

TITANIC MEMORIES
SHARP CONTRAST

Much Greater Proportion of Women and Children Saved
in Earlier Disaster.

"WOMEN FIRST" WAS RULE

Saloon and Second Cabin Passengers
in Majority Among Lost in Empress of Ireland Accident.

NEW YORK, May 29.—(Special.)—
Reports of the Empress of Ireland disaster, the worst since the sinking of the Titanic, disclosed a striking contrast with the result of that memorable tragedy of April, 1912.

When the Titanic went down the captain of the ship was last seen alive on the bridge of the ship. Almost the entire crew gave up their lives. The word was "Women first," and members of the crew, as well as men passengers, gave up their places to women and went down in the icy waters with the huge liner.

Many Cabin Passengers Lost.

According to the reports concerning the Empress of Ireland, the saloon and second-cabin passengers were in the majority among those who lost their lives. Most of those reported saved were said to be members of the crew and men of the staterage. Captain Kendall, commander of the liner, was picked up from wreckage and rescued. Descriptions of the Titanic disaster, when 1585 persons lost their lives, are filled with tales of the heroism of officers and crew. Of 241 first-cabin passengers on the Titanic, 212 were saved and 154 of them were women and children. Of 262 second-cabin passengers 115 were saved and all except 13 of those saved were women and children. Captain Smith stood on the bridge directing his men at their work of launching the lifeboats. When the ship had been washed away he jumped and was lost in rolling waves. The same grave claimed many of the captain's heroic crew.

Women Assisted on Titanic.

The disaster to the Titanic was caused by striking a submerged spur of an iceberg. The passengers were asleep in their rooms when the crash was heard. All were ordered on decks with their lifeboats. The passengers as a rule did not realize the danger, and it was not until preparations were made to lower the lifeboats that the full import of the first order was realized. The women were ordered to the lower deck and the men made way for them, assisting them and the children to points of vantage.

Vessel Complete Loss.

In the meantime the Titanic settled rapidly, and three hours after the ship had struck the iceberg it was down, leaving nothing visible except the string of lifeboats and a mass of wreckage on the surface of the water, with here and there a human body. Most of the crew and officers had sacrificed their lives. They had worked until the last minute loading passengers into the lifeboats. When the last effort had been attended to and the boat was about to disappear members of the crew jumped and swam, but most of them were lost.

Illinoisan Seizes Candles at Mass,
Huris Them at Congregation.

JOLIET, Ill., May 26.—While Rev. Anton Berk, pastor of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church was celebrating mass Mrs. Joseph Stukel, 50, member of a prominent family in Joliet, ran up the aisle, hurled a candle over the communion rail, and seizing an armful of candles from two candlesticks, began hurling them at the congregation. She had three children. One, Rev. Joseph Stukel, is priest of the Slavonian Catholic Church of Waukegan, Ill.

Boys Demand Right to Bring Their Own Lunches From Home.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—After 18 months' controversy which resulted recently in the establishment of a hunger strike, the 3000 boy students at the Central High School here have won the privilege of bringing their own lunches and eating them outdoors, instead of having to buy the food supplied by the city and eat it inside the school at noon. Dr. Robert Thompson, president of the school, granted their demands.

JUSTICE 31 YEARS LATE

Major George Armes Vindicated by House Committee Report.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The House military affairs committee reported favorably to the House a bill to promote Major George A. Armes, retired, of this city, to the rank of Colonel on the retired list. The bill, after pointing out the remarkable career of Major Armes, who entered the Army as a private and came out a captain, says:

"It is the opinion of the committee that Major Armes was unjustly retired, as he conducted as a citizen and business man in Washington controversy after idea of his unfitness or lack of qualifications to perform the duties of an officer in the Army."

Major Armes was retired September 15, 1883.

Empress of Ireland Crash Third on St.
Lawrence Since Opening of Navigation Two Months Ago.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 29.—That a thorough investigation must be made into the loss of the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Ireland was urged on the Canadian government tonight by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, leader of the opposition in Parliament.

"The hand of fate has been heavy against us during the past few months," he added. "This is the third disaster on the St. Lawrence route since navigation opened two months ago and in proportion of loss of life, this wreck exceeds the Titanic disaster. It is difficult to believe that such an accident in the St. Lawrence so near to Father Point could not have been prevented."

The government steamer Lady Grey, equipped with medical supplies, provisions and several doctors from Quebec City, is due to arrive at Father Point at midnight.

An official inquiry into the circumstances connected with the accident will be begun early next week, according to Alexander Johnston, deputy minister of marine and fisheries.

The ordinance came as the result of a petition to the Council, signed by 30 persons, alleging that dogs were doing much damage on farms in the adjacent country. Several dogs were killed recently while attacking sheep.

Studebaker
ECONOMICAL
LIGHTWEIGHT SIX
$1575

Studebaker SIX
tire cost is one-third to one-
fifth the tire
cost of heavier
"Sixes."

The Studebaker SIX runs
farther on a gallon of gasoline than other "Sixes."

It runs several hundred miles
farther on a quart of oil.

It is the one economical "Six"
because it is light—weighing less than 3000 pounds
—and perfectly balanced.

And these qualities, in turn,
go back to Studebaker special steels and Studebaker intensive manufacturing methods.

To the employment of costly
machinery and costly materials that no car built in lesser volume—even if sold as the highest price—can afford.

These methods put value into the Studebaker SIX beyond the value of any other car at any price.

They make it the first—and only—really economical
"Six."

Send for the Studebaker Proof
Book, describing Studebaker manufacturing methods.

NO PASTOR, BRIDE TARRIES

Girl Preaching, Announces Engagement, but Defers Marriage.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—Declaring that she will not marry until a pastor has been stationed at the little one-room church at Glen Carbon, Ill., where she has been preaching for the past year,
Miss Colla E. Richards, of Staunton, Ill., has announced her engagement to Charles B. Morrison, a wealthy resident of Ramsey, Ill.

Should the church be supplied with a pastor the wedding probably will take place in the fall, and Miss Richards will give up the work for which she has been preparing during the last four years and devote her time to her home.

While on a visit to Glen Carbon in July, 1913, Miss Richards learned the church in which she had been converted was without a pastor. She gave up her ambition for city work and has since preached weekly sermons at Glen Carbon.

HARVARD BOYS FIGHT FIRE

Archie Roosevelt Aids in Work of Volunteer Brigade.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 25.—Hewitt
Morgan, of New York City; William Rand, of New York, and William P.
Preston, of Red Bank, N. J., freshmen at Harvard University, were sleeping soundly when Policeman Shannon aroused them and told them to flee in a hurry from a fire which was making rapid headway in the room which they use as a study.

The students occupy apartment 45 in Clavery Hall, on the Gold Coast Shannon organized a fire brigade of students, in which Archie Roosevelt did active duty.

The fire started, it is believed, from a lighted cigarette. The furnishings of the room were entirely destroyed.

MILITANTS' ECHO IN ROME

Opposing English Delegates Cause
Uproar at Woman's Council.

ROME, May 29.—Mrs. Greighton, who was one of the English delegates to the International Council of Women here, which concluded its labors here, was the cause of a sensational outburst at a suffrage meeting when she denounced militantism as harmful to the cause.

Amid the audience of 20,000 women
another Englishwoman rose, white-faced, and cried "No, No!" Others joined in the protest, and when Mrs.
Greighton reiterated her criticism there was a great uproar, which ended only when the President of the meeting requested Mrs. Greighton to resume her seat.
