IMPEACHMENT TALK DIES

Indications Are for Speedy and Unanimous Action in Paying Bills Due to Strike Zone Military Work—Questions in Doubt.

Favored speedy action in providing payment of the bills incurred during the military occupation of the strike districts by the militia. This, it appeared, would likely be the first task undertaken.

On the other questions in the call the committee did not seem to be so well crystallized. These included a law submitting to the people at the next election a constitutional amendment to empower the Legislature to enact a compulsory arbitration law; to establish a state constabulary, to give the Governor authority to close saloons and to regulate and prohibit the sale, lease or purchase of firearms and ammunition, except by proper authorities, in times of internal disorder.

The address of Governor Ammons to the joint session followed closely the topics in the call, the executive amplifying his reasons for asking such enactments. Last night the Governor was compelled to abandon the idea of preparing a formal message by reason of physical and nervous exhaustion.

It seemed probable tonight that bills covering the payment of the militia would be introduced tomorrow with possibility that other measures mentioned in the call might also be offered.

The appearance of Governor Ammons, worn and haggard, leaning on the arm of Representative Lee, was greeted with applause.

Members, ladies and gentlemen, said the Governor in opening, "you have been called in this session to meet a very grave emergency in the history of the state."

"Our state hangs in the balance," he said, "and I have called you to help solve the question."

The Governor gave a history of the strike, telling how he had used every means possible to avert sending the militia to the coal fields, but said that after a number of lives had been lost, considerable property destroyed and a battle was imminent, he was compelled to call out the troops.

A petition requesting that a proposal for state-wide prohibition be placed on the ballot next November was presented to the Secretary of State late today. Secretary Pearce rejected the petition on the ground that it was not in proper legal form, inasmuch as it did not conform to the provisions of the laws enacted a year ago.

Mr. White said the Colorado situation was not touched upon.

FARM WORK AID BASIS

Effort to Make Demonstration Appropriation Large Enough to Prohibit Contributions Causes Heated Debate.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—A determined fight was launched in the Senate today to prevent the Government from accepting money from John D. Rockefeller to aid in farm demonstration and boll weevil extermination work.

The debate was on an amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill, which was pending when the Senate adjourned for the day. The amendment proposed an appropriation of $600,000, double the amount provided in the House bill for farm demonstration and boll weevil work, with a clause prohibiting contributions to the fund by individuals or corporations.

Senator Kenyon insisted that the Federal Government had no right to go into a partnership with Rockefeller.

Mr. Steinhart would not venture to say that the apple prices were going to be, but stated that he would be on hand to buy a good share of the Northwestern crop in August again, when he makes his annual trip to the Coast.

APPLE MARKET SLUMPS

NEW YORK BUYING YELLOW NEW-TOWNS AT $1.50 WHOLESALE.

NEW YORK, May 4.—(Special.)—For a month past the apple market has been on a decided slump in New York, partly due to the competition of oranges.

All the Spitzenbergers that are now in cold storage at New York are contained in 15,000 boxes held by Steinhart and Kelly from Cashmere, Wash. J. H. Steinhart, who is the largest buyer of Northwest apples in New York, whom H. F. Davidson, of Hood River, recently named as the greatest booster of the Northwest box apples has, tore open a box of these Spitzenbergers to show the Oregonian correspondent by the senses of feeling, seeing and tasting that they were just as fresh as when they were picked from the trees last October.
