Mss. Royse Nor Paid Yer.—On recommendation of Deputy District Attorney Pierce, the County Commissioners ruled yesterday that they would not appropriate any sum for settlement of the claim of Mrs. H. M. Royse, who asked $250 for injuries resulting when water was thrown on her from one of the windows of the Courthouse. She advised the Commissioners several days ago that her clothes and hat were ruined and that she contracted a severe cold as a result of the drenching. The matter was referred to the District Attorney's office for investigation. Deputy Pierce reported back that Courthouse employes who had seen Mrs. Royse immediately after the accident reported that she was only sprinkled, presumably from water thrown from a flower vase, and not with dirty soapy water, as Mrs. Royse charged.

J. L. Hartman, manager of the Portland Clearing-House and secretary of the State Bankers' Association; Lydell Baker, editor of the Pacific Banker, and George B. Frost, of the Dun Mercantile Agency, will deliver addresses. The meeting today will elect officers and select delegates to the annual conference of the State Bankers' Association at Medford next month.

Solo "Tho' Love Be Blind" is beautifully rendered.

J. Let come Holzman is the court poet, attired in white fiannels, with his clear tenor voice and romantic airs, his part is a success. He makes rhymes about everything from the flowers of Spring to a raging bull.

Comedy is cleverly woven into the part presented by Wesley Beharrel, who is Tobbytum. He has some good work to do and he does it. In the trio with the Ladies Araminta and Arabella played by Lexy Graham and Elsie Moon there is much merriment introduced. "The Peculiar Frame of Mind" is one of the lits of the show. Baker, editor of the Pacific Banker, and George B. Frost, of the Dun Mercantile Agency, will deliver addresses. The meeting today will elect officers and select delegates to the annual conference of the State Bankers' Association at Medford next month.

at Police Headquarters With Officers as Witnesses.

Paul W. Calvin, 24, and Myrile June Balley, 16, were married at noon yes-terday by Municipal Judge John Ste-venson, in his chambers at police head-quarters. Deputy Municipal Court Clerk Crounse and Miss Wilma Pearl Chandler were the attending witnesses. Miss Balley, who is the daughter of Mrs. H. L. Banker, of Houlton, Or., came to Portland several months ago, and met Calvin.

Love came at first sight, and they be Love came at first sight, and they became engaged, and were to be married May 29 at Vancouver, Wash. But in the meantime their courtship was interrupted by an investigation by the Municipal Department for the Protection of Women, and the romance was frowned upon by the authorities, as well as the mother of the young bride. But when Judge Stevenson heard of the affair, and by talking with both, found that they were deeply in love, he proposed a wedding, immediately. Probation Officer Inskeep hurried up town and bought an elaborately engraven marriage certificate. There
