THE MORNING OREGONIAN, MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1914.

HE Misses Alice and Evelyn Carey entertained informally at an afternoon tea at their home on Riverside drive. The intimate friends of the hostesses were asked in honor of Miss Mildred Honeyman and Charles C. Hindman, whose wedding is to be the event of Wednesday evening. The younger members of exclusive society enjoyed an hour in "chat" over the tea cups and music.

Mias Gertrude M. Cox, daughter of Miss Gertrude M. Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox, of 555 Fourth street, was married on Wednesday to Edward J. McAfee. The cermony took place at the bride's home, the Rev. Father Hughes officiating. Mrs. Prudence Cox, sister of the bride, and Dudley Werschkul attended the couple. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white satin. She carried little lilies of the valley and roses. The home was a bower of roses. dog-The home was a bower of roses, dog-wood and ferns. The couple will re-side at 527 Skidmore street.

Gordon Granger Women's Relief Corps, No. 43, invites members and friends of all posts and corps in the city to an entertainment to be given Friday evening, April 24, at Greene's hall, Woodlawn. Woodlawn.

hall, Woodlawn. The Daughters of St. David's will give "The Ladies of Cranford," a three-act comedy, at the parish house, East Twelfth and Morrison streets, tomorrow night. The play is under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Wallace Butterworth.

One of the events of the past week in fraternity circles was the fifth an-nual ball given by the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen Tuesday night at Christensen's hull. The grand march was led by Worthy President Mrs. Bernice Dobbins and Predident Northcutt, of Sunset Lodge, 130. Brotherhood of Railroad Train-men. Many out-of-town members were in attendance, among them Mrs. Ellian-beth Clow with a delegation from Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Allison from Newberg. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen was well represent. ed. The arrangement committee was Mrs. T. H. Burchard, Mrs. H. P. Best, Mrs. J. H. Dobbins, Mrs. A. T. Tom-inson, Mrs. J. A. Holmes, Mrs. W. Dawson, Mrs. V. Rodgers, Mrs. W. J. Stevens; door committee, Mrs. W. Daw-son, Mrs. L. D. Keyser and T. J. O'Mara One of the events of the past week Stevens; door committee, Mrs. W. Daw-son, Mrs. L. D. Keyser and T. J. O'Mara. The floor committee was Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Char-ters, Mrs. Shurtliff, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Bon, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. Bills, H. F. Best, F. C. Handley, H. Cleveland, W. A. Rodgers, D. L. Smith, F. E. Talbot, C. H. Francis, Guy Rich-ardson, F. J. Damon, F. M. Schull, J. A. Holmes.

Mrs. Thomas J. Van Auken enter-tained the Cosmos Club Thursday at her home, 1386 Mallory avenue. "Five hundred" was enjoyed during the aft-ernoon, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. L. Ambrose, Mrs. W. F. Carruthers, s. H. E. Hawkins, Mrs. J. Madden, s. L. Ruhl, Miss V. Ambrose, Mrs. J. Clohessy, Mrs. Wickersham, Mrs. W. Post, Mrs. H. A. Webster, Mrs. A. Ambrose. A. Ambrose.

Mrs. J. H. Krall, of 554 Johnson street, will entertain her friends of the Maccabees tomorrow.

Mrs. Minnie E. Smith entertained the members of Portland Hive, No. 7, and their friends at an enjoyable "500" party at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Little Thursday afternoon. Prizes were

LATEST WALKING SUITS HAVE EXTREMELY SHORT SKIRTS.

This model of champagne taffeta is trimmed with black satin with lace panel in skirt. The skirt shows the t endency for extremely short styles.

Attile Thursday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. G. W. Coover, Jr., and Mrs. Ida Hardman. Those present were Mrs. Lang, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Florence Chambers, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Hardman, Mrs. Stefer, Mrs. Negles-pach, Mrs. Clara Knott, Mrs. Emma Milburn, Mrs. Helen Lawson, Mrs. Strian had not live long ensure had not live

Va., next July. Hotel Mallory was a scene of galety Saturday night, the occasion being the after-Easter dance given by the man-agement to patrons and their friends. Many special dinner parties were given. Mrs. M. F. Benson was hostess at a delightful card party Thursday at her home, 114 East Seventieth street. Participating at the tables of "500" were Mrs. E. Jackson, Mrs. E. Hunter, Mrs. William Brundeel, Mrs. G. Jorgen-sen, Mrs. B. Reeves, Mrs. H. Peters, Mrs. R. Coster, Mrs. E. Gassett, Mrs., C. Van Wagner, Mrs. F. Gell, Mrs. Ben-son and Mrs. E. Jorgensen. High hon-ors were awarded to Mrs. Reeves and Mrs. Peters; Mrs. Coster winning the consolation.

Mrs. Benson rendered several beautiful selections on the plano.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Portland Motorboat Club held a dinner party at the Multhomah Hotel on Friday. In the afternoon they enjoyed the programme at the Orpheum. Those attending were Mrs. George Kendall, Mrs. Charles Grey, Mrs. Alex Riddell, Mrs. Frank Vogler, Mrs. Sexton, Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. A. A. Hoover, Miss Winnie Ken-dall and Mrs. Charles E. Mathiot.

The Portland branch of the Oregon Alumnae will meet May 2 with Mrs. Ross Clummer at Riverdale instead of the usual meeting place at the Portland Public Library. Election of officers will take place. All members are re-quested to be present.

There is no charge and all interested are cordially invited to attend. The auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians will entertain with the play. "The Man Higher Up," Tuesday weening at the Baker Theator. Miss Mae Bresiln and Frank Hennesy will give vocal selections between acts. The proceeds will go to send delegates to the National convention in Norfolk. Va., next July. Hotel Mallory was a scene of galety sfaturday night, the occasion being the fiter-Easter dance given by the man-agement to patrons and their friends. Mar W F Benson was bostess at a you didn't do these things than to say you did and have endless quarrels?" "That, I know, is the course many women take," meditated the Serlous-minded Woman. "But I still say with Pompilla. "Wrong, wrong, and always wrong. How plainly wrong.' And, like the falsehood that hatched Pompilia's troubles, this, too, will hatch. If not outwardly, then inwardly, in the wife's own character. In the first place, I think a woman is traitor to her own self-respect when she lies in this way think a woman is traitor to her own the self-respect when she lies in this way to her husband. I think it is too high a price to pay for peace. If I couldn't have what I wanted without thus lying. I would not do without meekly. I would not quarrel. But I would tell my hus-band what I wanted, and why I wanted it, and show him that right was on my side, providing, of course, that, as you say, it was. Then I would tell him that rather than deceive him or make strained feelings between us, I would go without. And I think any man with a spark of manhod in him would con-cede the point." "And make it mightily unpleasant, afterward," observed the Young Mar-ried Woman.

ried Woman.

"Then I would go without. I certain-"Then I would go without. I certain-ly wouldn't descend to lying. When a woman does this, she is deteriorating the fabric of her own character. She is making weak places, and in some cru-cial moment she will unexpectedly find hergelf incapable of doing the right. The whole foundation of character will The whole foundation of character will great fundamentals of creation. You cannot go contrarywise to the realities of things without meeting shipwreak of one kind or another, sooner or later. A building with unsafe foundation will not stand, and the married life built on falsity will sometime come down with a crash, or the character of the one falsifying will be a whited sepul-chre."

"Not so difficult as the other will eventually become," advised the Seri-ous-minded Woman. with transportation.

MRS. W. A. B. writes: "Is there any truth in the statements one often "LITTLE WILLIE" IS LOST hears that great fright, or seeing horrible things, during pregnancy will cause a child to be marked?

Afternoon Pedestrians.

"Can you tell me in what way mater-nal impressions affect a child before it is born? Can the mother by perusing certain studies or by doing certain things create an influence that will af-fect the mental qualities of the child in later Ufe?" last name could not be learned by the police because Willie talks a foreign

1-The belief that a child may be marked before birth by some impres-sion made on the mother's mind is a widely prevailing one. In about every neighborhood there is someone who has heard of some woman who had a terrible fright during her pregnancy and when her child was born it was marked exactly according to the thing she saw, be it a mouse, a foot cut off, someone losing a finger, a streak of blood, or some terrifying object. These reports are be traced down to actual facts. Someone heard someone else, who heard someone else ad infinitum! This belief about the marking of a child before birth because of a power-ful mental impression is a superstition.

ful mental impression is a superstition. Children may be born with club-foot, with web fingers and toes, with hare-

NEEDED LABORERS BARRED

Canadian Immigration Agent Warns

Men Going Across Line.

Season. Master tailors and designers con-tribute their combined knowledge and skill in producing Benjamin Clothes for Men and Young Men that are leaders in every season. Enjoy the "clothes personality" that Benjamin makes possible for every man and young man. Begin with this season. Suits

> Twenty Dollars to Forty Dollars

Buffum & Pendleton Morrison Street Opposite Postoffice

ces will be held in the family rooms in traveling passenger agents of all road; the hotel at 2 P. M. Tuesday. The centering in the Pacific Northwest, will body will be placed in a vault in the Portland Crematorium. Miss Baumgart was for two years a will be a big luncheon, to which the teacher in the Portland public schools. About seven years ago she resigned and since that time has been assist-The Commercial Club of Cims in invited.

The Commercial Club of Cimarron, has adopted the following alogan: blamed fool didn't know it couldn' done so he went ahead and done it."-falo Courier.

Н \mathbf{R} S

meet the instant approval of who know good furniture.

You patronize "home industry" when you buy "King-craft." If your dealer does not handle them, write or phone us and we will give you the name of one who does.

LUXE VOTING COUPON.

THIS COUPON WILL COUNT FOR FIVE VOTES

Street

Good for five votes when property filled out and sent to the T Manager (by mail or otherwise), Room 428, Morgan Bullding, on before the above date.

00000

Hints on Wealth The whole foundation of character will have been undermined and, too, this yielding to faisity will unconsciously permente the whole atmosphere of the home. Indeed, one can never tell how far-reaching it will be in its action and re-action. Truth is one of the great fundamentals of creation. You cannot so contrarywise to the realities Dr.FrederickM.Rossiter. Question? pertinent to hygiene, sanitation, and prevention of disease, if mat-ters of general interest, will be answered in this column. Where space will not permit or the subject is not suitable, letters will be personally answered, subject to proper limitations and where a stamped, addressed envelope is inclosed chree." "Maybe you are right," said the Young Married Woman, as she rose to 50. "But it seems a difficult path to follow." "Not so difficult as the other will eventually become," advised the Seri-ous-minded Woman. Dr. Rossiter will not make diagnoses o individual diseases. Requests for such service cannot be answered.

Birth Marks and Maternal Impressions. The Canadian immigration agent wishes to set Portland laborers right as to the Canadian law in this regard.

Playful Wanderer Amuses Sunday

"Little Willie," 4 years old, whose tongue, amused himself for several Milburn, Mrs. Helen Lawson, Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Altman, Mrs. Minnle Smith and Mrs. Beatrice Little.

A. M. Dalrymple and daughter Miss Helene Dairymple, left on the steamer Rose City on Friday for an extended visit with friends and relativés in San Francisco, Mrs. Dalrym-ple and Miss Dalrymple are well known in Salem and Portland social circles.

The home of Mrs. Dena Nixon, 955 Albina avenue, was the science of a preity wedding Thursday evening. April 16, when Nettle Parliament Wadd and E. C. Hembree ware united in marriage by the Rev. D. V. Pollinz. The house was beautifully decorated in white flowers, follage and forms. Only the immediate family and close friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride was charming in a gown of In white in white in the immediate inter-friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride's roses. After the tervice a re-ception was held for the many friends of the couple and delicious refresh-ments were served. Among those present as guests were: Mrs. M. J. Hembree, mother of the bridgeroomi Mrs. And Mrs. J. W. Hembree, Mr. and Mrs. Prank Schmitt, Mrs. Edna Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. D. Perkins, Walter Reis-sing, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Bird, Mis. Mr. and Mrs. Cully, Miss Cully, Mr. and Mrs. John Mr. and Mrs. J. Will the relisting is the Mr. and Mrs. J. Will the friends are invited to be present. The the day at 2 o'clock in the Medical build-ing, room 226. All members and their the day are invited to be present. The the day are invited to be the day are invited to be invited to inv

Mrs. Frank Schmitt, Mrs. Bohn Schnets Mr. and Mrs. D. Perkins, Walter Reis-sing, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bird, Mrs. Pearl Gardner, Mrs. Cully, Miss Cully, Mrs. Grace McCue, Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon, Miss Gaadys Crane, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Crane, Miss Gaadys Crane, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Perry, Mrs. Dena Nixon, Charles P. Ful-lerton, Miss Josephine Fullerton, Miss Juliett Fullerton, Miss Alice Wade, Misses Harriett D. Priem, Miss Edma Nixon, Misses Ruth and Grace Nixon. The couple will be at home to their friends at 47 East Twenty-sixth street.

In room F. The East and West divisions of the Portiand Shakespeare Study Club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. S. Townsend, 53 Floral avenue. Mrs. A. W. Anthony and Mrs. Helen Rice will be guests of honor. The club is anticipating the celebration of Shakespeare's birthday Thursday. On that day an address by Mr. Benson, of the Stratford-upon-Avon Players will be heard in the Central Library at 3 o'clock, and in the evening the mem-- (Copyright, the Adams Newspaper Service, A Voice From the Rinito.

 (Copyright, the Adams Newspaper Service.) A Voice From the Rialto.
Marian WINTHROP'S chagrin was geared up to high tension as she left the Van Dine home after her scene
An interesting series of lectures which should attract all those inter-ested in social welfare work is being given at the Young Women's Christian Association by Mrs. Anna Y. Reed, of left the Van Dine home after her scene with her dramatic pupil. It was a scene which the teacher had not scheduled for her course of instruction. An object of charity! It made her boil, as the thought revolved hotly through her brain.

Too overcome with mortification to face Mrs. Van Dine immediately, Marian had resolved to write the other her views and thus break off relations.

her views and thus break off relations. The lesson she had just given the girl, as it happened, just balanced the ad-vance payment of $20 which Mrs. Van Dine had advanced her. The latest bump of fate was one of the most grievous ones the young di-vorcee had sustained since the begin-ning of her effort to make her own way. Fallen to earth in a blighted be addressed by Mrs. Anna S. Reed at

The Montavilla Civic League will

CALENDAR FOR TODAY.

Taylor-Street M. E. Church tonight. Visiting Nurse Association annual meeting. 2 o'clock, Medical building.

Montavilla car.

Y. W. C. A. tonight.

Reception to Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Short,

Oregon Society of Artists, annual account tonight, Library.

Monday Musical Club departments

Social workers, parents and teachers to

Portland Shakespeare Study Club, with Mrs. T. S. Townsend, 53 Floral avenue,

fessional venture. Marian had not live long enough nor suffered enough blows of fortune to take her bump with philosophy. Nor could she humble herself enough to continue teaching, now that the motive back of Mrs. Van Dine's engagement of her sarvices had bobbed to light. She wondered angrily who had told Mrs. Yan Dine that she was in need. Arrived at her room, Marian penned a brief, cool note to Mrs. Van Dine ex-"Good evening! How have you been a brief, cool note to Mrs. Van Dine ex-"Good evening! How have you been a brief, cool note to Mrs. Van Dine ex-"Good evening! How have you been a brief, cool note to Mrs. Van Dine ex-"Good evening! How have you been a brief, cool note to Mrs. Van Dine ex-

In Satem and Portrate were the par-or Saturday evening, April 18, Bessie Boyle and Frank S. Porter were the par-the home of the bride's parents, at 910 Francis avenue. The house was dec-orated in forms and Spring flowers. The bride carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Emma Porter, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant and Charles Porter was best man. ****

later life?"

Lieutenant Edward C. Udell, a retired nember of United States Medical Corps, living at Tacoma, has been called to Portland to take charge of the recruitling station of the marine corps to suchas been called to San Diego to com-mand a company of the Fourth Provis-ional Regiment of Marines that is forming at that point. Colonel Joseph H. Pendleton, of the Puget Sound Navy-Yard, at Bremerton, 2-The maternal mind no doubt day considerable influence upon the de-veloping child, particularly upon its nervous system. If a violent passion on the part of the mother can poison her nursing child and cause a convul-tion if a fright or nerve shock can causes a miscarriage or a premature birth, it is evident that the emotions have an influence upon the fetus, Every emotion of the mind causes cliemical changes in the blood and secretion of the body, and these chem-ical changes produced in the blood af-Funeral of Former Portland Teachfect the child for the mother's blood er Will Be Held Tuesday.

MISS BAUMGART PASSES

carries all the nourishment the child recaives,

Miss Thereae Adelhaide Baumgart, 31 years old, died of typhoid fever yes-terday at her home in the Hill Hotel, 741 Washington street. Funeral serv-3-From what we know or think we know about heredity, acquired talent or ability is not inherited by the offspring. Or if put in this way: because spring. Or if put in this way: because a woman sings and studies music all during pregnancy, that is no reason why her child will be musical, or if she writes, that her child will be liter-ary. On the other hand persistent, strong mental activity unquestionably has a most wholesome influence; but in all probability the maternal influ-ence that counts the most is the joy, happiness, contentment and freedom from worry and fears, in fact all the mental qualities that promote peace of mental qualities that promote peace of mind and health of body. These mental impressions all vitalize the blood and promote vigor not only on the part of the mother but in the child, insuring good nourishment and full development under good conditions.

An interesting series of lectures which should attract all those inter-ested in social welfare work is being Siven at the Young Women's Christian Association by Mrs. Anna Y. Reed, of Seattle. Mrs. Reed is in charge of the Seattle and the seattle as all fault kept pricking at her heart.

Seattle. Mrs. Reed is in charge of the vocational survey, which the Seattle fits faults do, and so this falsehood at the vocational survey, which the Seattle distribution is faults do, and so this falsehood at the vocational survey, under the vocation work, the selection of information. In the succeeding lectures the subject will be gone laid in more detail. The next lecture will be Monday evening at 3 o'clock at the Y. W, C'A.

who come into the store to purchase Mother's Friend,'" remarked number of men Friend." remarked a leading druggist. It is a happy thought to send hubby to the drug store. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles. It is a gentle, soothing lubricant, beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to reileve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, ten-dons and ligaments are thus permitted to BY BARBARA BOYD. Domestic Lies. Somestic Lie

