

LID CLANGS AGAIN ON FRIARS' CLUB

Governor's Celebrated Militiamen for Second Time "Occupy" Resort.

ARRESTS FIGURE IN DAY

Preceding Night Attack on Milwaukee Rendezvous Warrants Are Served—Men Involved Say Girls Used in "Frameup."

With two of Governor West's justly celebrated militiamen on the job, the lid came down again on the Friars' Club at Milwaukee last night. It was the second military occupation of the club quarters in three weeks.

In full fatigue uniform and armed with heavy service revolvers, two of the best shots in the Oregon National Guard, Lieutenant O. A. Stevens and Sergeant A. J. Jones, were detailed to the capture of the club. They made strictly a night attack of it.

Julius Wilbur, steward of the club, had read in the papers about the Governor's intention to proclaim martial law and shut up the place. He stuck around all afternoon watchfully waiting for a summons to surrender. But it didn't come until after midnight, shortly before 2:30 o'clock, when Lieutenant Stevens and Sergeant Jones swung off an Oregon City car and immediately proclaimed martial law.

The soldiers slept on their arms in the clubhouse last night. They had no order to oust Wilbur himself, who has a room in the back end of the building, so he was permitted to remain. Lieutenant Stevens and Sergeant Jones will remain in charge. Adjutant General Finzer said last night, until they get other instructions from Governor West. The Governor is expected in Portland today to take a personal hand in the situation.

Arrests Are Made.

The other development yesterday in the Governor's crusade against the Friars' Club was the arrest on warrants issued by Deputy District Attorney Deitch, at the instance of Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, superintendent of the Department of Public Safety, of two men, of Dr. Kenneth T. Long, a son of Joel M. Long, ex-City Attorney; Dr. J. D. Nibley and Archie Myers.

It was charged in the complaints against them that they took Marion Hoffman, aged 17, Esther Gibson, aged 16, and another girl, together with Nibley, and brought them back to Portland in their automobiles. Long and Nibley being in one and Myers in the other. Myers was charged that they took the girls to the home of Dr. Long's brother, E. J. Long, who is in the hospital with a broken leg. The girls were taken away with the case, at 263 East Forty-ninth street.

The two girls named and two others, aged 19 and 20, are held by Mrs. Baldwin as witnesses.

After being held at the police station a short time, Dr. Long and Dr. Nibley were released on $1000 bail each, furnished by Dr. Long's father, Joel M. Long. Mr. Myers was released on his own recognizance at Mrs. Baldwin's request.

Indignation Is Shown.

Mr. Long expressed much indignation last night in speaking of the arrest of his son and the other two young men. He declared that the case looked like a "frameup" against them and that he could clearly show that the young men were guilty of no wrongdoing and that their conduct was above reproach.

"I didn't know anything about this charge until yesterday afternoon when I was called to furnish bail," said Mr. Long. "My son and his friends didn't know about it until they were arrested. 'My son and Dr. Nibley, in my son's runabout, and Mr. Myers, in his roadster, had been out driving together last Saturday night. They stopped at the Friars' Club for a few minutes. A party of men and young women whom neither Dr. Long nor Dr. Nibley knew were there at the time. One of the girls ran out to my son and asked, 'You are Dr. Long, aren't you?'"

"He replied that he was. She said that the men they had come with wanted them to go on to a resort farther out, and that she and her two companions didn't want to go. She appealed to Dr. Long to take them home."

"He had never met the girl and didn't want to take up in his case. But the girls insisted that they wanted to be taken home and that they didn't want to go to the resort mentioned. One of them ran out and jumped in Mr. Myers' car, and finally Dr. Long and Mr. Myers agreed to help them get home. Two of the girls stood on the running-board of the runabout in which Dr. Long and Dr. Nibley were driving and the third girl rode in Mr. Myers' auto."

"There is absolutely no truth to the charge that the young men bought drinks for the girls. They brought them directly into town. Mr. Myers in the second automobile following behind Dr. Long and his car."

"Dr. Long had been asked earlier in the evening to get some clothes for my other son, T. J. Long, who was in the hospital with a broken leg. So on the way in he stopped at his brother's house. He was the only one who got out of the car or went in the house, and he was gone only long enough to get the clothes, not more than a minute or two. The other auto waited while he was inside. There was a group of newboys on the corner who saw this."

"Then both automobiles drove to Park and Morrison streets, where the girls said they wanted to go, and let them off there."

Fern Hobbs, Governor West's woman private secretary, who preceded the militia in their capture of Copperfield, came to the Friars' Club this morning and took luncheon with Mrs. Baldwin and the Y. W. C. A. Miss Hobbs said, before she left her return to Salem, that she had come down to get additional evidence for the Governor as to conditions at the Friars' Club from Mrs. Baldwin.

Wilbur Says Club Is Guilty.

Mr. Wilbur added that the "doings" at other places in or about Milwaukee have been unjustly attributed to the Friars' Club, which he insisted has been conducted in a respectable manner.

Tom Kay, the Governor's special agent, paid a visit to the Friars' Club Wednesday night. He was recognized as he packed back and forth outside, and was invited in. Mr. Kay accepted, went inside and an enjoyable chat of several hours was had by all present, including Kay.

FESTIVAL QUEEN CROWNED

prize to the band from the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, and particularly admiring the fine white suits and manly forms of the Roseburg Elks, who have acted as guides, counselors and friends to all the visitors.

Color and Lights Dazzle.

The streets are aflame with flags and bunting, while tonight there is added to this display of decoration the myriads of electric lights and the joyous notes of the funmakers who are parading the streets.

And strawberries! If Eve, in the Garden of Eden, had fallen for a strawberry we could well excuse her. It had been of the Roseburg variety. But when strawberries were ripe in the garden Eve was no doubt busy cleaning house preparatory to Decoration day and Adam was busy beating carpets and rugs, spurred on by Eve, who occasionally yelled from the parlor window, "Beat it a little more on the other side. And don't forget to rub over the strawberries and wait for the ripening of the Ben Davis apples."

Today Sees Apex of Festival.

Tomorrow will be one of the big days of the festival. Then the fun will be at its height, but not a whit ahead of the day following. For there are to be motorcycle races, ball games, dancing and merry-making on the streets, and everywhere the dispensing and eating of luscious strawberries.

It is good to be here. It will be painful to leave, for there is not in all this broad land a finer little city or a more splendid citizenship than in this metropolis of the Umpqua Valley.

OREGON MEN SPEAKERS

COAST SCIENTIFIC SOCIETIES MEETING OPENS IN SEATTLE.

Many Faculty Members of Colleges and Universities in Attendance—18 Bodies Represented.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, May 21.—(Special.)—The fourth annual meeting of the Pacific Association of Scientific Societies opened this morning on the campus of the University of Washington. CHAUTAUQU PLANS OUT BIGGER AND BETTER PROGRAMME AT GLADSTONE PROMISED.

H. E. Cross, Secretary of Willamette Valley Association, Gives List of Speakers for July 7 to 13.

OREGON CITY, Or., May 21.—(Special.)—H. E. Cross, secretary, today announced that the 1914 programme of the Willamette Valley Chautauque at Gladstone is practically completed, and that the full programme will be published within the next few days. The programme is declared to be more extensive and varied than any previous year in the whole 28 years' history of the organization. Last year the average daily attendance for the 13 days was approximately 3000.

The season will be open from July 7 to 19 inclusive. Among the attractions will be the Castle Square Entertainers, Dr. L. G. Herbert, Dr. Alexander M. Lechewitzky, Charles Howard Plattenburg, Ash Davis, cartoonist, Lee Maynard Daggy, Edna Eugenia Lowe, Chicago Glee Club, Dr. Thomas E. Green, Frederick Vining Fisher, N. P. Chew, Chinese, and the famous Simpson College Glee Club of Indiana, Ia.

Among the well-known Oregon men who will take part are Dr. W. B. Hinson, Samuel Hill and Dr. Fletcher Homan, who is president of the assembly. The music this year will be a feature, as usual, and the orchestra, headed by Stuart McGuire, will take part.

ADVENTISTS IN TENT CITY

HUNDREDS OF SEVENTH-DAY WORKSHIPPERS AT FOREST GROVE.

Noted Speakers Come to White City to Address Workers of Many Tongues From Oregon and Washington.

FOREST GROVE, Or., May 21.—(Special.)—Forest Grove is today the Mecca for hundreds of Seventh-Day Adventists, whose presence for the session of Oregon and for Southwest Washington opened here tonight with such noted men as Rev. C. S. Longacre, editor of "Liberty," published at Washington, D. C.; Elder M. C. Wilcox, former editor of "Signs of the Times," published at Mountain View, Cal., and other prominent speakers.

The encampment is being held at Taylor's Grove, at the western edge of the city, and is one of the prettiest settings for such a gathering that could be found.

H. W. Cottrell, of Portland, is president of the conference. Hundreds of tents have been prepared and a visitable tent city has been dedicated for the time being to worship. A large conference tent, with a seating capacity of 1500, has been erected in which to hold the regular sessions. Other large tents will be used by Germans and Scandinavians, and a visitable tent city has been dedicated for the time being to worship.
