

QUEEN ROSE WILL RIDE WITHOUT REX

Male Consort of Festivals of Previous Years Is Abandoned by Board.

HAZEL HOYT LEADS RACE

Over 20,000 Votes Now Separate Honor Contestant and Tenth in List—New Decision Expected to Whet Competition.

Rex Oregonus is no more. Queen Rose will be the reigning sovereign during the 1914 Rose Festival, and will reign alone, instead of jointly with Rex Oregonus, as previously announced. At a meeting of the festival board of governors Wednesday afternoon, after lengthy discussion, this change was made.

"The king is dead, long live the queen," said President C. C. Cox at the close of the meeting. "Owing to the fact that the queen is to be selected by popular vote, and because the king at previous festivals has been selected by individuals and necessarily would have to be so elected at this late date, the board of governors deem it entirely the right thing that the Queen of Hrosaria be given the scepter of royal power, and that she should reign alone. We hope this arrangement will please the Portland public, which is now helping in the selection of the queen."

No Change in Parade Made. There will be no change in the plans or preparations for the magnificent marine pageant, which will serve as the royal escort for the Queen of Hrosaria upon her arrival at the city's gates on the opening day of the festival, Tuesday, June 9. The only change will be that upon her exclusive will be showered the sovereign honors and homage that would otherwise be divided between the royal pair.

"Human Rosebud" Parade Planned. The board of governors, at the suggestion of Director W. F. Woodward, also decided to promote a direct appeal to the parents of the children in the public schools to assist in arousing interest in the "Human Rosebud" parade, which is to be the central feature of the celebration on the East Side. Director Woodward desires to assure all parents that the objections made in former years will be entirely obviated this year.

"The parade will be an extremely smart one, scarcely more than half a mile in length, held after the meeting yesterday. This will do away with the objection that has been made about the youngsters wearing themselves out with exhaustive marching. Arrangements for the most systematic handling of the little children possible, both to the point of starting and from the point of dispersal also have been completed.

"We must have the parents' support if we are to accomplish anything, and the time is getting very short, scarcely more than a month now elapsing before the festival will be upon us."

Oregon Political Gossip

CHARLES A. JOHNS returned from Salem on Tuesday to devote the remainder of his campaign for the Republican nomination for Governor to work in Portland and vicinity. Mr. Johns spoke last night at a Republican rally in Gresham. He also made a talk at the political rally for gubernatorial candidates at Salem Monday night.

At a meeting of the Young Men's Political Club in the Selling-Hirsch building Tuesday night, the candidacy of W. Hobit, candidate for the Republican nomination for County Commissioner, was endorsed. W. R. Singletary, president of the club, urged its members to take part in the primary and to interest other young men in politics.

INSURGENTS WIN WOODMEN BATTLE

Forces Led by Head Consul Talbot at Hastings, Neb., Bolt Convention.

REGULARS LOSE IN IOWA

Figures Given Out at Head Camp Offices Claim 220 Out of 334 to Administration, but Opposition Denies Defeat.

HASTINGS, Neb., May 7.—Administration forces of the Modern Woodmen of America, with Head Consul Talbot of Lincoln, in personal command, were defeated last night on a test-vote at the insurgent camp at Hastings, Neb. The insurgent forces, headed by Thomas S. Allen, of Lincoln, bolted the convention and announced their intention of holding a separate convention and electing a contesting delegation.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., May 7.—The Modern Woodmen of America held their state convention here today, and the insurgent faction won over the regulars with a large majority.

FEW TITTERS; MANY TEES IN AL JOLSON'S GOLFING

"Ailing" Comedian of "The Honeymoon Express" Stricken by Spring Fever, Seeks Solace at Tualatin Links and Walls of Birds and Flowers.

BY LEONE CARL BAER. SICK and ailing and far from strong is Al Jolson. I found him talking about it yesterday afternoon when I dashed into his dressing-room for a two-minute chat before the "The Honeymoon Express." Oh yes, he's able to sit up and notice folks and all that, and hold down his job as chief entertainer of a big show, and he eats lots and often stays up awfully late and does a lot of things that folks who never do them say are bad for us, but just the same he is a sick man.

He wasn't pale—because he was in black-face, but he assured me that no one ever lived and suffered as he is suffering? Dye know what he has? Why a terribly acute attack of Spring fever.

Like Thief in the Night, It Comes. It came upon him suddenly—just coaxed itself under his skin with that first glorious sunny day when he landed in our midst. He wants to go fishing, and he longs for the woods and even says he is nourishing a girlish wish to pick wild flowers and carry them into a breath. He's dippy about a bird song and sentimental to driving idly over a waltz of perfume.

Comedian Likes Portland. He feels so kindly toward Portland, does this young comedian, because it is the first place in the vaudeville world that ever considered him of sufficient merit to hold over a second week. It was at the Empress in 1904, and acts were seldom retained for a two-week engagement.

The New Baby is World's Wonder

Every tiny infant makes life's perspective wider and brighter. And what ever there is to enhance its arrival and to ease and comfort the expectant mother should be given attention. Among the real helpful things is an external abdominal application known as "Mother's Friend." It is so well thought of by women that most drug stores throughout the United States carry "Mother's Friend" as one of their staple and reliable remedies.

In a little book are described more fully the many reasons why "Mother's Friend" has been a friend indeed to women for more than two generations. This book was prepared not only to advise the inexperienced but to enable so many women to have at hand the timely hints, suggestions and helps in concise and neatly printed form for ready reference. It should be in all homes. "Mother's Friend" may be had of almost any drug-gist but if you fail to find it write us direct and also write for book to Bradford-Regulator Co., 303 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Georgia.

but appendicitis, like time, waits for no man—or woman. "Mrs. Jolson a professional" I queried. "She is not and doesn't like actors. Only her sense of humor permitted her to accept me," said Mrs. Jolson's husband. "Are you Alfred or Allison or Almer?" "I'm Albert," said the minstrel one.

"Albert" Unamusable Barrier. "Think of starting life as a gay young comedian with the name of Albert! Take it from one who has tried it, it can't be done. The climb to fame and the struggle to get into condition where one's contract calls for a weekly salary that looks good to him is difficult enough without such a handicap. "I dropped 'Albert' when I grew old enough to appreciate what I was doing up against it. When I ran away from home I needed everything possible in my favor and 'Albert' was not an asset. For a sweet singing tenor it may be all right, but for a comedian it is a liability. So I call myself plain Al Jolson.

HAITI PAYS INDEMNITY

British Ultimatum Results in Payment of $62,000.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, May 7.—The National Bank last night advanced to the Haytian government $62,000, the amount of the indemnity claimed by Mr. Peters, a British subject, whose sawmill had been destroyed by fire in the Leonora revolution. The payment had been demanded yesterday in an ultimatum from the British diplomatic representative. The incident is regarded as closed.

Constitution had been caused in the capital by the British ultimatum, whose terms limited the British ultimatum, whose terms limited the British ultimatum, whose terms limited the British ultimatum.

VERA CRUZ, May 7.—Citizens' committees have induced the majority of the meat dealers to agree to the restoration of the prices prevailing before the American occupation and are making similar arrangements with other dealers.

G. F. BAER'S WILL IS FILED

Late Railroad Chief Leaves Estate of $5,000,000 to $15,000,000.

READING, Pa., May 7.—The will of George F. Baer, late president of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway Company, was filed yesterday. The estate was bequeathed to his widow, five daughters and several grandchildren. The latter will receive $10,000 each.

"Why," he said, "like most actors and actresses tell the press they intend to go. I'll not have the whole upper deck of the steamer and will not rent one entire floor of the biggest hotels in London and Paris and I'm not going to motor through France and Switzerland. I'm going to take my only and regular wife—by the way that name little girl is just recuperating from appendicitis operation in San Francisco just now and will join me in Chicago in about a month. She wanted so much to make this part of the trip with me."
