COMMISSION MEETS TODAY

Chief Engineer Hegardt Sends Reports of Inspection Tour.

lic Docks meet today and are expected to consider reports already received from G. B. Hegardt, chief engineer, who is en route East, bearing on investiga-tions he made on Puget Sound. Otherwise business of a routine nature will be taken up.

Mr. Hegardt proceeded by way of Seand after taking in the latest construction under way on that water-front headed for Chicago to delve into cold storage features that may be apwarded the papers to Washington, rec-ommending that no fine be imposed on Captain Macgenn, of the Breakwater, so the case was referred to Inspectors Edwards and Fuller to investigate.

LIFESAVING SUIT IS TRIED Officials Witness Use of New Garment in River. Robed in a rubberized suit, into which he stepped with all clothing on, William MacDonald, who says he invented the garment following the Titanic disaster, gave a demonstration before Federal and municipal officials been started on new cabins for the steamer Roanoke last night and headed for the Sunny South.

On upper Ainsworth dock work has been started on new cabins for the steamer Roanoke last night and headed for the Sunny South. before Federal and municipal officials yesterday at the Stark street landing.

About the waist of the garment is affixed a circular pneumatic tube almost the size of a ring buoy and the suit is fastened about the neck by means of a cord. Over his head the inventor pulled a flexible hood, the object of which, he says, is to keep water and steamers Beaver and Bear that will be placed just aft of the bridges and will be occupied by the first, second and third officers as well as wireless operators, while the wireless plants are to be located there. The arrangement will place four additional rooms at the disposal of passengers.

On the next voyages of the Mc-Spray from the face of the weekers in Cormick steamers Williamette and Donald stepped from a float into the river and for half an hour he floated without apparent effort. He thinks that eventually many of the suits will be provided on ocean vessels, so in the event of an accident passengers can simply step into them and tie the cord at the neck. When Mr. MacDonald at the neck. When Mr. MacDonald emerged from the water his clothing was dry.

MONMOUTHSHIRE COMES HERE

Royal Mail Issues New Schedule

Governing European Coast Service. Royal Mail line agencies have been informed that the liner Monmouth-shire, formerly commanded by Captain Warner, who brought the giant freighter Cardiganshire here, has been sched-uled to sail from London May 6 for the North Pacific Coast by way of the Far East. She has been on the run be-tween Europe and the Orient for the past few years.

In the latest schedule issued by the company the liner Glenroy, now undergoing repairs at Scattle, is to sail from Portland May 8, the Radnorshire May 14, Den of Ruthven May 28, Glenlochy June 21 and the Carnarvonshire July 13.

Marine Notes.

Strong northwest wind rampant on the Coast is given as a reason for the "Big Three" liner Beaver being late reaching here from California ports last night, she having berthed at Ainswortn dock about 10 o'clock. The vessel brought 318 passengers.

Disappointed in starting for California on the steamer Bear yesterday morning because they reached the dock late, a bride and groom secured ac-

WHITES REPLACE JAPANESE Forty Orientals Discharged by Hammond Lumber Company ASTORIA, Or., April 22.—(Special.)— Forty Hindus and Japanese who have been employed as laborers at the Hammond Lumber Company's mill were discharged today and their places filled with white men.

The company plans the making of additional changes from time to time until every man in its employ will be an American citizen, and, so far as possible, will be men of families.

Improvements to the nigh school building. This was decided upon at a Board meeting. A special election is to be held on Tuesday, May 12, to vote upon the proposition.
