As to the Portland run deigils, Figher opened the third with a single to center. Krause iaid down a sacrifice bunt: Barrenkamp dispersed Doane with a tough-luck drive to the sun field, making two outs.

Now for carnage Derrick singled into left field, bring-Detrick singled into left field, bringing in the first run of the game; Rodgers inserted a screaming three-bagger into deep left center, scoring Detrick, and Ryan poked "Cap" across with a two-bagger to right center. Kores retired the side with a fly to Zacher. Three runs. In the sixth off "Lucky Tyler" Portland had the bases crammed twice and four runs resulted.

A very peculiar play cropped up in the second inning when Fisher caught Ness at second base. Hetling was on third and Ness on first as a result of a double and single. Ness went down on the first ball and Fisher threw back in a hurry to Krause. Harry was not expecting the throw and sidestepped, the ball going to Rodgers on the hop in time to nab Ness.

Carl Mitze caught six Innings without so much as a putout or assist.

Union Association Club Do Most Havoc

in Early Part of Game-Ben Culver Pitches Today.

CORVALLIS, Or., April 17.—(Special.)
—Jude Moreland held the Heiena Union club to seven hits today, but these were well timed and lusty and the Oregon Agricultural College nine lost, 6 to 0. Wells and Garrett. Montana twirlers, also yielded seven hits, but were never in danger
The visitors scored one in the first, two in the third and three in the fourth, and after that were docide. Four fourth, and after that were docile. Four doubles, three of them into the crowd in right field, and three errors were responsible for the five tallies in the third and fourth frames.

Moreland fanned eight men and walked but one and behaved creditably in other ways. Wells, Garrett's southpaw, worked six innings, fanning four and donating five hits. Garrett, a prime favorite here, then assumed the burden and had his one-time proteges at his mercy for the rest of the game.

at his mercy for the rest of the game, fanning four and being knocked for but two scratchy hits. Garrett's un-derhand delivery held the locals help-Supple, who caught for the Aggies held up Moreland's somewhat erratic offerings in good style, although one or two got by him with men on the bags. Sinclair, center fielder, again starred in the field, pulling down several Pretty ones.

The two teams will mix in a third game tomorrow, when Ben Culver will start again against the Union clubbers.

Kelso Ball Suits to Be Ads.

ASTORIA, Or., April 17.—(Special.)—Six members of the Astoria High School team left for Portland this evening to enter the track meet, which takes place at Columbia University tomorrow. The members of the team who will participate are Edward Beard, Dewet Giibert, Wetzel Griffin, Charles Moad, Clyde Lee and Donald Latshaw.

CENTRALIA, Wash., April 17.—(Special.)—A novel scheme has been hit upon by the members of the Kelso baseball team to obtain new uniforms. Each merchant will be asked to furnish one suit, the name of that merchant being printed thereon, returning him good advertising for his investment. The boys are showing much spirit in their efforts to get new suits and it is believed that they will be successful. CENTRALIA, Wash., April 17 .- (Spe
