

DEVLIN'S WORK ON OAKS IS SHOWING

Gradually Improving Team Is Looked Upon by Some as Real Beaver Rivals.

MORE CHANGES EXPECTED

Zachier's Batting Slump and Kaylor's Disinclination to Take Care of Himself May Play Part in Shift Looked For Soon.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Oakland needs one new outfielder and one new infielder. With this added to the fact that the team's general manager...

Practically all the Portland champs are agreed that Arthur Devlin has materially bettered his fallers, and, some are so rash as to say the Oaks look as good as any club in the league.

But the consensus is as above set down in cold type.

While Devlin is not very loquacious in discussing his plans, the former Giant star as much as admitted last week that some changes would be made.

The Oaks have first claim on Outfielder Messenger, now with St. Louis. If the Southern League is turned back Devlin will name him.

From the White Sox the Oaks have secured the services of Clyde Warren Riskey, who is thought to have a 300 batting clip pretty soon to maintain his present lead.

Kaylor is a promising outfielder, but does not take care of himself, nor is he particularly brainy player.

In the infield Murphy and Hettling are the two men whose jobs are hanging in the balance.

Walt McCredie says he doesn't see how anybody can disturb Gus Hottling at third, and Devlin, on the other hand, is highly enthusiastic over his Washington find, Murphy, at the keystone.

Devlin has six reliable pitchers in Malarky, Pruiett, Prough, Ramey, Geaver and Whittay and a dandy backup corps in Mits and Alexander.

Oakland Tribune—So far as Oak fans are concerned we would like to see Buddy Ryan elected ambassador to Paraguay and Bill Rodgers appointed Gaskewer of Baroda, and the sooner the better, too.

Adown through the long path of romance from the days of Lochinvar to McAdoo, who have searched for the test of true love.

Men have literally waded through fire, attended Danzantes in the middle of sweltering July, given up drinking and gone to war to prove undying affection.

But now comes the supreme test of the centuries.

If any young miss doubt the love of her swain let her put him to the test by expressing a desire to attend the international polo game at Westbury, Long Island next June.

Seats will be at a premium.

Gradually Willie Ritchie is gaining the recognition at home that he deserves.

By pummeling the daylight of Tommy Murphy to other nightingales, Coffroth's pasture, the San Francisco lightweight king proved himself a real champion.

Harlem Tommy is legs in the mitt again but Willie has struck Willie he must have thought it was raining boxes.

White Ritchie, ing gloves.

Billy Murray and Leach Cross were among the spectators at this battle, and Leach took advantage of the occasion to give the new middleweight sensation some good advice.

"Murray, if you can steer clear of Mike Gibbons," said Leach. "He's bad medicine."

"Oh, I think I can lick him," replied Murray. "I'll never get to the top unless I lick the tough ones."

"No, and you'll never get there if you tackle the St. Paul boxer," shot back Cross.

Still Oakland and Portland went in to the six-day business last week and a few stayed until the finish.

KUBS DEFEAT BRAVES

BAKER TURNS ON NORTH YAKIMA AND WINS GAME 4 TO 2.

Pendleton Stages "Round-Up" With Walla Walla Bears, Taking Big Stuffed 13 to 4.

One good game and a slaughter tells the story of the Western Tri-State wild show yesterday. Baker turned on North Yakima on the Braves' own grounds and took a dandy game from them, 4 to 2, while the Pendleton Bucks roared over the Walla Walla Bears...

At North Yakima Kile was wild as a wolf at the start and thereby lost in the first inning, he walked four in a row and in the second allowed Lind to get a triple and Sigaby a single after he hit Jones and Meil got on by an error.

At Pendleton it was the Round-Up over again. The Bear pitcher, Bridger, pitched a hammering game for 20 safeties that made 13 runs. Schroeder cast off by the Bears, took delight in holding to six hits. An error and a lot of luck let four Bears across the pan.

The game was good till the fourth, when, with the score tied, 2 to 2, the ducks fell on Bridger and drove in on run.

Pendleton played a fast fielding game, pulled in the ball plays. In the eighth Pendleton got five hits, one one run out of it. Varian was caught off second and Bridger pulled out of the hole with three on.

Walla W. 4 6 0 1 Pendleton, 13 20 1 Batteries—4 Bridger and Brown; Schroeder and Fembroke.

"JIM CROW" SCHEME FAILS Huntington Negroes Refuse Aid in Building Revival Tabernacle.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., April 19.—(Special.)—All support offered by negroes for the project of building a "Sunday" tabernacle here to be used by "Billy" Sunday for a religious campaign in the near future, has been definitely withdrawn and the building of the edifice is now left entirely in the hands of the white residents.

When it was learned that the colored persons were to sit at a separate table during the luncheon there was an immediate show of rebellion.

Rev. E. McBride, a negro clergyman, who has watched differences between the whites and negroes on previous occasions, was appealed to, and when he learned of the arrangement he sanctioned the withdrawal of all negroes working for the tabernacle scheme.

TEAM SEES VICTORY

Multnomah Is Confident of Field Meet at Eugene.

M'CLURE IS BIG FACTOR Winged "M" Manager Believes He Can Take Honors in Events Not Now Defended by Portland's Squad of Athletes.

Aided by the addition of several stars and by the fact that McClure, of world's Olympic fame, will be with instead of opposing him, Martin Hawkins, manager of the Multnomah Club track team, figures a victory for Multnomah in the meet at Eugene on Saturday.

In the Columbia meet last Saturday Multnomah and Oregon were tied with 22 points each.

Multnomah ran up that total with but a limited number of stars, one of whom got out of the sick bed to take part in the meet.

The first is George Philbrook, who scored in the shotput and high jump, and the other is Sam Bellah, who ran second in the pole-vault, to holdman, also a Multnomah star.

Philbrook is now in ship-shape and Bellah has worked enough to feel at home on the field.

McClure, though at Eugene, will compete for the Multnomah Club the rest of the year. This adds points to Multnomah in the distance events which are not filled on the Winged M team.

Multnomah will also take Multhead along, provided Bill Hayward sanctions his use. The Portland Interscholastic League recently sanctioned high school boys competing with the club and Hawkins has written Hayward a letter explaining this change.

Hawkins also counts on Hummel, the boy who won the hurdles at Columbia. He lightened them, but all this time Meil was hurling unsovable ball. Kile fanned seven and walked four. Meil fanned six and walked three. The score:

Kansas City 4, Indianapolis 3. KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 22.—Mullin, for Indianapolis, and E. Packard, for Kansas City, each yielded 10 hits today, but Kansas City's hits were bunched and Indianapolis was defeated, 4 to 3. Score:

Indianapolis 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 — 3 10 1 Kansas City 0 3 0 0 0 0 0 1 — 4 10 1 Batteries—Caldin and Texter; E. Packard and Easterly.

Buffalo 9, Pittsburg 6. PITTSBURG, April 22.—Howard Camnitz, formerly of the National League, pitched for the local Federal League team today against Buffalo and lasted four innings. The visitors won, 9 to 6. Camnitz allowed seven hits and six runs were scored before he was relieved by Walker. Score:

Buffalo... 0 2 3 1 1 2 0 0 9 — 9 10 2 Pittsburg... 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 1 — 6 11 3 Batteries—Moran, Ford and Blair; Camnitz, Walker and Berry.

St. Louis 5, Chicago 4. ST. LOUIS, April 22.—St. Louis hit McGuire hard and thrily today, with McGinnis from Chicago, 5 to 4, and making a clean sweep of the series with Tinker's men. It was the home team's sixth successive victory. Score:

St. Louis... 1 0 0 0 3 0 0 1 2 — 5 12 1 Chicago... 0 2 0 0 1 0 1 0 — 4 11 3 Batteries—Crandall and Hartley; McGuire and Wilson.

WASHINGTON CREW TO ENTER Fund to Be Raised to Send Eight to Hudson River Regatta.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, April 22.—(Special.)—Seattle and the University of Washington's regatta teams are to raise $1000 to send the varsity eight, the champions of the Pacific Coast to Poughkeepsie this June to compete in the big race on the Hudson.

The students of the University of Washington have already subscribed $1000 toward the fund, payable early in May.

The interest in the raising of this fund is much keener than last year. Washington's position in rowing circles of the country has been considerably raised in view of the fact that the race last year and the ease with which the eight took the Coast championship this month from Stanford and California eights.

Varsity Trackmen Working Aim Is to Retrieve Saturday's Defeat in Multnomah Contest.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, April 22.—(Special.)—"Bill" Hayward pitched a punishing game through a dual meet with Multnomah next Saturday. Oregon's defeat in the Columbia meet last Saturday, the first nine years, has aroused the local athletes to the necessity for hard work to redeem themselves in the coming encounters with the clubmen and the Aggies.

All Hayward's charges are in fair shape. Saturday's meet probably will be pitched for the Multnomah by Hayward as a college runner, since he is ineligible for the conference meets this Spring.

Face-to-Face Courtesy

GOOD telephone service depends largely upon mutual courtesy. The telephone is more useful to those who talk as if face to face, for civility removes difficulties and facilitates the promptest possible connections.

As in other intercourse, it often happens that two or more people wish to talk with the same person at the same time. Without courtesy confusion is inevitable, and the confusion is greater when the people cannot see each other.

The operators must be patient and polite under all circumstances, but they will do better work if they meet patience and politeness on the part of telephone users.

The Bell Telephone service enters intimately into the social and business life of each individual. The best results come through the practice of mutual courtesy.

MONKEY EMPTIES CAFE

SMALL BOY WIT GIVES ANIMAL ITS FIRST IMPETUS. Trays Are Wrecked, Women Scream and Restaurant Closes Twenty-four hours for Repairs.

NEW YORK, April 18.—If ever a man had reason to sue the City of New York for damages, Theodore Heinke, proprietor of the Colonial restaurant, believes that he is that man.

A pop-eyed, ring-tailed monkey, an itinerant organ-grinder and a mischief-maker were at the bottom of the trouble. The boy and the monkey were directly responsible for the damage, but the city figures in the case, said Mr. Heinke, because the organ-grinder had no license.

And this is what took place: The organ-grinder stopped in front of the restaurant during the dinner hour. After grinding out a few wheezy airs he sent his wife and the monkey into the restaurant to take up a collection.

A small boy followed in their wake. Just inside the door he was seen to do something to the monkey. What followed happened so quickly that nobody could say what the boy had done.

The monkey gave a wild scream and, disconcerted by the noise, fell into the air, alighting on a table at which four women were seated. They joined in the chorus. Without stopping to ponder the consequences the monkey made a flying leap to another table, where he landed in the sticky midst of a tray of French pastry.

He circled the room, cut through the middle and lopped off the corners; then went back and did it all over again. By this time the tables were overturned, dishes and food scattered over the floor and walls, and the kitchen help and customers had made a hasty exit into the open air.

Seeing what was going on, the organ-grinder and his wife disappeared, so did customers who had run up big checks. The monkey finally found a resting place on a chandelier, where Mr. Heinke managed to capture him with a rope. He is still keeping him in the hope that the owner may appear and claim his property.

With quiet restored, the restaurant looked as if a dozen bombs had been exploded, so complete was the destruction. The doors were closed and a sign was displayed in the window stating that the place would suspend business for 24 hours while repairs were made.

EIGHTEEN months ago when a cartoonist used the name of the Federal League it was printed in this size type.

Then Tinker jumped and the name was used as follows: "Federal League."

Now the Federals open to a crowd of 20,000 people and the name is printed: "FEDERAL LEAGUE."

No wonder the Feds are not particularly anxious to take part in a world's series. All they have to do is to split the schedule in three parts and have three opening days all around. Then all will get a cut.
