Transports Laden With Subsistence Supplies and Each Regiment Is phernalia It Takes.

GALVESTON, Tex., April 24 .- Twenty hours after orders to start for the front were received from Washington four regiments of infantry, comprising 3400 men, carrying 12 machine guns, sailed for Vera Cruz late today. The Sixth Cavalry and the Fourth Artillery batteries did not get away, as there was no room on the transports. They probably will sail tomorrow aboard commercial steamers.

The men who sailed today, with those who will follow, comprise the brigade, reinforced, commanded by Brigadier-General Frederick Funston. They are due in Vera Cruz Monday.

Forces Stripped for Fighting.

It was a stripped fighting force that sailed. Every ounce of subsistence that could be crowded aboard was put on the transports, and each of the four regiments was reduced to one ambulance and three wagons, with 25 mules. The transport Sumner, carrying the Fourth and part of the Twenty-eighth Infantry, was first away, her rails packed with men and officers in the Army's olive-drab campaign uniforms as the band played "Auld Lang Syne." Second away was the McClellan, with the rest of the Twenty-eighth Infantry. Next came General Funston's transport, the Kilpatrick, which carried the Seventh Infantry. The last to leave was the Meade, with the Nineteenth Infantry, Company E of Engineers, and telegraph and telephone operators. Artillery and Cavalry to Follow.

Rebel Expresses Wish for Ten Million Cartridges, but Assents to Renewal of Embargo Without Bad Grace.

EL PASO, Tex., April 24.-The international political situation cleared greatly today as affecting the status of the rebel government and that of the United States. This city and Juarez were perfectly quiet. A long note from Secretary Bryan to Carranza was trans. mitted through Juarez to Chihuahua tonight.

General Francisco Villa, who arrived at Juarez yesterday, repeated his declaration that he would not be drawn into a war with the United States, particularly as that would serve only to draw the Huerta chestnuts out of the fire. He repeated these assertions to George C. Carothers, special agent of the State Department, and to newspapermen and many other visitors.

General Wishes for Cartridges. To J. T. McClammy, his cattle agent n this side of the river, he said: "It's that little drunkard Huerta's fight; let him fight it. Rebels Capture Monterey.

Oficial notification that the rebels had taken Monterey was received by Villa tonight.
