SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.-Portland came stronger than ever in the winning galt it has struck this week and beat Oakland today, 8 to 0. This makes three straight victories for the Bea-Vers.

There were five or six reasons why the Oaks did not win, any one of which would have been sufficient. To begin with, Harry Krause wound and unwound his sturdy left paw to hold the Oaks to six tiny taps, and to finish up with the Beavers jumped onto Rube Geyer and Ramey for a varied assortment of bingles. The result was an 8-to-0 score in favor of the northmen. Buddy Ryan led the onslaught, getting four hits in as many times at bat, and he was closely followed by Captain Rodgers and Fisher. Fred Derrick distinguished himself by poling

Triple in Singles Helps.

Singles by Kores, Ryan and Redgers, together with Cook's wild heave to first, let in another run in the fifth. The seventh run was a gift pure and simple. Derrick was hit by a pitched ball and stole second while Doane was flying out to right and Kores grounded to second. Hyan put down a bunt and beat it out, Murphy throwing wildly to first, which let in Derrick. The last run was simple. Derrick drove a liner between center and left. He hot-footed it and made the circuit when Cook relayed poorly to the plate.

Eleventh-Inning Single Does Work.

Putting Across Only Run. LOS ANGELES Cal. May 21.—Howard Ehmke, Los Angeles schoolboy pitcher, won his own 11-inning game today, when he singled in the final inning, scoring Moore for the only run made by either side. Fanning had rather the better of the pitcher's battle until then, as he allowed only five hits to Ehmke's nine, and struck out three men in a row in the ninth inning. Ehmke was in a tight place several times, but Ellis saved him twice by making remarkable throws from left field, cutting off a runner at the plate each time. Both teams did sensational fielding. Score:

Total of 19 Hits Recorded.

The hits were 12 off the two Tacoma twirlers, and seven off Jones.

Jones had just one bad inning, the fifth, when five hits and a walk and some slow thinking by the Colts' infield, rang up the entire Tiger scoring quartet. Yohe, Harris, Fries, McMullen and Neighbors figured in the bat skirmish against the ex-Seal.

These four put the Tigers temporarily in the lead, 4-3, but the Colts renewed the assault in the sixth and drove Kaufman to the showerbath. Terry McKune, a bridegroom, had the honor of driving in the winning run, after a triple by Milligan and a two-bagger by Coltrin.

Cooling the Sport Tortillas

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. ANCOUVER, B. C., is enjoying an era of athletic prosperity just at present, but it will not be long before they'll have the lid clamped down tight. The wrestlers have begun infesting the Canadian city. A while ago, Pat Connolly, who dubs himself the "heavyweight champion of Canada," was booked with Americus, of Baltimore, and, so as to work the suckers up, Connolly was allowed to win Now the men are matched for a second contest June 12 and Jack Curley looking after Americus' end.

Gus Larson will discontinue his work as graduate manager of athletics at the University of Idaho this June. He expects to pass a year in Europe in the study of mechanical engineering, but says that he doesn't expect to return to Idaho.

The Gem State University, by the way, was fortunate in its selection of Dr. Brannon as president, both from an athletic and academic standpoint. If Dr. Brannon doesn't prove one of the foremost boosters of clean athletics in the conference, we miss our guess.

For years, in the University of North Dakota, Dr. Brannon acted the role of faculty manager and adviser of athletics, and his wonderful personality and inside knowledge of athletics wielded a tremendous influence in that conference.
