LOS ANGELES, May 15.—(Special.)—Elmer Reiger did the trick. McCredie said before today's game that he believed the St. Paul man should be able to turn the tide, and his guess was correct. Not only did Reiger win, but he practically stood the hard hitting Tiger bunch on their heads, bent their backs, and made them sprain many tendons in their frantic efforts to land on his elusive shoots, and save the disgrace of a shutout.

But it was all in vain, the final count reading 2 to 0 in favor of Portland.

This Reiger person is sure some pitcher, and is bound to fill a big gap in the Portland lineup. Built on the lines of a piano mover, his speed is terrific, control superfine and his "beam" seems to be on an even keel at any and all stages of the game.

Bobby Davis Shares Honor.

Hap Hogan's wildest gyrations didn't have any more effect on Reiger than a Summer shower on a rhinoceros. One of the most pleasing features of the game was the broad smile on McCredie's face as he watched his latest find mow the Tigers down. By actual count, it is affirmed that Mac sat still on the Beaver bench for two minutes at one stretch. This is something he hasn't done before in years.

But still all of the credit for today's victory doesn't go to Reiger. Bobby Davis and his bat had a share and a big share in it. There was just once during the nine innings that each team had a chance to score. The Beavers' chance came in the fourth and they grabbed it. At first it didn't look like it, for two were down when Bill Rodgers singled. He then performed the unusual feat of stealing both second and third, aided by a passed ball, but under the scoring rules Bill gets his credits just the same. Lober was passed and he, too, promptly pilfered second. This was the situation when Bobbie ambled up. He looked over a couple of Fleharty's best ones, and then cracked the next one into deep right center for a single, scoring both Rodgers and Lober. This was positively all in the run-getting line.

Derrick Makes Record.

The Tigers' chance came in the first frame when Leard doubled, but Reiger then gave a beautiful imitation of how not to be charitable, and Leard's mates died of anti-battitis. Not an error was made on either side.

It is believed Derrick made a world's record in putouts today with 21. The rule book gives Jiggs Donahue credit for 23 "chances," but it doesn't specify whether these were all putouts. Derrick's "chances" were all putouts.

EHMKE WINS ANOTHER, 7-0

Los Angeles Schoolboy Lets Sacramento Down With 3 Hits.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 15.—Howard Ehmke, Los Angeles schoolboy, won his fifth straight game as a Los Angeles Coast Leaguer today, letting Sacramento down with three hits for a 7-to-0 shutout that gave the Angels four straight wins for the series. Young made two of the Sacramento hits, one a bunt to Page, and the other a pop fly to short left that Johnson could not quite hold. Mohler made the third Sacramento hit, a Texas Leaguer to left.

Arellanes was chased from the game by Umpire Held for disputing a decision while at bat in the third inning. Wolverton filed out for him and then Slagle pitched the rest of the game. Score:

SEALS WIN HOME-RUN GAME

Four Circuits Hit Out in Contest. Oakland Loses, 7 to 4.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Four home runs and a few doubles made a stirring session of baseball today, when San Francisco defeated Oakland, 7 to 4, in the last Pacific Coast League game in Recreation Park. Malarkey pitched the first seven innings for Oakland and the Seals swatted him with severity. In the fifth, when the score was 1 to 1, Jerry Downs drove out a double that scored three men. In the seventh Del Howard banged a homer that scored Downs. Ramey displaced Malarkey.

Home runs were made also by Zacher and Ness, of Oakland, and by Roy Corhan, of San Francisco. Leifield pitched nearly eight innings and was replaced by Standridge. The series stands San Francisco 3 games, Oakland 1. Score:

Promoter Suggests Griffin for Jack Johnson-Moran Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—James W. Coffroth, prizefight promoter, refused today an offer from Jack Johnson, the heavyweight pugilist, to act as the third man in the ring during the Johnson-Moran fight in Paris, June 27.

Coffroth pleaded business interests that would keep him at home, and suggested James Griffin, ex-manager of Johnson, as a possibility for referee.

STARS OF TWO SCHOOLS MEET

Hobgood, Aggie, and McClure, Multnomah, May Make New Records.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Or., May 15—(Special)—With Guy Hobgood, of the Oregon Agricultural College, holder of the Coast record in the two-mile, and Walter McClure, of the Multnomah Club, the greatest long-distance runner ever developed at the University of Oregon, opposing each other in a special event, the Aggie-M. A. A. C. meet scheduled for Saturday would seem to offer much to the follower of the track game.

Dr. Stewart, local coach, is anxious that both Hobgood and McClure keep out of the mile and concentrate their efforts in the two-mile, in the hope that a record may be hung up by one or the other.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

With his job hanging by a whisker, "Tiny" Leonard pitched great ball against Southpaw Steele, of Victoria, yesterday, and won out when his teammates bunched three hits in the ninth inning and broke up a tie game.

Score: Portland, 3; Victoria, 2.

Robert Coltrin, alias Bobby, was the villain who delivered the telling poke.

Up to the ninth Steele had been booming great guns, allowing only three hits. Then Hausman opened with a single to right. Guigni bunted, and Steele mentally erred by trying to cheat Scanlon out of a putout. As a result he dropped Brooks' throw and both went safe.

Milligan immediately shot a clean single to left field, after Williams' popout, and, with the bases thus crammed to the gunwales, Coltrin took up his trusty club and thumped a theatrical safe hit between short and third, winning the game.

Women Cheer Bobby.

It was ladies' day and around 500 feminines clapped their kidded hands in animated appreciation of the little short-patcher's heroics.

"Tiny" Leonard, with his one-eighth ton of embonpoint, also was enthused over, because everybody knew the Walla Wallan was out there on his final probation. Defeat yesterday for Leonard would have spelled disaster in the neighborhood of the mealticket pocket.

As we've already pointed out everybody knew it, particularly "Tiny," and that, possibly, explains Leonard's terrific two bagger in the fifth inning. With Melchior on second as a result of Delmas' wild heave, Leonard belted a fierce swat into deep center and drove in what proved to be the tying run. Leonard tried to make three bases, but his legs sagged under the great strain and he was nabbed at third.

At that stage it put Portland ahead 2-1, but the Bees tied the score in the eighth on a walk to Lamb and Crum's single to center. Milligan tried to head Lamb off at third, and in the scramble which ensued, Crum beat it for second. Guigni threw there hurriedly and nipped Crum on the wrist, Lamb scoring before the ball could be recovered.

Bees Get Seven Hits.

The hits off the two pitchers were six for Portland and seven for the Bees.

Portland scored its first tally in the second frame on Milligan's walk, a stolen base, Coltrin's single and a wild pitch. The Bees came back with one in the fourth on Wilhoit's single, stolen bag, and a safety over first base by Brooks.

The day was perfect for baseball and Umpire Shuster also performed creditably. Series now stands three for the Bees and two for Portland. The score:
