

REPUBLICAN VICTORY PREDICTED AT RALLY

Next Governor and United States Senator Will Not Be Democrats, Say Speakers.

SIX ASPIRANTS MAKE TALKS

Economy in State and Consolidation and Abolishment of Useless Boards Are Promised by Candidates at Salem.

SALEM, Ore., May 4.—(Special.)—That the next Governor and next United States Senator elected in this state would be Republicans was the keynote of addresses made by six aspirants for the Republican nomination for Governor, who spoke at a meeting here tonight under the auspices of the Salem Republican Club.

The message met with a hearty response from an audience of more than 1200, which crowded the Armory and enthusiastically cheered the speakers.

All aspirants for the gubernatorial nomination but George C. Brownell, of Oregon City, and Attorney-General Crawford, admitted the invitation to the club to deliver addresses. Mr. Crawford was represented by J. L. Stockton, a merchant of Salem, and Mr. Brownell sent a message that he had intended attending the meeting, but was unexpectedly called to Portland.

All the speakers promised, if elected, they would see that the public expense was cut by the consolidation and abolishment of useless boards and commissions. All of them emphasized the fact that the campaign has thus far been free from bitterness and the promise of all, no matter who won the nomination, to give him their cordial support.

Tax Increase Enormous, Says Mr. Geer.
T. T. Geer, ex-Governor, the first speaker, declared that something was wrong in the state for since he left the Governorship, 12 years ago, the taxes per capita had increased from $3 to $9. He said the increase was too large and that if he were elected he would see that the expenses were reduced.

Guo C. Moser, of Portland, a member of the State Senate, declared that the present National Democratic Administration would be succeeded by a Republican one. He said it was a fact that had been proved that the country prospered more under Republican rule than under Democratic rule, which was the reason that the Democrats had been in control nationally only three times since the Civil War.

Mr. Moser said there was no question in his mind but that the Republican nominees for Governor and United States Senator would be elected. He lauded the people of Salem for electing a Republican and declared that the audience was the largest that had greeted the aspirants for the Republican nomination when a number had spoken at the same time.

C. A. Johns Will Stand for Pledges.
Charles A. Johns, of Portland, said he was not seeking to be Governor for the salary of the office. He pointed to his record in the Oregon House and School Board of Baker and as County Judge of Polk County. He declared that his platform pointed out definitely what he intended doing if elected and that the people would find him true to his promise.

S. Dimick, of Oregon City, said he would eliminate and consolidate various boards and commissions. He was especially severe in his condemnation of the large expenditure of money by the State Fish and Game Commission. Mr. Dimick urged the passage of laws that would aid in building roads and the general upbuilding of the state.

Favors Law Enforcement.
W. A. Carter said he favored semi-annual tax collections. He said he would recommend a law making such provision to the Legislature. He favored the enforcement of the laws and if elected said he would see that they were enforced.

James Withcombe declared that his experience of 14 years at the Oregon Agricultural College would be of benefit to him as Governor. He declared as he said had been charged, that the experience might tend to cause him to be extravagant with the state's money. On the contrary, it would cause him to be all the more economical, for he had never drawn a large salary.

WOMAN IS COMMITTED

MRS. GOULDING SENT TO ASYLUM FROM MEDFORD.

Plea Made to Relatives to Procure Release, but Authorities Think Treatment is Necessary.

MEDFORD, Ore., May 4.—(Special.)—Mrs. Rosalie Goulding, who was taken from a Southern Pacific train Saturday night, was sent to Salem today in charge of a matron from the State Insane Asylum.

Mrs. Goulding appeared fairly rational today and telegraphed her sister and brother in Sacramento, Calif., urging them to procure her release, but the authorities decided that her mind was unbalanced and that she should not be allowed at large.

Mrs. Goulding said she was on her way to Portland where she was to meet her son and return with him to her home in San Francisco, but she could not remember her son's name or where he lived, and when questioned became excited and violent.

It is believed that a recent illness is responsible for the woman's mental breakdown and that with rest and treatment she may recover sufficiently to return to her relatives in California.

ARMS SURRENDER IS ISSUE

Arrival of Troops' Commander Expected to Hurry Dealing.

TRINIDAD, Colo., May 4.—Major W. A. Holbrook said tonight that Colonel

James Lockett, commanding the Eleventh United States Cavalry, would reach Trinidad at 7:30 tomorrow morning to take supreme command of the Federal forces in Colorado. The officers and men of the Eleventh, traveling in seven trains, are expected to begin arriving shortly after their commander.

With the arrival of the reinforcements, it is expected that the negotiations for a surrender of arms by all parties will be pushed to a conclusion. Already the guards of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company at the Walsen and Rouse mines in Huerfano County, have turned over their guns to the soldiers who were stationed to guard the mines.

Representatives of both the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company and the Victor-American Fuel Company have expressed the policy of furnishing guards to the paymasters of both strikers and mine operators. The Colorado Fuel & Iron Company paymaster went to Sopris under a Federal guard, in similar fashion the miners distributed strike benefits at various points in the Segundo neighborhood.

"If I Could Have Got to Him I Would Have Shot Him Down Like a Dog."

Said to Have Been Uttered.

NEW YORK, May 4.—"Yesterday I was at the office of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and if I could have got to him I would have shot him down like a dog."

In these words, Marie Ganz voiced her protest against Mr. Rockefeller, according to the testimony of Irving E. Rittiger, a police stenographer, at the trial of Miss Ganz today on a charge of shooting at John D. Rockefeller last week after she had made several fruitless attempts to see Rockefeller in connection with the Colorado strike and had addressed open-air meetings.

Rittiger testified to two other alleged "snippets" from the defendant's speeches. One was:

"If he is not going to stop the slaughter in Colorado, he can run to his father's house and live, because at the first chance I will get him with a bullet."

The other was:

"Do not make your protestations in kind words or in language. Use dynamite."

Several detectives testified for the prosecution, and adjournment was taken until tomorrow afternoon. If found guilty, Miss Ganz will be liable to a maximum penalty of six months in the workhouse.

Not many blocks from the court Miss Ganz, before being arraigned, addressed a gathering, who listened to her protest against Mr. Rockefeller, who is in seclusion at the Rockefeller Ponceville Hills estate, in West Chester County.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 4.—(Special.)—Tomorrow the problem of extending the north jetty at the entrance of Grays Harbor by 5500 will come before the Senate rivers and harbors committee and interest here is intense.

It is felt that the future of Grays Harbor as a shipping center depends on favorable action by the Senate committee. If successful, it is probable that a big celebration will be held here. W. B. Mack, Hugh Delanty and Frank Lamb, Grays Harbor's representatives in the fight for jetty extension, have been in conference with the Board of Engineers and members of the Oregon and Washington Congressmen's delegations since their arrival in Washington Thursday. Three hours will be allowed tomorrow for the hearing.

Word from Washington telling what action will be taken is expected to reach here tomorrow.

MARKET DECISION MADE

City Attorney's Office Denies City Block Dedicated for Special Use.

General denial that the market block site, block 132, which has been selected as the location for the new auditorium, has been dedicated exclusively for market purposes is made by City Attorney L. J. Roche in an answer filed yesterday to the injunction suit brought by Gordon Lamb, J. K. Widner, M. F. McLean, J. W. Lindsey, J. E. Lepper and Otto A. Samson. Deputy City Attorneys Myers and Latourette joined with Attorney LaRoche in preparing the long answer, which recited the history of the property since it was settled on in 1844. It has been tried as a market site, the answer states, but has failed at each trial because it is inaccessible to the market gardens and producers and inconvenient to patrons.

The site has been used for other purposes, it is charged in the answer, for the Oregon and Washington Congressmen's delegations since their arrival in Washington Thursday. Three hours will be allowed tomorrow for the hearing.

Word from Washington telling what action will be taken is expected to reach here tomorrow.

The full list of candidates for county offices is as follows: Clerk, E. M. Smith, Republican; Assessor, B. Robinson, Republican; Treasurer, H. Dunmore, Republican; Fred J. Holman, Republican; John Richter, Democrat; Surveyor, Sanford B. Taylor, Democrat; Edward J. Himes, Democrat; Fred Butler, Democrat; A. L. Haines, Republican; G. Canfield, Republican; Sheriff, John Orr, Republican; Henry Saverly, Democrat; F. Morrison, Democrat; W. J. White, Democrat. Representative from Polk County, Thomas W. Brunk, Democrat. It will be necessary to write Mr. Grier's name in on the ballot.

No candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor has gained any well-defined strength here as yet. The majority of the Republicans in this county are without definite choice of candidates, and there seems to be a feeling prevailing here that they should vote for the man who prior to the primaries develops the most strength, and who seems reasonably assured of election.

The county work is the interests of Robert A. Booth is going on continually. It is firmly believed here that Mr. Booth will have no difficulty whatever in rolling up a large majority in this county in the general election over Chamberlain.
