C. C. Poling, of the First United Evangelical Church, of this city. This is contingent upon the Philomath people providing $35,000, he said, and he received assurances yesterday that the money would be forthcoming, it had been subscribed before for another purpose, and hence it will be other purpose, and hence it will be necessary to obtain new pledges. Philomath College is the official school of the United Brethren conferschool of the United Brainren conference. It has equipment and grounds. The conference of the Evangelical Association will meet at Tacoma May 1 and is expected to indorse the consolidation, as that denomination has no school. The United Brethren conference meets in Portland in June, and will indorse the consolidation plan. Rev. C. C. Poling and Bishop William M. Bell have been working on the plan to consolidate the educational institutions of these churches for three
