closest friend I would not and could not give you any better advice than when I say

"BUY THIS 46-ACRE FARM."

18 acres all ready to plow. No stone, no swamp, Just a deep, rich, dark loam, or river bottom silt. A soil that has produced bountiful crops; that has returned up 50 5000 per acre from tomatest grows 30-500nd cabbage, 200 sacks pointoes and on which cucumbers, corn, data, logan-berries, etc., yield exceptionally well.

Adjoins the best fown of 3000 people in the Willamette Valley; is within 26 miles of Fortland, has boat landing on the property. More money can be cleazed from this tract than from the ordinary valley farm at three or four times the price asked for this.

Owing to many business interests of the owner, he will sell for $10,000, which is away below its actual value, and will make some terms. Small amount trade considered. Those interested see
OTIS C BECK, 302 Railway Ex. Bidg.
