SPECIAL SUNDAY EXCURSION.—A special train will leave First and Stark sts. at 1:30 P. M. Sunday, April 12, for the Powell Valley, a four-hour trip to the new district on the Mount Hood Electric, where people are beginning to go, where a living can be made from a little land, while it is advancing in value, where the growth of the city adds to the profit of the crop, where soil, location and low prices offer great opportunities for the payroll dollar.

CITY TO HAVE NEW BARN.—New city barns to replace the present dilapidated structure on Sixteenth street are to be erected this year. City Commissioner Daly announced yesterday that he has found a total of $55,000 in city funds which can be used for the building this summer and he proposed to start work as soon as possible. An appropriation of $25,000 was allowed for the barns by the budget committee last fall. Mr. Daly says he will have $20,000 left from other purposes which will apply to the barn fund. The present barn is the source of much complaint because of its poor condition.

PATHOLOGICAL SOCIETY ORGANIZED.—The Portland Pathological Society has been organized by physicians interested in the study of the changes taking place in the body during disease. The officers of the society are: Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, president; Dr. R. L. Benson, vice-president, and Dr. Earl Elise, secretary. Other members are: Drs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, A. E. Rockey, McClure, Elise, Sears, Paul Rockey, Whiteside, Hall, Strohm, Fountain, Dilchout, Coffeen, Benson, Watkins, Benyas, Moore, Buck, Wellington, Slocum, Eteen and Menzies.

SCENIC PICTURES TO BE SHOWN.—Carl Balcomb will deliver a free illustrated lecture in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association tonight at 8 o'clock. The address has been arranged by the social work department of the Y. M. C. A. and is open to the public. Mr. Balcomb's subject will be "Beauty Spots of the Rockies." Mr. Balcomb has a remarkable collection of scenic photographs made in all parts of the United States. Stereoscopic slides will be used in illustrating tonight's lecture.

SALOONMAN'S ESTATE $406.—Inventory of the estate of Mike Zenzola, filed yesterday in County Clerk Coffey's office, shows the value of the saloonman's estate to be only $406, consisting mostly of stock in trade at the United States saloon, of which he was one of the proprietors. Louis Parchi, a bartender, was acquitted several days ago. In Circuit Judge Kavanaugh's court, of the murder of Zenzola, who he killed accidentally during the fight over a third man, named Rocco, who has disappeared.

GAMBLING FINES TOTAL $600.—Twenty-nine Chinese contributed about $600 to the city's coffers yesterday when they were fined $20 each for running or visiting a gambling game at 92 Fourth street. North of the city. The fines come just within the limits required for an appeal. A jury decided their guilt, and Judge Stevenson, who believes that the higher courts have been unjustly encumbered with small matters by appeals, set the fine below the limit to prevent an appeal.

OLD RESIDENT DIES.—Frank Lester Hyde, aged 81, died yesterday at his home in McKinley Park, on the Foster road. He had lived in Oregon 42 years. A widow, Mrs. Amanda Hyde, and the following children survive: Mrs. Fannie Dunlop, Woodburn; Mrs. Lulu Campbell, Lewis; Mrs. Carrie Manning, Pendleton; Frank H. Hyde, Pendleton; Mrs. Alice Beecher, Oregon City. He was a brother of Mrs. Louise McFadden and Fred C. Hyde. The body will be sent to Brownsville today for interment.

PREMISES C. A. MOCK, of the Western University at La Mars, Ia., will be in Portland Sunday and preach in the morning in the United Methodist Church, Ladd's Addition, and in the evening in the Oakley Green United Evangelical Church. Dr. Mock was a professor and principal of the University of Oregon, and succeeded Rev. C. C. Poling as president of the Western University at La Mars.

A. Lewis, Mrs. H. A. Darnall, lecturer, will be in charge.

C. A. ROSENBERG DIES.—O. A. Rosenberg died at Good Samaritan Hospital yesterday at the age of 46 years and 8 months. He leaves a widow. The funeral will be held Sunday from Dunning's Chapel, 414 East Alder street, and the interment will be made in Lone Fir Cemetery. He was a member of Oregon Lodge No. 10, A. F. and A. M., and the interment will be held under the auspices of this lodge.

CHURCH DEDICATION SUNDAY MORNING.—The new Church of the Blessed Sacrament, at the southeast corner of Maryland and Bladens avenues, Albina, will be dedicated tomorrow morning. Archbishop Christie officiating. Services will begin at 10:30 A. M. when solemn high mass will be celebrated and the archbishop will deliver the sermon. Many clergymen will attend and assist in the services. Rev. Father Kelly is the pastor in charge. Boundaries of this parish are: Killingsworth avenue from Willamette River to Williams avenue; Williams avenue to Skidmore street; from Williams avenue to Mississippi avenue; Mississippi avenue from Skidmore to Fremont street; from Mississippi avenue to the river. The church was built at a cost of about $18,000. The lower part is for social purposes. The auditorium will seat 500 persons.

PIONEER'S FUNERAL HELD.—The funeral of Homer D. Sanborn, a pioneer of Portland who died at Tacoma Tuesday, was held yesterday. Dr. W. B. Hinson, of the White Temple Baptist Church, conducted the services at Finley's undertaking chapel, Mrs. E. O. Kault, of Tacoma, sang. Many beautiful tokens covered the casket and altar. Burial was in the Volunteer Firemen's plot in Lone Fir Cemetery. Mr. Sanborn having been a member of the Automobile Engine Company Benevolent Association. The pall bearers were: John Gill, Ben Selling, Judge Henry E. McGinn, W. O. Van Soren, Dr. George B. St. George, B. Story, George Tuttle and John Gott, hard.

COUNTY AGRICULTURIST STYLED EX-TRAVAGANT.—Employment of a county agriculturist is designated as a useless extravagance by Eugene Palmer, a member of Pomona Grange, in a letter received yesterday by the County Commissioners. Copies of the letter will be sent to Professor French, state field agent, O. M. Plummer and E. L. Thorpe, who appeared before the board this week and urged the appointment of a county agriculturist. All of the granges of the county, with the exception of Pomona Grange, favor the employment of an expert, the committee advised the Commissioners, who withheld action until direct recommendations can be received from the granges.

WARRANT OUT FOR PAROLED MAN.—Circuit Judge Kavanaugh yesterday issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Curtis Gadow, paroled last November after pleading guilty to non-support of his wife and minor children. Being being paroled Gadow had been sentenced to one year imprisonment. In the motion for the issuance of the bench warrant, Deputy District Attorney Dempsey represented that Gadow had broken the conditions of his parole by failing to report to the District Attorney's office once a month, neglecting to support his children and otherwise failing to conduct himself as a law-abiding citizen.

WOODLAWN GRANGE MEETS TONIGHT.—Woodlawn Grange will meet tonight in Greene's Hall. Under the charge of Mrs. Hyatt, the lecturer, the following programme will be rendered: Piano solo, Miss Ethel Edick; "Mother Congress Work," Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst; recitation, Master Albert Hammann; School Banking System, Principal Stankard, of the Woodlawn public school; vocal solo, Miss Alice Johnson; "Imported Potatoes From California," E. Stansbery, state inspector; "Public Markets," H. M. Calief, secretary Albina Business Men's Club. The programme is open to the public.

FIRE ESCAPES ORDERED.—An order was made by the County Commissioners yesterday authorizing the construction of two fire escapes at the Fraser Detention Home and the purchase of sufficient fire hose for the protection of the building. The fire escapes which will be built under the direction of Superintendent Eatchel have been arranged for and will be completed next week. The order is a result of a report made by Fire Chief Dowell, in which he recommended several changes to increase the safety of the children at the Home.

WOMEN URGED TO AID MARKET.—Decision was made at a meeting of a sub-committee of the Producers' and Consumers' Market Association yesterday afternoon to arrange for dates and places of meeting at which women of the city might be interested in the opening of the proposed public market on Yamhill street. All women's organizations of Portland will be asked to arrange for meetings at their places. Mrs. J. Dabney, of Seattle, will be one of the lecturers.

Mrs. TRUMAN GETS DIVORCE.—On a cross-complaint in which she charged her husband with cruelty to her, Circuit Judge Davis yesterday granted a divorce to Mrs. M. E. Truman. Earl R. Truman, granted her the custody of their 5-month-old son and directed Truman to pay $10 a week to the support of the child. The couple were married in Portland in March, 1911. Truman filed the suit for divorce which he charged his wife with cruelty to him.

BOYS AND HORSE HELD.—Information was received yesterday by Sheriff Word that King Jackson and Ed Oahler, boys wanted by Sheriff Word, a boy and dog from John Grant, are under arrest in Stayton, where they are held on the further charge of the theft of a saddle. The horse is being held at Stayton until the owner calls for it. Sheriff Word was appealed to the day the horse was missed and sent out communications which resulted in the arrest of the boys.

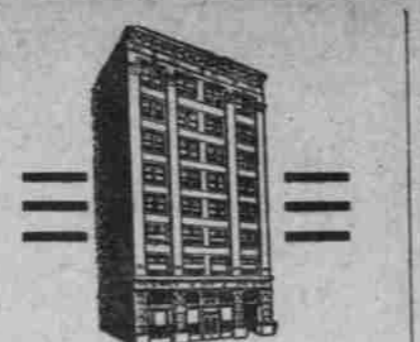

BISHOP SWENDEL COMING TO PORTLAND.—Bishop Swendel, who presided at the annual conference of the United Evangelical Church at Dallas, will be in Portland Sunday, April 19, and preach in the Oakley Green Church that night. On Sunday, April 26, he will preach in the Central Church at 11 A. M. and in the evening he will preach at St. John's. Bishop Swendel at present is visiting churches under his jurisdiction in Southern Oregon.
