President Will Ask Congress rines for Authority to Take Action.

SITUATION TENSE ALL DAY

Formal Declaration of War, However, Is Unlikely.

FUNDS TO BE ASKED FOR

Deficiency Already Created by Extraordinary Movements of Fleet. Senate May Validate Calling of Milltia.

WASHINGTON, April 19 .- General Victoriana Huerta, provisional President of Mexico, flatly refused tonight to accede to the unconditional demand ground and in many places drifted like of the United States that he salute the loose snow, or ing to the severe wind, American flag. Congress will be asked American flag. Congress will be asked that any serious by President Wilson tomorrow for authority to use armed force to uphold growing grain. or and dignity of the Nation.

Negotiations with Huerta over the demand for a salute in reparation for the arrest of American sailors at Tampice on April 10 came to a close tonight at 6 P. M., the last hour given by President Wilson for a favorable response from the dictator.

Final Word Is Refusal.

The final word of Huerta to Charge O'Shaughnessy was a refusal to comply unless the United States would guarantee in writing that his salute be returned.

President Wilson at midnight was on his way to Washington from White Sulphur Springs, preparing to read a message to Congress in joint session as early as it can be arranged. In the meantime American war fleets were moving down both coasts on their way to Mexican waters to carry out the President's plans for reprisal.

Declaration of War Unlikely.

The crisis thus reached does not mean that there will be a formal declaration of war, because the United States could not declare war against a government which it does not recognize. President Wilson will seek authority, however, to send the armed forces into Mexico to seize the ports of Tampico and Vera Cruz and the rall. road trestle leading from Vera Cruz toward Mexico City.

The President directed that a cabinet meeting be called for 10:30 tomorrow, when the final arrangements for Pacific blockade of Mexican ports and other steps in the President's programms will be deliberated. The breach that finally has come with Mexico will make it impossible, it was declared tonight on high authority, for the United States to protect foreigners in the republic further, and foreign governments have been notified of the situation in this regard.

Appropriation to Be Asked For.

The President, it was asserted, not only would ask Congress for authority to use the armed forces to uphold the honor of the Nation, but also for an appropriation, a deficiency already having been created because of the expensive naval operations in anticipation of Huerta's defience of this Government. The President probably will ask further that the Senate pass the volunteer act, which already has passed the House, providing for pressing into regular service the militia regiments in the various states. In preparation for the crisis that must be met Senator Shively, chairman of the foreign relations committee, and Wood, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, called meetings of these committees for tomorrow, Representative Flood, who is on his honeymoon, telephoned from New York that he would return at once.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 19,-The cruiser Albany, which has been ordered into active service, will be ready to sail tomorrow and can get away as soon as definite orders are received.

WASHINGTON, April 19 .- Throughout the day the Mexican crisis occupied the absorbing attention of officials, dispelling the usual calm of a beautiful mid-Spring Sunday. Secretary Bryan remained up pracically all last night awaiting word from Mexico. He was at the State Department until midnight, and, going home, continued telephoning to those the cipher department until 4 o'clock.

Shortly after . 9 Mr. Bryan had received two messages from Mexico City. Both were from Charge O'Shaughnessy. The first merely was formal, stating that the message of President Wilson giving Huerta until 6 o'clock tonight to yield, had been communicated to Portillo Y Rojas, the minister of foreign affairs, and that a reply would follow. The second dispatch was in the nature of a reply, although the official quickly perceived that it was not clearly responsive and definite as to the raised a new issue as to the United States agreeing in writing to return the Huerta salute.

TROOPS AT FORT BLISS PRE-PARED IN CASE OF DISORDER.

City Quiet, Though Excited, Extra Rest Sought in Diver-Editions of Papers Being Taken Eagerly by Waiting Throngs.

EL PASO, April 19 .- Troops at Fort Bliss are under orders to come into this city and place it under martial law the moment there is an appearance of oncerted disorder.

These instructions were issued by the War Department when the Tampico incident first assumed a grave aspect, but ecame known only today.

There is a large Mexican population here and the orders to the troops at the fort, five miles from the city, were issued because of the possibility that partisans might start burning buildings or rioting.

The city, however, was quiet tonight, although every one was excited over the possibility of war. Extra editions of the local papers were sold as fast as they could be printed, women and children being among the eager readers of the smallest scraps of information from Washington. The refugee colonies here and the presence of Americans and Europeans with business interests in Mexico gave news a vital interest.

There are more than 2000 infantry cavalry and artillery at the post in readiness to descend on the city at a moment's notice. The gunners have we're ready for anything," said the ranges of every important build-Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secre-

RETURN MADE AT

President Will Have Nothing to Say Tonight," Only Communication With Newspaper Men During Whole Day

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. April 19 .- President Wilson detached himself almost completely from the Mexican crisis today, diverting his mind from worry over what Huerta's answer might be to the American ultimatum by a quiet day in the company of Mrs.

Wilson and their daughters. The President arrived from Washington in his private car at 8 o'clock this morning. He had finished breakfast when a message came from Secretary Bryan.

Rest Sought in Stroll.

"Encouraging, but not final," was the description given of Huerta's attitude. and a brief reply was dispatched to Washington.

To forget the situation the President took a stroll in the sunlight. Only Mrs. Wilson accompanied him. On leaving the hotel they saw little children struggling for possession of an American flag. Finally, a laughing youngster got it away from his playmates and raced up to the President.

Children's Flag Saluteds "Good morning," said the little felw, as the President saluted the flag and took it. "What's your name?" asked the President.

"Billy Holdem, Riverside Drive, New York," he said.

"And yours," asked the President, as he turned to the others.

On reaching the golf links the two Secret Service men dropped back a dis-tance, the President and Mrs. Wilson walked a few hundred yards to one of the benches at a teeing-ground. Here they sat for an hour. The nearest church is at Lewisburg.

10 miles away, and, as the President did not want to subject Mrs. Wilson to so long a journey, religious worship was omitted. In the afternoon the entire Wilson family went riding in a buckboard. They drove seven miles over the steep roads, climbing high in the Allegheny Range.

When the President got back to the hotel he left Mrs. Wilson and his daughters and went for a walk in the hills, accompanied by secret service men. Returning at sundown, he prepared to go aboard his private car with his family at 11 o'clock. It was due to leave here at 11:10 P. M. and arrive in Washington at 7:15 A. M.

No Statement Made. At 10 P. M. this announcement was made from the room at the hotel: "The President will have nothing to say tonight."

This followed the receipt of long messages from Washington. The President stayed in his room, and it is said. was occupied in preparing an address to be delivered in person at a joint session. The President prepared to leave at 11:12 P. M.
