Solicitor Works Swindle.—An un-authorized solicitor has been collect-ing money from residents of various towns along the Columbia River west of Portland in the last week under pretense that he is an agent of The Oregonian. In some unaccountable man-ner the man, who signs the name "F. P. Brome" to the receipts, has ob-tained possession of a number of The Weekly Oregonian's "bargain day" subscription blanks, but by erasing the word "weekly" and substituting the word "weekly" and substituting the word "weekly" and substituting the victimized many persons who thought that they were subscribing to the daily or Sunday Oregonian. These subscrip-tion blanks are printed on yellow paper and can readily be recognized. All persons are warned to pay no money to anyone offering yellow remoney to anyone offering yellow re-cipits as they no longer are used by The Oregonian. - F. P. Brome at no time was authorized to solicit subscriptions or to collect money for The Oregonlan.

Oregonian. SALVATION ARMY GRATEFUL FOR AID. —The following statement has been is-sued by the Salvation Army of Port-land: "The Salvation Army officers wish to thank the people of Portiand for the magnithent way they helped to make the evening of music given for its benefit the gigantic success it was. The kind words spoken by Mayor Albee were very much appreciated. The dif-ferent artists under the able leadership of Mrs. Ross Bloch-Bauer did excellent work, also Mrs. Harry Meyer and her-helpers who succeeded splendidly in a candy sale to raise money to assist in candy sale to raise money to assist in the success of the evening, also the flower committee who did nobly, and florists who, sent many beautiful flowers to beautify the scene. Tonseth decorated the stage. These gentlemon all have our gratitude. Last but not by any means least the press who leat its far reaching and convincing aid. To all persons concerned we again say "many thanks."

WAR VETERANS INVITED.-All artistry and brilliant, sparkling tone, that he easily dominated the entire event.

Mr. Newton First in Land.

So much of a favorite is Mr. Newton in this city, that he is not only rec-ognized as Mr. Newton, of Spokane, bu ognized as Mr. Newton, of Spokane, but Mr. Newton, of the United States, tenor soloist. In competition with the best native-born American tenors, Mr. New-ton is first, search where you will. Yet, he is modest and un#ssuming. In style and finish, he is a standard for all other tenors in this country. He sang Cadman's "Look Forth Be-loved" and "None but a Lonely Heart," "The Song That You Sang" and "Why so Pale Are the Roses" (Tschalkow-sky), His recall numbers were: "June" (Turvey), "Spring's a Loveable Lady" of Spokane, but

(Turvey), "Spring's a Loveable Lady" (Elliott) and "Jeanette and Her Little Wooden Shoes" (Victor Herbert). William H. Boyer has drilled the cho-rus to a high standard of efficiency,
