was filed yesterday by Mrs. Anna L. McFarland against the Oregon Electric Rallway Company. At the time of his death the boy was 19 years old, the complaint states, and had an expectancy of 42 years. The suit was filed by Attorney Lotus L. Langley.

Young McFarland was inexperienced in the use and dangers of electricity, the complaint alleges, but met his death while working on wires carrying 50,000 volts of electricity. The company was careless and responsible charges, in failing to properly protect the wires and warn him of danger. Dewitt Berry, another young man, was killed at the same time.
