call in the very first inning and was made as welcome as a smallpex germ. It soared high and far over the right-field fence and no doubt will furnish considerable amusement to some kids nine the rest of its natural life.

Fitzgerald was more considerate of the magnates, for he drove his homer into the centerfield bleachers in the third inning. Ultimately that ball was recovered and put back into play, thereby saving $1,25 for the income tax.

Nobody was on the sacks either time, but it mattered not, for the Scalis' third but it mattered not, for the Scals' third run in the fifth proved the deciding issue. Schaller drove Fanning in with a single to right, after hits by Fanning and O'Leary.

First Baseman Charles' magnificent fielding and Portland's ineffective rally in the seventh were prime features of Bresnahan and Saier and two doubles the beautiful sunshing afternoon.

knocked down Ryan's drive, chased it several yards onto foul ground, and recovered in time to throw Buddy out to Fanning. Fanning put a "head" on the brilliancy by doubling Derrick at home plate in an eyelash decision. The man servant, the maid servant, the ox and the ass and 2000 wild-eyed bugs roared and fumed at Umpire Hayes decision, but the hoots were as dulcet symphonies to the aural apparatus of Herr Gerald.

Doane opened the sixth with a walk, and a single by Derrick and Rodgers' and a single by Derrick and Rodgers' sacrifice put men on second and third with only one out, and Ryan at bat. Such was the situation when Charles stabbed Ryan's drive and deployed with such dexterity as to force our Buddy, Did Bud Lonf? Charles Didn't.

Some say Buddy loafed going down but one thing sure. Charles did not Doane scored during the excitement.

Fisher's two-bagger in the seventh furnished the final consignment of tremors for local vertebrac. Walt Mc-Credie dug into the strategem satchel and sent Gus out to bat for Haworth, after Davis single and two outs. Gus scored Davis from first base, Brashear was thereupon designated as pinch hitter No. 2 and Fanning walked him.

but Row Nearly Precipitated.

The gill-net salmon season opens in the Willamette River today, and for a few days at least the rod fishermen do not expect to have much luck.

Many took advantage of the last day yesterday and the sport was the best of the week. It carried well through the day, but was at its best early and late.

The catches were not big, the largest averaging about 25 pounds. Smaller ones were numerous.

The sport was disturbed somewhat by a band of greedy gill netters, who continually ran their boat, dragging white-wrapped ropes over the fishing grounds. Their action nearly precipitated a riot.

SHIRT-TAILS

INTO DRAWERS

What good is a Shirt-tail anyway?

IN OLUS the outside shirt and underdrawers are one garment.

This means that the shirt can't work out of the trousers, that there are no shirt tails to bunch in seat, that the drawers "stay put," to say nothing of the comfort and economy of saving a garment.

OLUS is coat cut, opens all the way down—closed crotch, closed back. See illustration.

For golf, tennis and field wear, we recommend the special attached collar OLUS with regular or short sleeves. Extra sizes for very tall or stout men. All shirt fabrics, in smart designs, including silks—$1.50 to $10.00.

OLUS one-piece PAJAMAS for lounging, resting and comfortable along.

Last year Criger and McDorald proved a formidable battery for Tono.

Union Suits With Closed Crotch

Cost $1.00 to $5.00 Let your dealer advise you about the correct size of your Lewis Union Suit. When correctly fit-ted, there is no underwear so comfortable.

Yet here is the utmost in under-wear at $1.00 to $5.00. The illustration is full length leg and short sleeve. You can have full length leg and long sleeves or three quarter leg and short sleeve. This Spring needle knitting produces an elastic, light weight garment of surprising durability. It is a perpetual fit in spite of perspiration, frequent washing and the strain of summer exertion.

Lewis dealers show our famous Athletic Suit with closed crotch elastic back, at $1.00 to $5.00.
