federal garrison, which evacpated after six days of heavy fighting, retreated in the direction of Saltillo, where it will serve to reinforce the remainder of the federals, who were driven from Torreon and San Pedro and who constitute the main body of federals now in the north.

General Villa is now outfitting his form of a comparing argument this army for a campaign against this stronghold, but is being hampered by the embargo which the United States has placed on arms and ammunition. Before leaving Monterey the defend-ers destroyed much ammunition and Five armored autos were left behind and with some rifes and eartridges fell into rebel hands. Monterey is the most important city of Northern Mexico and used to have a large American population. It is only 167 miles from Laredo, Tex., has a population of 85,000 and is noted for the number of its inhabitants who speak English. No statement of losses incurred in the fighting is available

The State Department here, through the Brazilian Ambassador, has asked that the American citizens imprisoned Prisoners Held at Smelter.

Consul Canada reported that the Americans and other refugees held at Agua Calientes had been pulled from a train about to leave for Vera Cruz by a mob and that local police interfered and rescued them. They were then held in the smelters, none being permitted to reboard the train. Consul Canada also reported that about 300 American refugees from Mexico City American refugees from Mexico City had arrived at Vera Cruz up to last

Mr. Doerr, according to Consul Canada's report on the Agua Callentes incident, gave the names of more than 50 Americans, mostly women and children, who were on the train and are now in the smelter. He says that when the party was first dragged off the train at Incarnacion, the mob demanded the lives of the Americans, and even went so far as to produce two priests who so far as to produce two priests who might hear their confessions before they were put to death.

PRESIDENT Mckinley'S REJECTION OF MEDIATION IN CON-TRAST TO WILSON POLICY.

WASHINGTON, April 26 .- President Wilson's acceptance of the offer of international mediation in the Mexican dispute, brings out in striking contrast the declination by President McKinley of such an offer at the outbreak of the Spanish war. President McKinley replied:

"The Government of the United States recognizes the good will which has prompted the friendly communication of the representatives of Germany, Austria, Hungary, France, Great Britain, Italy and Russia, as set forth in the address of your excellencies, and shares the hope therein expressed that the outcome of the situation in Cuba may be the maintenance of peace between the United States and Spain by affording the necessary guarantee for the re-establishment of order in the island, so terminating the chronic condition of disturbance there which so deeply injures the interests and menaces the tranquillity of the American Nation by the character and consequence of the struggle thus kept up at our doors, besides shocking its sentiment of humanity.

"The Government of the United States appreciates the humanitarian character of the communications made in behalf of the powers named, and, for its part, is confident that equal appreciation will be shown for its own earnest endeavors to fulfill a duty to humanity by ending a situation the indefinite prolongation of which has become insuffer-

HUERTA'S NOTE TO O'SHAUGHNESSY COMPLAINS LAND-ING OF MARINES WAS BREACH OF CONFIDENCE.

CHICAGO, April 26.—Under a Vera Cruz date a morning paper to-day prints what purports to be a verbatim translation of President Huerta's note to Charge O'Shaughnessy, transmitting the latter's passports. It was handed to Mr. O'Shaughnessy by the Mexican Minister of Foreign Relations on April 22: "Mr. Charge d'Affaires: Assuredly your honor knows that the marines of the American ships of war anchored off the post of Vera Cruz, availing themselves of the circumstances that the Mexican authorities had given them access to the harbor of the town because they considered their presence was of a friendly character, disembarked yesterday with their arms and uniforms and possessed themselves by surprise of the principal public buildings without giving selves by surprise of the principal public buildings without giving time for the women and children in the streets, the sick and other non-combatants to place themselves in safety.

"This act was contrary to international usages. If these usages do not demand, as held by many states, a previous declaration of war, they impose at least the duty of not violating humane consideration or good faith by people whom the country which they are in has received as friends and who, therefore, should not take advantage of that circumstance to commit hostile acts.

"These acts of the armed forces of the United States I do not care to qualify in this note, out of deference to the fact that your honor personally has observed toward the Mexican government and people a most strictly correct conduct, so far as that has been possible to you in your character as the representative of a Government with which we have been in such serious difficulties as those exist.

"Regarding the initiation of war against Mexico, this ministry reserves to itself the right of presenting to other powers the events and considerations pertinent to this matter in order that they, as members of the concert of nations, may judge of the conduct of the two nations and adopt an attitude which they may deem proper in view of this deplorable outrage upon our nation's sovereignty.

"The President of the Republic of Mexico has seen fit to terminate, as I have the honor to communicate to your honor, the diplomatic mission, which your honor has until now discharged. You will have the goodness to retire from Mexican territory. To that end I enclose your passport, at the same time informing you that, as is the diplomatic custom on such occasions, a special train will be at your disposal with a guard sufficient to protect your honor, your family and your staff, although the Mexican people are sufficiently civilized to respect, even without this protection, your honor and those accompanying you.
