

THEY ARE DECIDED TO IGNORE REBELS

Plans for Agreement Between United States and Huerta to Be Perfected.

MEXICAN AGENT EXPECTED

Candidacies of Felix Diaz and Vasquez Gomez Appear to Concern Constitutionalists - Viewed With Disfavor at First.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 31.—The South American envoys, it became known tonight, virtually have resolved to go ahead with their plans for a two-party agreement between the United States and the Huerta government...

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Prominent agents of the constitutionalist movement in Mexico conferred here today with Luis Cabrera as the center of interest.

Luis Cabrera, whom General Carranza hurriedly summoned from Europe, Rafael Zubaran, minister of the interior in the Carranza cabinet, and Jose Vasconcelos, a second emissary of the Northern Mexican leader, were together throughout the day...

SONORA CABRERA, Cabrera and Vasconcelos apparently think Diaz and Gomez may be under consideration by the mediators. They do not look on Diaz with favor, but speak more favorably of Senor Gomez.

MUNITION VESSELS ARE HELD

Ypiranga and Bavaria's Bonds, Drawn on Sunday, Rejected.

VERA CRUZ, May 31.—The Hamburg-American steamer Ypiranga was still at her dock today, the collector of customs, Captain Herman G. Stickney, having refused to accept the bond for the vessel and the Bavaria, of the same line, because it was drawn on Sunday.

Consul Canada was expecting today the arrival from the capital of the Filipino boy of the name of Floriano, having received assurance from Huerta that the boy had been released.

WAR HAS BRIGHTER SIDE

(Continued From First Page.)

where cases of the utmost seriousness may be handled as effectively as in the great hospitals ashore. There are roomy officers' quarters and ward rooms where practically every bit of furniture is of steel. Inflammable materials have almost entirely been eliminated.

During the first two or three nights out from New York, when the weather conditions were not favorable to shows on deck, the "movies" were displayed for the officers in the wardroom.

Home Seems Not so Far Away. The ship's band is stationed near the projector, and in the intermissions between each reel it plays lively and inspiring music.

It is one may judge from the two deck entertainments, in which the tastes of the men, rather than that of the officers, were considered, one must inevitably reach the conclusion that the Western picture drama in which there is lots of shooting and daring heroism is the one that makes the greatest appeal.

Since we struck the hot weather the blue uniforms have given way to white, and the ship, which was once a navy-yard, is swiftly shedding its dirt and dust and soon will be as clean as a Dutch kitchen.

Sailors No Longer "Sleep Forward." The barber has been busy since we struck the hot weather. Nearly every body is being shorn of his locks, and some of the men have the peeled look of onions.

In the Wyoming and others of the latest battleship type the officers' quarters are far forward, extending from the bridge to the very stem of the ship, while the quarters of the men are aft.

KARLUK'S MEN SAVE THEIR INSTRUMENTS

Crew of Stefansson's Vessel Believed to Be Comfortable, Though Marooned.

EXPEDITION TO CONTINUE

Canadian Government Expected to Send Rescue Ship to Wrangell Island—Western Drift of Ice Sheet Is Proved.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 31.—Brief cable dispatches from St. Michael and Nome indicate that when Vilhjalmur Stefansson's exploring ship Karluk was crushed in the Arctic ice near Herald Island, northeast of Siberia, January 16, the men saved all their instruments, supplies, dogs and food and left only the crushed hull and its coal cargo when they headed east over the ice to camp on Wrangell Island.

Probably the shipwrecked men passed the winter in comfort, having dogs to carry them on hunting expeditions.

It is expected that the Canadian government will authorize Captain Robert A. Bartlett, who is at St. Michael, where he arrived after a dog team and sea journey from Wrangell Island, to engage a ship to go to the island and bring off the 18 men marooned there.

The Karluk's men will be landed at Nome. It is not likely that they can reach Nome in time to board a vessel bound for Point Barrow, from which place they could contrive to join the second division of the Stefansson expedition at the mouth of the MacKenzie.

Probably the Canadian government will send a dispatch to the MacKenzie River by canoe to Stefansson, notifying him of the loss of the Karluk.

It was planned to have the Karluk sail or drift north from Point Barrow in search of the Polar continent, which most Arctic explorers believe to exist, but knowledge gained by the Karluk's men at the mouth of the MacKenzie and the adjacent islands.

BYGONES TO BE BURIED

CHEHALIS COUNTY REPUBLICAN "REGULARS" CONTROL MEETING.

Progressives Will Not Be Invited Back Into Party, but Some of Their Contentions Will Be Recognized.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 31.—(Special.) The Republican convention in Chehalis County, which is being held in Washington, will open here this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, with most of the delegates coming from the county.

Two planks which seem certain of going into the convention's platform provide for a reduction in the number of Southern delegates in the National convention and representation to the voters of the West.

Action taken here by the convention is to be considered as a keynote to other conventions to be held throughout the state in the near future and action is being watched with keen interest throughout the state.

Blaze in Washington Town Does $27,000 WORTH OF DAMAGE.

Vacant Property Back of Saloon Point of Outbreak and Spread Is Rapid Before Department's Arrival.

LEAVENWORTH, Wash., May 31.—(Special.)—Fire destroyed the west end of Front street, from 2:30 to 3:30 in the morning, in a building at the rear of the Overland Hotel building, which has been tenanted for two months.

By the time the fire department reached here and only by hard work was the Hutchings saloon very much of flames.

Losses in hotel building, owned by Japanese, $5500, with $2800 insurance. F. H. Hutchings, saloon building, stock and buildings in rear, $10,000, $3000 insured. Seattle Brewing & Malt Company, hotel building, $3000, with $1500 insurance. N. B. Day, confectionery store, $3000 stock with $900 insurance. Mary Ralston, frame building, $700; O. Namba, hotel building, $5000, with $3000 insurance.

This was the largest fire ever occurred here and only by hard work was the Great Northern depot and water tank saved. Only a little of the contents could be removed from the burned buildings.

KARLUK'S MEN SAVE THEIR INSTRUMENTS

Crew of Stefansson's Vessel Believed to Be Comfortable, Though Marooned.

EXPEDITION TO CONTINUE

Canadian Government Expected to Send Rescue Ship to Wrangell Island—Western Drift of Ice Sheet Is Proved.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 31.—Brief cable dispatches from St. Michael and Nome indicate that when Vilhjalmur Stefansson's exploring ship Karluk was crushed in the Arctic ice near Herald Island, northeast of Siberia, January 16, the men saved all their instruments, supplies, dogs and food and left only the crushed hull and its coal cargo when they headed east over the ice to camp on Wrangell Island.

Probably the shipwrecked men passed the winter in comfort, having dogs to carry them on hunting expeditions.

It is expected that the Canadian government will authorize Captain Robert A. Bartlett, who is at St. Michael, where he arrived after a dog team and sea journey from Wrangell Island, to engage a ship to go to the island and bring off the 18 men marooned there.

The Karluk's men will be landed at Nome. It is not likely that they can reach Nome in time to board a vessel bound for Point Barrow, from which place they could contrive to join the second division of the Stefansson expedition at the mouth of the MacKenzie.

Probably the Canadian government will send a dispatch to the MacKenzie River by canoe to Stefansson, notifying him of the loss of the Karluk.

It was planned to have the Karluk sail or drift north from Point Barrow in search of the Polar continent, which most Arctic explorers believe to exist, but knowledge gained by the Karluk's men at the mouth of the MacKenzie and the adjacent islands.

WILLAMINA HAS 'LAST DAY'

Five Graduates Receive Diplomas at Commencement Exercises.

WILLAMINA, Or., May 31.—(Special.) The first annual commencement of the Willamina High School was held at the Methodist Episcopal Church Friday night. The church was filled to overflowing.

The following programs were: Rev. J. Stanford Moore; address, Rev. A. J. Stanford Moore; address, Rev. A. J. Stanford Moore; address, Rev. A. J. Stanford Moore.

The five graduates were Irene Eddy, Louise Bings, a Veda Wright, Vera Wright and Kenneth Shetterly.

MONMOUTH TO GRADUATE 5

Colin V. Dymont Will Address Students on Graduation Night.

MONMOUTH, Or., May 31.—(Special.)—Monmouth High School this year will graduate five students. The commencement exercises will begin on Friday evening, June 5, at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. H. F. Jones, of the Christian Church of this city, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, June 7, at 10 o'clock.

Next Storm Is Due Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the Far West Tuesday or Wednesday, reaching the great central valleys Thursday or Friday, and the Eastern States near the end of the week, according to the Weather Bureau forecast for the coming week.

BULB CULTURE IS HELPED

Senate Votes to Continue Bellingham Experiment Farm.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 31.—An amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill, proposed by Senator Jones, of Washington, and adopted by the Senate, appropriates $12,000 for continuing the operation of the experimental bulb farm at Bellingham, Wash.

Most of the flowering bulbs sold in the United States are imported from Holland, and until a few years ago the Dutch bulbs practically monopolized the American market.

The House accepts the Jones amendment, the Department plans to extend its field of experiments on the North Pacific Coast, in the hope of finding other localities suitable for bulb culture.

WOMAN SAYS THIEF ROBBED HER OF JEWELRY WORTH $2400.

Louise Trouville Tells Police Robber Entered Room at Night—"Gone, Gone!" Is Parrot's Cry.

Louise Trouville, alias Gautier, proprietor of the Hotel Richelieu, 33 1/2 Sixth street, North, reported to the police yesterday that a thief entered her room between midnight Saturday and noon yesterday and stole a brass-bound box containing $400 in money and $2400 in jewelry and valuable papers.

She says she did not discover her loss until she awoke at noon, when she noticed the door of the room adjoining her bedroom ajar and went to investigate. The room, she says, is always locked because of the value of its contents.

The thief must have acted quietly, she said, because she was not awakened.

Besides $500 in cash, chiefly gold coin, Louise Trouville said she lost several valuable diamond rings, one of them worth more than $1000; bracelets made in the French manner and set with various stones, brooches and a necklace.

The box in which the jewels were kept, with papers concerning her residence in France, was two feet square, made of hardwood, with brass corners, brass hinges and brass locks. With its contents it was heavy, and she said the thief must have taken great precaution to avoid dropping it or bumping it against the furniture.

Louise Trouville has a green parrot, which frequently makes its presence known by shouting from its second-floor corner window. Its word to passersby and visitors last night was "Gone, gone!"

KARLUK'S MEN SAVE THEIR INSTRUMENTS

Crew of Stefansson's Vessel Believed to Be Comfortable, Though Marooned.

EXPEDITION TO CONTINUE

Canadian Government Expected to Send Rescue Ship to Wrangell Island—Western Drift of Ice Sheet Is Proved.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 31.—Brief cable dispatches from St. Michael and Nome indicate that when Vilhjalmur Stefansson's exploring ship Karluk was crushed in the Arctic ice near Herald Island, northeast of Siberia, January 16, the men saved all their instruments, supplies, dogs and food and left only the crushed hull and its coal cargo when they headed east over the ice to camp on Wrangell Island.

Probably the shipwrecked men passed the winter in comfort, having dogs to carry them on hunting expeditions.

It is expected that the Canadian government will authorize Captain Robert A. Bartlett, who is at St. Michael, where he arrived after a dog team and sea journey from Wrangell Island, to engage a ship to go to the island and bring off the 18 men marooned there.

The Karluk's men will be landed at Nome. It is not likely that they can reach Nome in time to board a vessel bound for Point Barrow, from which place they could contrive to join the second division of the Stefansson expedition at the mouth of the MacKenzie.

Probably the Canadian government will send a dispatch to the MacKenzie River by canoe to Stefansson, notifying him of the loss of the Karluk.

It was planned to have the Karluk sail or drift north from Point Barrow in search of the Polar continent, which most Arctic explorers believe to exist, but knowledge gained by the Karluk's men at the mouth of the MacKenzie and the adjacent islands.

WILLAMINA HAS 'LAST DAY'

Five Graduates Receive Diplomas at Commencement Exercises.

WILLAMINA, Or., May 31.—(Special.) The first annual commencement of the Willamina High School was held at the Methodist Episcopal Church Friday night. The church was filled to overflowing.

The following programs were: Rev. J. Stanford Moore; address, Rev. A. J. Stanford Moore; address, Rev. A. J. Stanford Moore; address, Rev. A. J. Stanford Moore.

The five graduates were Irene Eddy, Louise Bings, a Veda Wright, Vera Wright and Kenneth Shetterly.

MONMOUTH TO GRADUATE 5

Colin V. Dymont Will Address Students on Graduation Night.

MONMOUTH, Or., May 31.—(Special.)—Monmouth High School this year will graduate five students. The commencement exercises will begin on Friday evening, June 5, at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. H. F. Jones, of the Christian Church of this city, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, June 7, at 10 o'clock.

Next Storm Is Due Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the Far West Tuesday or Wednesday, reaching the great central valleys Thursday or Friday, and the Eastern States near the end of the week, according to the Weather Bureau forecast for the coming week.

BULB CULTURE IS HELPED

Senate Votes to Continue Bellingham Experiment Farm.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 31.—An amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill, proposed by Senator Jones, of Washington, and adopted by the Senate, appropriates $12,000 for continuing the operation of the experimental bulb farm at Bellingham, Wash.

Most of the flowering bulbs sold in the United States are imported from Holland, and until a few years ago the Dutch bulbs practically monopolized the American market.

The House accepts the Jones amendment, the Department plans to extend its field of experiments on the North Pacific Coast, in the hope of finding other localities suitable for bulb culture.

WOMAN SAYS THIEF ROBBED HER OF JEWELRY WORTH $2400.

Louise Trouville Tells Police Robber Entered Room at Night—"Gone, Gone!" Is Parrot's Cry.

Louise Trouville, alias Gautier, proprietor of the Hotel Richelieu, 33 1/2 Sixth street, North, reported to the police yesterday that a thief entered her room between midnight Saturday and noon yesterday and stole a brass-bound box containing $400 in money and $2400 in jewelry and valuable papers.

She says she did not discover her loss until she awoke at noon, when she noticed the door of the room adjoining her bedroom ajar and went to investigate. The room, she says, is always locked because of the value of its contents.

The thief must have acted quietly, she said, because she was not awakened.

Besides $500 in cash, chiefly gold coin, Louise Trouville said she lost several valuable diamond rings, one of them worth more than $1000; bracelets made in the French manner and set with various stones, brooches and a necklace.

The box in which the jewels were kept, with papers concerning her residence in France, was two feet square, made of hardwood, with brass corners, brass hinges and brass locks. With its contents it was heavy, and she said the thief must have taken great precaution to avoid dropping it or bumping it against the furniture.

Louise Trouville has a green parrot, which frequently makes its presence known by shouting from its second-floor corner window. Its word to passersby and visitors last night was "Gone, gone!"

Sol Duc Sparkling Water advertisement featuring a large illustration of a bottle and text describing its health benefits and availability.

ASTORIA TO BE GAY

Large Attendance Is Expected at Industrial Celebration.

FLAVEL TO SHARE HONORS

Names of Prominent Men Who Will Attend Is Given and Portland Will Send Transportation Delegates and Shippers.

ASTORIA, May 31.—(Special.)—That the various sections of Oregon, as well as of the Inland Empire, will be represented at the big commercial and industrial celebration to be held at Flavel and Astoria Wednesday is shown by the list of acceptances that have been received from prominent men in the several cities.

Seattle, Wash.—Representatives of Seattle Commercial Club (to be named).

Spokane, Wash.—Gordon C. Corbaley, secretary Spokane Chamber of Commerce, and representatives of the Chamber (to be named); F. W. Anderson, chairman Columbia River committee, Chamber of Commerce; George W. Chow, P. L. Spangler.

Salem—Governor West, Secretary of State Olcott.

Eugene, Or.—Morris J. Duryea, manager, and E. Dike Hooper and J. W. Duffell, representing Eugene Commercial Club.

St. Johns, Or.—Representatives of St. Johns Commercial Club (to be named).

Portland—A. H. Averill, president, and representatives of the Portland Chamber of Commerce (to be named); C. C. Chapman, secretary Oregon Development League, and representatives of the Portland Commercial Club (to be named); Jacob Kasper, president, and representatives of the Progressive

Business Men's Club (to be named); G. B. Hegardt, engineer, and Charles B. Moore, representing the Commission of Public Docks; Charles A. Malbon, manager Fruitgrowers' Transportation Company; Julius A. Hildebrand, vice-president, Northwest Electric Company; Julius A. Hildebrand, vice-president, Northwest Electric Company; Samuel Hill, president Home Telephone Company; Joseph N. Teal, communication committee, Portland Chamber of Commerce; E. W. Wright, manager Merchants' Exchange; M. T. H. Johnson, general manager of the Port of Portland; Phil Metzger, Jr., manager Imperial Hotel; George M. Cornhill, editor the Timberman; F. N. Clark, of F. N. Clark & Co., Port Stevens, Or.—Colonel H. H. Ludlow, commandant, and staff

The man who carries a policy in the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co. never has any apology to offer because of the Company in which he is insured.

HORACE MECKLEM, General Agent 330-331 Northwestern Bank Building

Convenient Complete Courteous Capable advertisement for Northwestern National Bank.

"HEART SONGS" COUPON advertisement for The Oregonian.

HOW TO GET IT ALMOST FREE advertisement for The Oregonian.

Lillian, dear, why so sad? advertisement featuring a cartoon illustration of a man and a woman.

In the Wyoming and others of the

By the time the fire department

Going bugs about Roses and Rose Shows

Any body can dance where there's music

Id see Eilers

Id see Eilers