Walt McCredie shanghaled Pitcher Elmer Martinoni from the Portland Northwestern club a few days ago, Elmer having been left at home to nurse a sore arm, and yesterday Elmer signalized his re-entry into the Pacific Coast League by downing the San Francisco Seals, 4 to 3.

Co-operating with the slatlike Marty were Gunners Ryan, Derrick and Fisher of the Portland wrecking crew.

The famous "Home Run" Buddy gratified the ecstatic clattering of 3000 ladies' day fans by driving in Portland's first three runs. Fisher added the final thrills by belting out the winning hit in a sensational ninth-inning

Derrick's part in the victory was not so ubiquitous, but Fred inserted a couple of telling blows that counted in

Marty Tight in Pinches. Martinoni deserved to win his initial game, because he held the Seals to six scattered hits, as against 10 off Standridge. He was wild, passing six men, but in the pinches Marty was as tight as an Armenian pawnbroker. Under an acid test the correct score should have been 3-2 in Portland's favor.

Martinoni broke in with Oakland Both pit three years ago when Wolverton was stole hon boss there. His opponent, Standridge, is a graduate of the Western Canada Carlisle,1. is a graduate of the Western Canada Larlisle.1. Leard.2.1 Listonia.3.1 Li Now for details:

Portland got off to a 3-1 start ere one-third of the pastime had faded into the gloaming. But in the eighth the Seals tied the score and paved the way for the first termory. for the final tremors.

Derrick Singles and Steals.

In the first inning Derrick singled to left, stole second and rode home aboard Ryan's two-bagger against the right field fence.

The Seals tied this in the third on Fitzgerald's slow grounder to Rodgers, chalked down as a hit, followed by Schaller's single over second base. But Ryan's batting was not to be denied.

With one out he walked Mundorff. The Russian landed on second on Charles' grounder, and scored when Corhan drove a grounder, labeled too-hot-tohandle, through Bobby Davis.

Martinoni downed the Seals one-twothree in the state of the count, 3-2.

three, in the ninth, and set the stage for Portland's sensational rally. Kores, first up, belted his second hit of the day into left field. Lober laid down a beautiful bunt, sacrificing his apprentice runner. Bancroft, along. Davis put him on third with his infield out to Downs, and Fisher applied tvencer with a line drive into right.

Notes of the Game.

Martinoni showed symptoms of the need of an alarm clock in the third inning. Two Seals, Fitsgerald and Schaller, stole second while Marty was winding up.

Bobby Davis had X-ray specialists at work yesterday forenoon on a lame hip, and the treatment seemed to add several feet to his customary range. Bobby went is alocated in the third and threw him out at first.

Corhan complained bitterly against a foul ball ruling by Umpire Bush in the sixth. His grounder bounced either over the corner of the first bag or a few inches foul depending upon your partiteanship. At any rate it hit several inches foul after passing the bag and Bush doubtless was correct.

Fitzgerald's hit in the third was much of a scratch. It bounced too slowly to be handled by Rodgers in time. Fitzgerald scored on Schaller's bounce over second. Lober suffered from ill luck in the sixth when he drove a screaming liner directly late Corhan's glove.

has been a feature in all three contests. Monday and Tuesday it was poor pitching by the local heavers, while today it was the good work of Leonard which held the Iron Men in check.

But one time during the afternoon did the locals have a good healthy look-in upon a victory, but it was at this stage that Leonard tightened up his very best. Loose fielding by the home club also had a marked effect upon the score, while the only tally made by them was a gift by Leonard, being the result of a wild pitch.
