LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 12.—(Special.)—"Doc" White beat Harry Krause in today's battle of portsiders and did it with vastly poorer support than the Beaver man received, the count ending Venice 3, Portland 2.

White had many obstacles in the way of rotten fielding to dishearten, Litschi being the principal offender.

Krause, on the other hand, received just about perfect support. Twice he allowed Venice to bunch three hits an inning and once two safeties gave the Tigers a run. These bunches are what beat him and nothing else.

Portland Scores First.

Portland was the first to score. Bancroft worked himself in front of an inshoot in the first frame and took first. Derrick's single sent him to third, from where he scored when Leard grabbed Doane's grounder with one hand, rolled over and crawled to second just in time to force Derrick. Jack Bliss singled in the Tigers' half of the third, took third on two outs and Leard's sharp single to center scored him with the tieing run.

In the next frame the Tigers forged ahead by getting their first group of three hits. Bayless started with a single, but Fisher caught him asleep off first. Litschi and Borton beat out bunts, Litschi legging it to third on Borton's whack. McArdle bunted slowly down the first base line and was out to Derrick, but Litschi got in on the play and Borton to second, where he was left.

From here to the ninth brilliant fielding alone saved White, both Bayless and Carlisle making hair-raising throws and cutting men off at the plate. Starting the ninth, Ryan put the ball against the left field fence for a triple, but was held there when Leard fumbled Kores' grounder. Roy Brashear, looking as good as ever, was sent in to do the pinch act for Lober and did it by flying out to Carlisle, allowing Ryan to score.

Kores Caught at Home.

After this Fisher singled and Krause walked, filling the bases, but Bancroft's best effort was to fly to Carlisle. Kores tore for the plate but Carlisle's throw beat him 10 feet. Bayless singled in the ninth, was forced by Litschi, who took third on McDonnell's safe drive to right and scored on Bliss' single to center. Score:

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 12.—Long Tom Hughes pitched Los Angeles to a 4-to-3 victory in the opening game of the series with the Sacramento Wolves today, and played a big part in more than pitching by driving in two runs.

Johnson put one over the right field fence in the fifth, and Tennant made a home run inside the grounds in the seventh, when his long, low drive bounded high over Maggert's head and rolled to the center field fence. Score:

BOXERS FAIL TO LAND HITS

Political Talks by Aspirants Feature of Club Smoker.

The "Made in Oregon" Club staged a smoker Monday night at the Hawthorne Club. The redeeming features were political speeches by some of the aspirants. They were just about the right length, too, for the speaker just barely got started between rounds when the bell would ring and cut him off.

As for the programme, it was made up of inexperienced boxers, some of whom had agreed beforehand not to hit each other. Others had no such agreement, but did not hit anyway. The summary:

Wrestling—135 pounds, Frielinger, Multnomah, draw with Helton, Multnomah; 150 pounds, Hanson, draw with Segelman.

Boxing—75 pounds, Oliver, Hawthorne Club, draw with Phillips, Multnomah; 100 pounds, Abe Gerden, Newsboys, decision over Hendler, unattached; 120 pounds, Taylor, Armory, lost to Calhoun, Artetas; 125 pounds, Sommerville, car barns, decision over Pollen, unattached; 135 pounds, Daston, Hawthorne, lost to Wood, unattached; 145 pounds, Sutherland, Woodlawn, decision over Eaton, Sellwood, second round; 135 pounds, Smith, Savier, decision over Salveson, Hawthorne.

MAC GETS TWIRLER

New Orleans Pitcher Now Comes to Rescue.

SOUTHPAW IS LIKE WHITE

"We Will Start to Climb Toward Top Soon," Says Manager McCredie, Who Welcomes Brennigan and Others to Beaver Fold.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 12.—(Special.)—Walter McCredie, manager of the Portland club, added more strength to his ball club today by purchasing Pitcher Evans from the New Orleans club in the Southern Association.

Evans is a left-hander, built like "Doc" White, according to McCredie. He played with the tailend New Orleans club last season, but made a good record. He has been pitching about four years, starting out in the Texas League.

Catcher Brennigan arrived in Los Angeles today and joined the Beavers. He played in every game for his team in the Virginia League last season, catching most of the time and filling in at first other times. Elmer Reiger will arrive from St. Paul tonight.

Catcher Yantz, who bucked at coming to the Coast a short time ago, has notified McCredie that he will be here soon.

With Larry Pape, another new pitcher, on the job, McCredie has strengthened his team wonderfully since he arrived in Los Angeles.

"We will start to climb toward the top soon," said McCredie, "and none of the other clubs will be able to stop us. When all of my men join the team I will have the strongest squad in the Coast League.

"All of my young pitchers will be sent to Nick Williams' Northwestern League team for more seasoning."

CITY TENNIS COURTS PLANNED

West End of Washington Park Site for Seven Municipal Grounds.

Seven municipally-owned and operated tennis courts of excellent construction are to be built at once at the terraces in the west end of Washington Park. Arrangements for the work were completed yesterday by the city park department.

The courts will be of the regulation size, 55 by 110 feet, and will be fitted with the best of backstops and other features. For the present season the grounds will be rolled. Next Fall it is proposed to construct the courts of concrete. The grounds will be free to the public. They will be cared for by the city.

Their construction will be the first part of a general plan to establish public tennis courts and baseball grounds.

MISS LANGENOR IN PORTLAND

Pretty California Girl Tells of Plan to Swim English Channel.

Miss Hazel Bess Langenor, pretty little San Francisco miss, who sprang into prominence in August, 1911, by swimming across San Francisco Bay at the Golden Gate, was a Portland visitor yesterday, en route home from a Seattle visit.

Miss Langenor will leave within a few weeks for England for an attempt on the English Channel.

"I have my charts and data all prepared," she said yesterday. "I figure my trip across the 21 miles will consume about 18 hours and I know I can stand it, for I remained 16 hours in the surf at Pacific Grove without ill effects."

SANDWICH, Eng., May 12.—Entries for the British amateur golf championship, the first round of which will be played next Monday, reached a total of 242 tonight, and it is possible that additional entries may arrive tomorrow. BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

After Portland had deliriously pounded out a four-run lead over the Victoria Bees yesterday "Big Chief" Battiste exploded violently and the Bees ran so many around the bases in the fourth inning that the 200 fans became dizzy. Six runs in that frame gave Victoria the game.

Score, 6 to 4.

Both managers used two twirlers, Williams because he had to and Delmas because he wanted to.

Bromley, of the Colts, relieved Battiste in the fourth just in time to walk a couple and allow another to single, but, as two men were on the bags at the time, the Sioux gets the discredit in the pitching statistics.

The Chico southpaw also furnished the unique spectacle of uncoiling a palpable balk with the bases full, sending across the tying run.

Pope Lasts Three Innings.

For the Bees, Pope lasted three innings, during which occupancy Portland amassed its four runs and then Bert Delmas dispatched McKenry to the rescue. McKenry allowed only two hits from that to the close.

Bromley, too, twirled brilliantly after getting through the rough waters in the fourth. That fourth, however, was a gem and without further ado let us to it.

With four runs on the credit side and everything looking rosy for a Colt victory Battiste began by hurling Zimmerman's tiny tap high over Williams' cranium, putting Hine on second. Wilhoit singled, scoring Zim and went to second on a wild pitch. Delmas walked.

Catcher Murray tried to nab Wilhoit and threw in the general direction of the scoreboard. Milligan added to the fun by letting the ball go through his legs and both runners scored. Brooks and Scanlon grounded out and everybody breathed easier, little dreaming what was in store.

Carney's Drive Hot One.

Carney drove a single through Battiste and Pope singled past short. Exit the Sioux in favor of Bromley. Lamb, batting for Netzel, walked, filling the bases. Such was the situation when Murray remembered to ask Bromley concerning the health of the folks at home and whether he agreed with Wilson's Mexican policy.

Anyway, it was something like that, for Bromley quit in the midst of his motion and Carney trotted homeward with the tying run. Bromley promptly filled the bases again by walking Crum, and Zimmerman's single scored two more, putting the matinee on ice.

Terry McKune was Portland's batting hero with three hits. Guigni scored him in the first inning after a helping hit by Callahan. Battiste drove two more across in the second after a dead ball and Carney's wild heave to first. Callahan's double and Melchior's single added the final to the portfolio in the fourth inning.

Notes of the Game.

Portland seems to have a vise-like monopoly on the cellar in both leagues. Victoria has taken two straight, giving the Colts only two wins in the last eight games.

Bobby Coltrin performed in his usual sterling fashion.

Salveson likely will be used today, as Nick Williams wants a good look at him. Driscoll likely will go for the Bees.

Fielder Jones has promulgated a new rule regarding umpire baiting. Hereafter the umps will have authority to fine for sass.

Both umpires worked satisfactorily yesterday.

Weather perfect.

Hausman delivered a pinch hit in the ninth.

At North Yakima—Walla Walla 4, North Yakima 2.
At Baker—Pendleton 5, Baker 1.

Relative positions of the Western Tri-State League teams were unchanged by the games yesterday, the first of the sixth week of the league. Pendleton, now topping the others, won an easy game from Baker, 5 to 1, while Walla Walla took a hard one from North Yakima, 4 to 3. Only a ninth-inning rally saved the Bears, the Braves having led, 3 to 1, to the last.

Up to the ninth the Bears had secured but four hits. In the ninth they fell on Kile, and two errors assisted in putting four across. Jackson and Rees both connected. Johnson and Childers went out at first, but Jackson scored. Schmidt's double and Lundstrom's single followed, putting Rees and Schmidt over, and Lundstrom scored on Krause's error. With errorless support it would have been Kile's game and he deserved to win. The score:

Costly bobbles marred the Pendleton-Baker game. Meili and Daly engaged in a pitching duel from the start. No scores came in for four innings, but in the fifth, with two down and two on by misplays, Daly connected with a two-bagger, scoring the two ahead. The Bucks got two more in the seventh on two hits and two errors. Pendleton got her final score in the eighth off hits by J. Coen and McKean. Baker secured her lone score in the sixth inning, a walk and errors on the part of Coen brothers letting one run cross
