

BEAVER BOWLERS' SCORE IS HIGHEST

Leap and Christian Roll 1213, Mark Far in Lead of Most Contenders.

BUTTE BOYS STILL THIRD

Otto Woldt, Also Portland Man, Holds First in Singles With Record of 580—Vancouver Boys Arrive—Records May Go.

To a couple of Portland bowlers, it still left the highest two-man score of the Portland tournament of the Northwestern Congress.

In the first matches of yesterday Leap and Christian rolled a total of 1213 pins, a mark which was far ahead of most contenders.

The Vancouver delegations arrived yesterday and were mixed up in the thickest of the schedule before night.

While no records have been broken, the officials now look for something on that order at any minute. The best from every city in the Northwest are now bowling and new marks seem the logical thing to expect.

Meeting Set for Saturday. The big meeting of the tournament week takes place on Saturday night, along with the banquet at the Perkins Hotel.

Pins are now flying at the Oregon Alleys at all times of the day and night. The Vancouver delegations arrived yesterday and were mixed up in the thickest of the schedule before night.
