PORT EXPORTS GAIN

April Wheat Cargo 313,508 Bushels More Than Year Ago.

FLOUR SHIPMENT GREATER

Lumber Also Shows Increase of 5, 354,696 Feet Compared With That Handled in Corresponding Month in 1913.

Wheat shipments from Portland last month exceeded those for April a year ago by 313.508 bushels, and there were 49,625 more barrels of flour exported than for the corresponding period in 1913. Lumber exports led by 5,354.695 feet.

During April, 1913, there was no exportation of wheat and 416,898 bushels went to California. Last month California received 598.897 bushels, Europe 213,086 bushels and British Columbia sayear ago totaled 31,771 barrels, while last month they were 72,296 barrels for California, 1,533 barrels for Oriental ports, 6759 barrels to South America, 1143 barrels for Ciental ports, 6759 barrels to South America, 1143 barrels to Europe and 830 barrels to British Columbia. For the season to date, 1,056,131 barrels of flour have been floated from here, as compared with 734,630 barrels during the 1812-13 period.

Puget Sound sent away 350,351 bushels of wheat, as compared with 541,332 bushels in April, 1913, and for the season to date is credited with 6,080,261 bushels, while Portland has dispatched ported in April, bringing the total for the season to $35,719 bushels.

Lumber exports for April reached 12,375,767 feet and were valued at $295,88t. During the corresponding period in 1913 lumber exports were 7,021,071 feet. Coastwise lumber shipments showed the effect of the decrease in the number of steam schooners employed, as 15,284,105 feet went south, against 23,141,000 feet a year ago.

Spar buoys removed by the tender Manzanita in the channel to the sea, as a means of preventing them being carried away during the Summer freshet, include the following, according to a report made to Henry L. Beck, inspector of the Seventeenth Lighthouse District: Cowlitz River buoy No. 1, Cottonwood Island Shoal buoy No. 1, Hunter's Shoal buoys Nos. 1, 2 and 4, Martin Island buoys 2 and 4, Henrici's Crossing buoys No. 2, and Nigger Tom Island buoys No. 2, and Nigger Tom Island buoys No. 1, Buoys found missing were those at Ladu Rock, Carr Slough buoy, Reeder's Crossing buoy No. 4, and Morgan Shoal buoy No. 2.

Buoys remaining in position of the Spar type are Pillar Rock Channel buoy No. 1, Skamokawa Bar buoy No. 1, Slaughter's Channel buoys 2 and 4, itunter's Shoal buoy H. S. and Warrior Rock Reef buoy No. 2.

Mr. Beck says that copies of the new buoy list covering aids to navigation in the Seventeenth Lighthouse District, corrected for January 1, 1914, have been received. The new light list, showing lighted aids on the Pacific Coast, along the coast of Canada and in the Hawaiian and Samoan Islands has been checked and will be distributed Willamette Falls for power purposes, so the War Department would not have full control of the stream, is the most important of several changes asked by the Atforney-General of the United States to the title of the Oregon City locks and canal. Papers in connection with this have been returned to Lieutenant-Colonel McKinstry, with instructions to negotiate a new instrument of transfer that will be satisfactory. The transfer of the locks and canal to the Government has been up for several years, but in February, 1912, an agreement was reached for the sale and preliminaries have occupied the time since.

All Used Pianos and Player Pianos To Be Closed Out at Once

Many Prominent Makes Included, at Prices That Are Lower Than We Have Ever Been Able to Offer Heretofore, for Fully Warranted and First-Class Instruments; Thus Affording the Public the Greatest Opportunity for Piano Buying Ever Known.

TACOMA FOLLOWS PORTLAND 130 Used Pianos to Be Sold, Regardless of Their Value-Sale Prices in Groups at $45, $95; Still More at $145, a Number at $195 and Some at $265.

This morning promptly at $:30 o'clock we commence a great clearance sale. Never before have circumstances made it possible to offer such a vast assortment of the world's best and most desirable instruments, including Uprights. Player Planos and Talking Machines.

For the past few weeks we have been organizing the Player Plano Purchasers' Club, whereby we Supply latest player planos on very easy terms, and at prices heretofore unheard of for ligh-grade player planos. We have been so successful in this undertaking that we have secured a large number of good, used planos, taken in as part payment on these beautiful little Bungalow Players offered on the P. P. P. Club plan. All of these instruments are in first-class condition, many of them nearly new.

These instruments have been tuned and regulated, and are now on display in our main salesroom. Such open cut in prices as we now make may disarrance the immediate future music trade here, but we feel obliged to make this sacrifice. In no other way can we hope to dispose of these instruments within the next ten days, at which time we desire to have all of these instruments sold. Space here will not permit us to enumerate all of the 130 planos on sale. However, we will enumerate a few of the attractive bargains offered, in groups, as follows?

GROUP "A" AT $45.

The oldest planos are to be found in this group. All of them are for sale at the uniform price of $45 aplece. Among them a Frisbee upright in ebony case, suitable for practice work; a Knabe old-style and Criterian old-style case. Thomas Goggan and several others. At this low price, $45 apiece, we feel we should get all cash and not be asked to put a time-payment contract for so small an amount on the books, but we will deliver to any part of the city, with stool to match, free of charge. GROUP "A" AT $45. GROUP "B" AT $95.

Should a more pretentious piano of still better tone quality be desired, then the pianos in Group "B," at $95, are available. There are many different makes, among them a Haines, a Hallett & Davis, a Beli, a Hamilton, a Dunbar, a Kohier & Campbell, an Evans Bros., a Hinze, a Schroeder, etc. They are all upright planos in good condition. We do not ask all cash for these. Payments of $8 cash and $4 a month buy them. Delivery free, stool included.

ROAD DECISION POSTPONED State Highway Commission Meets but

Does Not Award $175,000 Fund. SALEM, Or., April 30,-(Special.)-DESERTION ONLY CHARGE Just where to spend the $175,000 remaining of the state highway fund is a problem discussed by the State High-way Commission today. The original fund for the year was about $238,090. A proposition that the money remaining be divided among Jackson, Columbia and Clatsop counties, which have authorized bond issues for building roads, is opposed by representatives of other countles which may vote for issuing bonds this year. The Board decided to wait until bids had been opened for the work in Clat-

WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS

Southern Federation of Clubs Name Mrs. E. E. McKibbon President.

GRANTS PASS, Or., April 30 .- (Spe tal.)-The Southern Oregon Federa-Mrs. Biddle asks for the custody of their three children, Margaret, aged 15; on condition that their father be allowed to visit them at reasonable times. No property rights are mentioned in the complaint.

Since their marriage whenever they have been in Portland Captain and Mrs. Biddle have been prominent at select social affairs. Before their marriage Mrs. Biddle was Miss Margaret Burrell and has always been identified with Portland's smart set. She took an active part in all local horse shows and won several blue ribbons, both for her mounts and her horsemanship. She is a sister of Walter F. Burrell and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies.

Captain Biddle, at the time of his marriage, was a military attache of the American Embassy at Berlin, and took his bridde with him to his post. They returned to Portland a few years later, where they have lived since, Captain Biddle having resigned his commission in the Army.

Though Portland has always been her home, Mrs. Biddle has traveled extensively, both before and after her marriage. For the pest several years she has maintained a home at Seaside, where she is living at present, with her tion of Women's Clubs adjourned at noon today. The election of officers
