. Hyland showed there was more work to be done.

WEST IS SUMMONED TO TOLLS HEARING

Senate Committee Tells Various Bodies to Set Time for Appearance.

WORKS ARRAYS WILSON

California Senator Declares President Alone Will Be Responsible if Sovereignty Over Canal Is Surrendered.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Formal consideration of the Administration bill to repeal the tolls exemption provision of the Panama Canal act will begin on the Senate side of the Capitol today with hearings before the inter-oceanic canal committee, to continue 15 days.

Senators who have introduced substitute measures will be heard first and they will be followed by representatives of commercial organizations of Pacific Coast and Gulf States who have asked an opportunity to present their views.

While the committee preparations were under way yesterday, preliminary debate on the tolls issue occupied the greater part of the session in the Senate, where Senator Works, of California, held the floor for hours. Asserting that the United States had the right under the treaty to prescribe such tolls as it sees fit for its own vessels, Senator Works criticized the position taken by President Wilson.

"I think," he said, "that the President deserves to be commiserated for having taken on himself the responsibility. If we are to make this sacrifice and surrender our rights and our sovereignty over the canal, the President alone will be responsible. Without his insistence and approval this repeal would never have been passed by either House of Congress."

The Senator referred to the fact that tolls are charged vessels of the United States traversing the canals and rivers on which the Government has spent $700,000,000, and asserted that to impose tolls upon such vessels, including passing through the Panama Canal would be in violation of the Constitution.

Senators Owen, Norris, Chilton, Lewis, Reed, Paul, Weeks, Thomas, Newlands and Root, who have introduced tolls bills or resolutions will appear before the canal committee before the next day or two. The committee also has under consideration a proposal to call ex-Secretary of State Knox and other officials familiar with the canal situation.

Organizations Are Notified. Telegrams were sent yesterday to the following organizations and individuals who have asked an opportunity to be heard asking them to fix a time when they will appear: M. R. Trezvant, general manager of the Association of Commerce, New Orleans; Seattle, Wash., Chamber of Commerce; I. A. Lewis, Portland, Or.; West Coast Lumber Manufacturers' Association, Seattle; Rainier Ore. Commercial Club; Raymond, Wash., Commercial Club; Centralia, Wash., Commercial Club; Astoria, Or., Chamber of Commerce; Silverton Commercial Club, Silverton, O. Z. and A. C. Little, Mayor of Raymond, Wash.

SALOON FIGHT ABANDONED Nebraska Forces Decide Not to Divert Attention From Main Issue.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 9.—The board of directors of the Nebraska Anti-Saloon League today announced the abandonment of its plan to initiate a law prohibiting the location of a saloon within two miles of any state institution. If enacted the law would have had the effect of abolishing saloons in cities of the state and from the state institutions, including Omaha, Lincoln and Kearney.

The abandonment of the plan, they said, was because the National organization is seeking the submission through Congress of a National constitutional amendment for prohibition and divided interest might result in this state if the two-mile limit fight were continued.

Detective LaSalle and Patrolman Bigelow discovered a hole in a window which they charge to Cook in gaining entrance. Cook says he was passing the store and saw the broken window that he was investigating the possibility of thieves having gained an entrance on his own responsibility.
