

STATE GRANGE IS IN ANNUAL SESSION

58 Communities Are Represented at 41st Conference Holding at Monmouth.

ALL CITY BIDS WELCOME

Banquet Is Held Beneath Fir Trees on Normal School Campus, at Which Speeches and Responses Are Made.

MONMOUTH, Or., May 19.—(Special.)—One hundred and sixteen delegates, representing 58 Oregon communities, and many members of local and county granges were assembled at the 41st annual session of the Oregon Normal School today.

Reports of the credentials committee were heard and the work of the other committees outlined.

Incoming trainees and this morning brought the grange members to Monmouth. At the station they were met by automobiles and leading citizens and students of the Oregon Normal and Oregon Normal Schools, who aided in locating the visitors in private homes. Available places outnumbered the grange members.

Meetings Held in Gymnasium. Officers and committees were busy last night arranging the order of business for the first day's session today.

The delegates met in the Oregon Normal gymnasium at 10 o'clock this morning. Several resolutions, already prepared, were presented.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon a banquet was given the visiting grangers by the local citizens and schools in the large fir grove at the Normal School campus. Addresses of welcome were made by P. H. Johnson, Mayor of Monmouth, J. H. Ackerman, president of the Oregon Normal School, and E. O. Powell, master of the local grange, followed by other speeches and numerous responses.

Teachers and students took part in the feast, the welcome proving one of the most successful ever given in this city.

School Orchestra Gives Concert. To complete the day's entertainment the Monmouth Training School orchestra, a company of amateurs, under the direction of Miss Mary Hoham, instructor of music in the Oregon Normal School, gave a concert for the visiting delegation in the normal auditorium tonight.

"Trial by Jury," presented by Normal School students, also was staged for the grange members, following the concert.

Tomorrow will be given to reports and the annual election of officers.

SCHUMANN-HEINK ACCUSED

Policeman Named by Husband in Action in Divorce Case.

CHICAGO, May 14.—Mrs. Schumann-Heink was accused by her husband, William Rapp, yesterday of improper relations with a policeman and a lumberman.

Recently the singer asked divorce from her husband. He filed a cross-bill asking divorce from her. A few days ago he presented an amended cross-bill accusing her of improper conduct. This bill the court rejected, and he filed an amended cross-bill containing specific charges.

Chicago friends of the singer are wondering if the policeman from Paterson, N. J., named by the husband is the same policeman whose musical education in proper relations with a policeman, Mich., on funds furnished, it is said, by the accused woman.

Rapp did not swear to his amended cross-bill. He called the policeman 3672 South Michigan avenue.

Rapp added that she quarreled with him over raising children and insisted on doing some "grotesque penance" in atonement for acts committed before the death of her first husband.

In addition, Rapp charged that his wife was intensely jealous and accused him of wrongdoing almost every time he spoke to a woman.

BOY HERO GETS WHIPPING

Duluth Lad Who Saves Friend From Drowning Spanked by Mother.

DULUTH, May 14.—The fact that Theodore Trudel, aged 8, saved the life of his companion, Harry Nyberg, aged 4, did not save him a "good, sound licking" when he went home with his clothing soaked with water.

The Nybergs fell into St. Louis Bay while playing near the Northern Pacific Railroad bridge on Rice's Point. Theodore jumped in heroically and dragged his friend ashore. Harry was badly frightened and had become strangled. Men heard Theodore's cries, and after working with Harry, succeeded in bringing him back to his normal state of health.

Theodore hastened home. His mother saw the wet clothes, and despite Theodore's explanations gave the boy a sound trouncing.

"Didn't she know Theodore went in the water to save his playmate's life?" John Trudel, father of Theodore, was asked.

"Sure, she knew it. But she didn't want the boy to go in the water this time of year. It's too cold."

BANKER IS SENTENCED

New Yorker Sent to Workhouse for Failure to Pay Alimony.

NEW YORK, May 15.—James Murray Mitchell, former city banker, whose wife, Mrs. Anna A. Mitchell, has brought a $10,000 suit for alimony in the Supreme Court against Miss Ruth Austin, was sentenced to six months in the workhouse in the Domestic Relations Court for failure to pay his wife $25 a week.

The Mitchell lived happily for 19 years. Mrs. Mitchell said until her husband's affections were won away. She lured her husband to court for non-support and he was directed to pay $25 a week. He also was directed to furnish a bond of $125 to secure the alimony. He couldn't give it and was sent to the workhouse.

FACULTY GO TO MEETING

Many Instructors at Reed College Speak in Seattle This Week.

Reed College will be practically minus a faculty for the remainder of this week, as 15 of the 20 faculty members will go to Seattle to attend the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast

Association of Scientific Societies at the University of Washington Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This is the first time the association has held its meeting in the Northwest. It is due largely to the efforts of Dr. H. B. Torrey, of Reed College, and several members of the faculty that the meeting was arranged in Seattle.

The University Club of Portland and the members of the Reed College faculty will welcome the delegates to the convention from the south at a dinner at the University Club tonight.

A number of the Reed teachers are on the program at the Seattle meeting. In the meeting of the Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Society, Professor W. F. Ogburn will speak on "Direct Government in Oregon"; Max P. Cushing will speak on "Holbach and the French Revolution"; Arthur E. Wood will discuss the problem of unemployment, presenting an extensive investigation of 418 of the unemployed of Portland during the last winter.

Other speakers will be: Professor Kelley Rees, "Certain Aspects of the PIONEER, WHO DIED RECENTLY, CAME WEST IN 1852.

John T. Myers. John T. Myers, who died at his home near Oregon City, April 23, 1894, was born in Shipensburg, Pa., August 21, 1829.

With a party of 40 young men he crossed the plains to California in 1852, where he engaged in mining until 1862. He then went to Virginia City, Nev., where, in 1864, he married Miss Nancy M. Epperson, who, with her parents, crossed the plains in 1852. She survives.

Mr. Myers and his family came to Oregon, and the following year he took a homestead near Springfield, where he lived until his death.

Besides his wife, he leaves six children and 12 grandchildren. The children are: Albert Myers, Vancouver, Wash.; William E. Myers, of Dodge; Henry C. Myers, Mrs. Ella Nash, Mrs. Flora Swartz, and Mrs. Maude Hoopes, of Oregon City.

SMALL MEAT MEN URGE

INSPECTORS, WHOSE DECISIONS ARE FINAL, OPPOSED.

Right of Appeal to Superior Body Should Be Incorporated in Pending Ordinance, Belief of Attorney.

That it will be necessary, in order properly to safeguard the proposed new city meat inspection ordinance, either to place the inspectors under civil service or to give the slaughterhouse proprietors an appeal to the Municipal Court, to the City Council or to some other authorized body, in all cases of condemnation of meat, is the declaration of John F. Logan, attorney for the small packers, who are fighting to have the ordinance changed from its present form.

Mr. Logan says he believes great injury will be done by the small dealers if the Council passes the ordinance as it stands, as it gives absolute power to an inspector to say whether or not a piece of meat shall be allowed to be sold.

"This seems like a great injustice," said Mr. Logan yesterday. "It places the dealer in the hands of inspectors who may or may not be honest or have right motives. We have had some bad inspectors in the past, as the court records here will show, and there is no reason to believe that wrong men may not creep in in the future. I am casting no reflections on the present Chief Meat Inspector, but the proposed ordinance, as it stands, provides for the appointment of two more inspectors. No one knows who they will be. Experience only will tell whether they are honest and reliable. Even the appointing authorities may not know."

If the inspectors are placed under civil service regulation they will be out of the political class.

"But to have men appointed for political reasons, what a meat dealer shall send and what he shall send to the crematory, with no right of appeal, is a serious proposition which the City Council should not lose sight of. Personally I favor properly safeguarded inspection, so the small and large dealer shall get equal consideration."

To Seal Bottles. National Magazine.

Bottles may be securely sealed in the following manner: Melt together a quarter of a pound of sealing wax, the same quantity of rosin and two ounces of beeswax. When the mixture froths, stir it with a tallow candle. As soon as each ingredient is melted, dip the tops of the corked bottles in the mixture. It will completely exclude the air.

Old Reliable Hood's Sarsaparilla Is Pleasant and Effective.

POLK HOPMEN MEET

Session Held at Independence to Organize Against Dries.

BUYERS CALL ON GROWERS

Preliminary Session Takes Place and Another Is Called for Saturday, When Permanent Organization Will Be Launched.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., May 19.—(Special.)—Louis Lachmund, Frank Durbin, Joe Harris, James Linn, George Lewis, George Rosen, John Roberts, D. P. MacCarthy, Julius Pincus, Harry Talbot and O. O. McCallan, hop buyers, came here today to meet with the growers of this vicinity to make arrangements for the permanent organization of an association of hop growers of Polk and Benton counties.

The meeting was held at the Hotel Beaver. Among the prominent growers present were W. W. Percival, C. A. McLaughlin, S. B. Walker, Frank Laws and Miles Porterfield. It was decided to hold a meeting Saturday afternoon in the Isis Theater, where permanent organization would take place, and a committee was appointed to invite each hopgrower in this territory.

The purpose of the association is to carry on a campaign of education in this state, in order to teach the citizens and taxpayers the value of the hop industry to the state and show them the damage that would be done should the state go dry at the next election.

The value of the last hop crop was about $6,000,000 and it is predicted that should the state go dry, there would be trouble in finding a good market for the crop. It is pointed out that the price of hops was below the cost of production the years that Polk County was dry, while other hops sold for a much better price.

CENTRALIA TO FIX ROADS

Business and Professional Men Will Handle Picks Today.

CENTRALIA, Wash., May 19.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Centralia Auto Club tonight final plans were made for the observance of Good Roads Day Friday, when business and professional men have promised to work with picks and shovels on the improvements. The five committees appointed a week ago for the main roads leading into Centralia reported that they have plenty of workers.

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend

"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,'" remarked a leading druggist.

It is a happy thought to send a huggy to the drug store. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles.

It is a gentle, soothing lubricant, penetrates to the fineness of nerves beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are thus permitted to stretch without the corresponding surface strain so often involved during the period of expectation. This in part accounts for the entire absence, in many cases reported, of nausea, morning sickness and other distresses, such as laceration of the epidermis so often the case when this gentle form of lubrication is neglected.

"Mother's Friend" has been highly recommended by a host of women who know from experience. Write Bradfield Regulator Co., 308 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.

PENDLETON JAIL SCORED

Ministers Protest Against Only Bars Separating Men and Women.

PENDLETON, Or., May 19.—(Special.)—The Pendleton Ministerial Association held a hurriedly called meeting today to protest to the City Council against the confinement of women and men prisoners in the same section of the city jail, with only open iron bars between them.

The action follows a disclosure of conditions which also have aroused the Women's Civic League.

A movement is on to send a large delegation before the City Council tomorrow night to demand some action. The police say they are powerless to remedy the matter.

DRUGSTORES MUST BE DRY

Board of Pharmacy Takes Step to Check Liquor Sales.

SALEM, Or., May 19.—(Special.)—In an attempt to put an end to the illicit sale of intoxicating liquors by druggists, the State Board of Pharmacy, in session here today, adopted a resolution providing that no person shall be examined or shall be granted a renewal of license who, between January 1, 1911, and the date of application for

Never-Leak Boat Is Built.

What he believes will be a most popular boat because of its convenience has just been constructed by C. Van Nostrand, of Montavilla. The feature of the construction is in the process by which the boat can be tightened to prevent leaking. Imbedded in the wooden sides are iron rods starting from the keel, which reinforce the frame work and by which the boards of the boat may be tightened should any leaks develop. The theory of the invention is similar to that of tightening the hoops of a barrel. Mr. Van Nostrand has called his boat "The Ketchikan Never Leak Boat."
