before the Council, are not proper. He says they have been drawn adroitly in some respects, and, instead of opening the way to more extensive competitive bidding, will have just the opposite of feet.

"I do not wish to intimate that Mr. Dieck has allowed these adroit provisions to get into the specifications," said Mr. Day. "I believe he is innocent, But I believe that his advisors are responsible for the things which do not look right to us."

The most important proposal is the recommendation of City Attorney LaFoche that the city require the holders and no advertisement is not run in consensual with the city to allow all companies to use the patents upon payment of an established royalty to be the same to all companies.
