THE MORNING OREGONIAN, MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1914.

10

congregations today there were many strangers, persons who had not been in the habit of attending the churches, and this may be significant of the suc-cess of the day. The go-to-church wider activities for the awakening and stimulation of church activities in the city.

religious cantata which had been given Easter day.

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Wood-mere, the Rev. O. W. Taylor arranged to have a repetition of the Easter musical programme

"Larger than the Easter congrega-tion," said the Rev. J. J. Staub of his attendance at the morning service in the Sunnyside Methodist Church, and night a still larger congregation seating room. F. H. Hayes, pastor of the Sellwood Baptist Church: Rev. T. F. Bowen, of St. Michael's Episcopal Church: Rev. No regular sermons are preached in St. Michael's Episcopal Church: Rev.

The attendance at Centenary Meth-odist Episcopal Church, East Ninth and East Pine streets, was estimated at approximately 1500. Twenty new members were received among the per-

GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY OF ENGLNAD T. Enteley, Gen. Agt., 501 5th A.e., N. X.